Constipated 30 Years

"For thirty years I had stubborn constipation. Sometimes I did not go for four or five days. I also had awful gas bloating, headaches and pains in the back. Adierka helped right away.

"I am, always have been, and will continue to be opposed to the usurpation of legislative functions by the courts; I am, have been, and will be opposed to usurpation of legislative and judicial functions by the executive branch of the government."

"The issue is: How are we going to prevent in the future this usurpation of the legislative power by the courts? Shall we attempt to coerce them by packing the court with six new men? If we do add six new men to the court does it correct the evil? Or is it merely a temporary expedient?"

"Every labor leader, every farmer, and every progressive-minded citizen in the United States would have been shocked and protested from the house tops if President Harding, President Coolidge, or President Hoover had even intimated that they wanted to increase the Supreme court so as to make it subservient to their wishes."

"There is nothing democratic, progressive, or fundamentally sound in the proposal advanced by the administration."

Attorney General Cummings advanced these two reasons for supporting the President's proposal: New blood should be injected into the judiciary in order that the Constitution shall be construed in keeping with the changing needs produced by new complexities of national life.

The congestion of dockets in the federal courts is largely due to the inability of aged and infirm judges to perform their share of the work.

Investigation has shown, however, that the second reason is unsound. Commenting on Mr. Cummings' speech, Senator Glass of Virginia said: "I think it indicates that the country is in infinitely greater need of an attorney general than of additional judges on the Supreme court or of judicial wet nurses for six of the present members of the court."

Senator Minton of Indiana defended the plan in a radio address but probably did it more harm than good, for he frankly admitted the purpose of the administration is to change the personnel and views of the Supreme court, in order that President Roosevelt's New Deal program will be held constitutional.

World Is Preparing for Another War

ACCORDING to a survey made by the Foreign Policy association, the world expenditure on arms and armies in preparation for war has more than doubled in the last two years, reaching a record height of $11,000,000,000 in 1936 alone. The cost of armaments in 1934 was $5,000,000,000. Soviet Russia in both years is accredited with the lead in the spending for military purposes, its military budget for 1936 reaching almost $3,000,000,000. But the greatest increase in the course of the two years was recorded by Germany whose tremendous rearmament program has raised the German military budget to seven times its 1934 level. It is estimated as spending $2,600,000,000 in 1936.

In Germany, Japan and Italy the proportion of the national income going to unproductive military purposes has reached "alarming figures" and many other countries have "strained their financial resources," the report declares.

Indiana Auto Workers Appeal to President

MEMBERS of the United Automobile Workers stirred up a riot in Anderson, Ind., that resulted in the injury of several men, and Governor Townsend responded to an appeal from the sheriff of Madison county by sending National Guardsmen to maintain order and keep outsiders from entering the county to aggravate the trouble.

Thereupon Victor Reuther, a leader of the U. A. W., sent a telegram to President Roosevelt calling for "direct intervention" and demanding the lifting of the military restrictions "so that union members can become free men again."

Information from Anderson indicated the union men were directly responsible for the disorder.

Hayashi Urges Russia and China to Be Peaceful

GEN. SENJURO HAYASHI, premier and foreign minister of Japan, in a formal statement of policy to the parliament, said his government would "pay special attention" to the adjustment of the empire's relations with soviet Russia and China, and urged those nations to cease their quarrels with Japan and try to comprehend Japan's position and aims in East Asia.

He called attention to the fact that Japan no longer is bound by any naval limitations treaty but declared "there shall be no change in our policy of strict adherence to the principle of nonmenace and non-aggression."

Hayashi's cabinet decided on a budget reduction of approximately 8 1/2 per cent; Lieut. Gen. Hajime Sugiyama, the new war minister, objected to any cut in the huge army budget, but it was reduced slightly.

British Destroyers Fire on Spanish Rebel Plane

SIX bombs were dropped by a plane, supposedly a Spanish insurgent craft, close to two British destroyers off the coast of Algeria. The warships, which were not damaged, drove away the plane with gunfire. The British government at once lodged protests with the Fascist authorities.

Valencia, the temporary capital of the loyalist government, was shelled by an insurgent warship and many persons, most of them women and children, were reported killed and injured. The city is packed with refugees and the civil population was panic-stricken by the bombardment.

A few days previously a Fascist warship shelled Barcelona, capital of the autonomous state of Catalonia.

Schuschnigg Favors Return of Hapsburg Dynasty

RESTORATION of the Hapsburg dynasty in Austria was openly advocated by Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg, who committed his government party to that proposition. He intimated that a plebiscite would be held to decide the question.

The chancellor asserted that increasing official support would be given to the campaign to place Archduke Otto of Hapsburg again on the throne which his father, the Emperor Karl, "temporarily renounced" November 11, 1918. The archduke is twenty-four years old.

Clark, Wheeler Attack President's Court Plan

THOUGH President Roosevelt persisted in his intention to force through congress his measure to "reform" the federal judiciary, law-makers who have been his warm supporters are coming out one by one in hot opposition to his plan to pack the Supreme court.

Among them are Senator Bennett C. Clark of Missouri and Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, both leading House Democrats. They studied the scheme carefully before issuing their statements. The announcements of these men were scarcely offset by a radio address by Attorney General Homer S. Cummings, dutifully defending the President's plan.

Senator Clark said he was entirely in accord with the minor proposals in Mr. Roosevelt's scheme, but was totally unable to agree with the provisions for packing the Supreme court. He continued: "The conclusion is unescapable that to increase the court at one time by the increase of an additional two-thirds of its present membership is to pack the court with reference to a particular situation and particular litigation now pending or to be immediately pending before it."

"To me it seems a radical and unnecessary change in our whole system of government, without the submission to the people in the proper form of an amendment to the Constitution. Therefore I shall vote against that portion of the President's proposals."

Then came Senator Wheeler, stalwart radical, with a statement which it was reported he made public over the protests of the White House. He said in part: "I am, always have been, and will continue to be opposed to the usurpation of legislative functions by the courts; I am, have been, and will be opposed to usurpation of legislative and judicial functions by the executive branch of the government."

"The issue is: How are we going to prevent in the future this usurpation of the legislative power by the courts? Shall we attempt to coerce them by packing the court with six new men? If we do add six new men to the court does it correct the evil? Or is it merely a temporary expedient?"

"Every labor leader, every farmer, and every progressive-minded citizen in the United States would have been shocked and protested from the house tops if President Harding, President Coolidge, or President Hoover had even intimated that they wanted to increase the Supreme court so as to make it subservient to their wishes."

"If this administration can increase the Supreme court to make it subservient to its wishes, another Harding administration can do the same thing."

"There is nothing democratic, progressive, or fundamentally sound in the proposal advanced by the administration."

Ballyhoo Sending Bomber Same Way Maxie Baer Went

JOE LOUIS' purses have totaled more than $700,000 since he became a professional prize fighter thirty months ago. He was accompanied to his corner on the night he fought Bob Pastor by eleven managers, trainers, promoters, seconds and less easily identified parties. Since all of them probably like to eat and wear diamonds, a considerable portion of his rewards must have been shared with them.

Even in this land of surprises there scarcely is any precedent for the amazing triumph of this giant. There may, though, be a very good and modern precedent for what has been happening to the youngster recently. I refer to the sad case of Max Baer.

Both Max and Joe arrived quickly. They were fortunate in their early connections and did not have to come up the hard way as did Jack Dempsey.

Each of them was well possessed of the purely physical virtues which make for a great fighter. Probably Baer was the better built and the better able to sustain a punch, but each of them owned amazing hitting ability.

This latter quality, as displayed in the matches that were made for them, covered up inherent defects. Indeed it caused the un-discerning to proclaim them as on-punch-through some God-given right—talent that can only come by long and faithful practice.

Baer, who should have been a champion for ten years, went first and quickest. He read the papers and otherwise amused himself. Thought that a hungry father must tremble at headlines which screamed that the odds should be 1,000 to 1 and that stretcher-bearers should sit close to the ringside. Jim Braddock, not a great fighter then or now but an earnest man who had worked hard for his chance, utterly discredited Baer.

Much the same thing now is happening to Louis. He was not a good boxer when he first appeared against Carnera less than two years ago. But he could punch hard and fast and possessed superb poise when things were going well.

Newspapers and radios built up a myth about him that could have endured almost as long as the twin gags about George Washington's cherry tree and Calvin Coolidge's silent wisdom. Undoubtedly various of the lambs that were being led into the ring were rendered even more timid by the press advices that they were about to be slaughtered unmercifully.

All the while Joe read the sports pages and the comic sheets and otherwise amused himself. When preparing for a fight he slept, ate and popped over as woeful a set of sparring partners as ever appeared for the ancient and elegant purpose of getting popped over. In the ring against Sharkey, Retzlaff and Brescias he learned even less. Perhaps confidence was built high in him, but confidence means little without such a backing as Joe never strove to attain.

Even the shellacking received from Schmeling, a second-rater as great heavyweights go, taught no lesson. Nor could repeated warnings convince Joe's camp followers of the altered temper of disillusioned cash customers. Business went on as usual, although the crowd reaction was far from being as good as of yore. Meanwhile, the inevitable kept on getting closer.

The Louis who scrambled with Bob Pastor was a sorely puzzled boy. The one set of rules with which he was familiar were being discarded as on the Schmeling night. Thirty months of headlining and more than $700,000 in purses had given him nothing with which to meet new conditions.

He has, perhaps, picked up a few cute little punches for which a more discerning referee would have penalized him. Otherwise he has not advanced. Indeed has become more sluggish, seems definitely to have gone back.

Max Baer.

NOT IN THE BOX SCORE:

ANOTHER attempt will be made to straighten the tangled affairs of the Brooklyn baseball club before the Dodgers start spring training. It is possible that long hoped-for sale or in a shift in stock control . . . Chick Meehan, the coach who put N. Y. U. and Manhattan in the front football ranks, is winter vacationing in Miami . . . Pennsylvania's racing commissioners will receive annual salaries of $10,000 each, tops for such jobs, if the sport becomes legal in that state. . . . Gossips insist that if any local college court stars failed in their mid-year exams it was because the boys were playing semi-pro basketball in Yonkers and outlying Westchester spots when they should have been studying.

When former Boxing Commissioner Jim Farley quits being Postmaster General the best bet is that he will hook up with a famous insurance company. That Garden tip probably got out because Jim is planning a few Florida days as the guest of Stanton Griffis, Wall Street and movie notable, who also heads the Garden board of directors . . . Casey Stengel now is in Texas looking over some oil property which may soon make him as rich in money as he already is in friends . . . Garry Schmeek, former basketball star and layer of odds on met courses, is in a new business. He runs a riot of a place in Miami Beach called the Circus . . . Either Prosecutor Dewey or the G-Men might perform a much needed service for a long suffering public by investigating the New York prize fight situation.

Several of the best fights of recent weeks have been pick-up affairs at the very social Hialeah racetrack. A prominent trainer was the main performer in one of them and a celebrated jockey started in another . . . Eddie Burke, who manages Havre De Grace and the new dirt track at Wilmington, once was president of the Metropolitan association. Back in 1905 the Mets were celebrated as the nation's strongest organization of bookmakers . . . The Whitneys are as clever as ever at picking names for their horses. Take Septime, now in Florida with the Green tree division. Septime's mammy is Parry and Septime also is the seventh, or parry, position in fencing.

Italians Now Boss Lightweight Class

The lightweight class which in the past has been dominated by Irish, Jews, negroes and other racial strains now is strongest in Italians. For instance there are Champion Lou Ambers (Luigi D'Ambrasio), Tony Canzoneri, Enrico Venturi, Aldo Spoldi and Phil Baker (Philip Matra) . . . Some of the sharpest of bettors will look for a price on Brooklyn when the future weeks come out for the Kentucky Derby. This Colonel Bradley coil was a late-season development as a youngster . . . Cleveland and Chicago have been so impressed by the prospective success of the American Bowling Congress which will be held in New York in the spring that they are bidding hot for the 1938 tournament.

Arthur Lumley, dean of New York boxing writers, is very ill in his Brooklyn home. He is more than eighty years old . . . Dave Driscoll, former and very able business manager of the Dodgers, is hoping to connect again with some International league club . . . Harry Voiter, who came all the way from Florida for the Pastor-Louis fight, has joined the list of those who believe the New York boy some day will be heavyweight champion . . . A Braddock-Louis fight in Chicago probably would not draw any more than $300,000 in spite of interested ballyhoo to the contrary . . . Incidentally Braddock is one fighter Louis can knock out and the job could be done quickly . . . It's a tough thing for a guy who bet on Jim against Baer to say but it's true . . . Also there's plenty of McCoy in the statement that John Henry Lewis, the colored lightweight champion, would be no worse than even money if Joe ever decided to quit drawing the color line against him.

Johnny Moir, whose brilliant work at forward has helped Notre Dame to defeat the No. 1 and No. 2 Big Ten basketball teams in succession, holds every scoring record in his school's history except one . . . That's Ed Krause's three year mark of 547 points . . . In a season and a half Moir has scored 435 points . . . If he continues to average 17 points a game as he has for the last five games he will have a new record before the end of his second season . . . Joe Cronin is getting a share of the $250,000 purchase price his father-in-law, Clark Griffith, got for him from Boston at the rate of ten cents a hole on a Florida golf course . . . Visiting ball teams at Comiskey park will have a new clubhouse at their disposal this season . . . Plans for the new quarters are being drawn up and President J. Louis Comiskey promises it will be the best in the major leagues . . . The Sox will continue to occupy their present rooms, which were built when the park was enlarged.
