The Curse of Progress

The Business Getter

Elmer's Mother — Doctor, I suppose you will be getting a good fee for attending little James Robey—the family are so rich?
 Doctor—Why do you ask?
 Elmer's Mother — Well, I hope when you send us your next bill you'll bear in mind that it was our Elmer what throwed the brick that hit James.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Force of Habit

Henry — What happened to you and the school teacher? You said you were going to marry her.
 Charles — Well, I got to thinking what a job it would be to write "I must be home by 10 o'clock" a hundred or so times every time I came home late.

Not Homesick

Rastus was in the war. At every explosion he tried to get to the rear line.
 Colonel—You shouldn't be afraid, Rastus. What if you die? Heaven is your home.
 Rastus—Yes, suh, Ah knows. But Ah ain't homesick.

THE SCOLDING

By GLUYAS WILLIAMS

Uncle Phil Says:

In Good Company
 Company is one of the greatest pleasures of the nature of man, for the beams of joy are made hotter by reflection when related to another.

Theories might work, if human nature didn't interfere.
 A young intellectual tries to get along without emotions and presently makes the horrible discovery that he has lost them.

A man may frequently think and say he is misunderstood, but the man who thinks he is and doesn't care sufficiently to say anything about it, is the most admirable.

The Present Moment

Try to be happy in this present moment, and put not off being so to a time to come.

Coarseness isn't much better than outright immodesty.

The prodigal son came of a good family. That is why he came back.

The man who makes no mistakes does not usually make anything.

A good provider never lacks an admiring eye.
