

DEATHS

CAPT. JOSEPH CLAY

Capt. Joseph Clay, aged 88 years, one of the oldest watermen of the upper Chesapeake Bay, died at his home in Upper Elk Neck, Monday night. Captain Clay was a son of the late Capt. Jacob Clay, and all his life was spent in the vicinity where he died. His wife died five years ago. One son Joseph Clay, Jr., of Elkton, and one daughter Miss Hattie Clay, survive him. The funeral was held from his late home Wednesday afternoon, with interment in Elkton cemetery.

THOMAS SMITH

Thomas Smith died April 26 after a long illness from cancer. He was 68, a son of John and Mary Richey Smith and spent most of his life in Oakwood vicinity, being a farmer. He is survived by his wife, two sisters, Mrs. George Kennard and Mrs. William Riley, two brothers, John Smith, Oakwood, and Harvey Smith, Lancaster. Services were held in Oakwood church, Thursday, 2 p. m.; interment in Oakwood cemetery.

JOSEPH L. BROWN

Joseph L. Brown, aged 56 years, died April 25 in Lancaster. Interment was made in Chestnut Level cemetery.

He was born in Fulton township, a son of the late Allen and Rebecca Cruikshank Brown, and was a member of Chestnut Level Presbyterian Church.

Beside his wife, who was Susan Harvey of Drumore before marriage, he leaves these children: Clarence E., Robert J., Earl T., Paul D., and Helen M., all of Lancaster; also a brother and two sisters: Clarence E., St. Louis; Sophia, wife of William Nesbitt, Colera, and Ella, wife of Sylvester Bean, Baltimore.

MRS. MARTHA J. ABBOTT

Reference was made in last week's issue of the Journal to the death of Mrs. Martha J. Abbott on May 4th. The funeral was held on May 7th. The interment was in Woodlawn cemetery, New York.

The immediate cause of Mrs. Abbott's death was cancer of the thyroid gland. Her suffering was so great that death came as a great relief.

Had obsequies been conducted near home, no church in this vicinity would have accommodated the attendance.

The display of flowers would have delighted Martha.

Mrs. Abbott had wonderful personality and her great mission in life was to aid the sick and afflicted.

She was a member of the Presbyterian Church, a superior nurse and housewife.

We shall not look upon her like again. She married H. B. Abbott 24 years ago.

THE NEEDLEWORK GUILD OF AMERICA

An invitation to Philadelphia in Maytime insures the usual large number of delegates who will assemble at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, when The Needlework Guild of America holds its 52nd annual convention May 20th, 21st and 22nd, in the city of its birth.

Registration of delegates, routine business reports and election of National officers will take place Thursday morning, followed by a Get-together luncheon and then the open meeting when Rabbi Finehrber will be the principal speaker.

Interesting group meetings are scheduled for Friday morning, and in the afternoon the "All Philadelphia Branches" of the Needlework Guild will entertain with a tour of certain ancient houses that have been restored to their old time charm, concluding with a Tea Party at Strawberry Mansion.

Thursday evening's program is in charge of the Labrador Coast to Coast Branch which aids Sir Wilfred Grenfell's mission by annual shipments of warm clothing for the Labrador people he so generously helps.

The Saturday morning session will be devoted to general discussion of Guild problems and activities. Following this, the Convention will be turned over to the Juniors for the graphic presentation of their work. Delegates to the National Convention from the Colera Branch have not been appointed. We want several to go to represent us. Please call Bertha Balderston and make arrangements if you can go.

If you dress shabbily, your wife apologizes for you; if you look swell she tells everybody that she picked the suit.

No man's demand for equality is honest. He believes in equality with those above him, but denies it to those below.

Mr. Clarence Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams, of Wilmington, called on their mother, Mrs. Jesse Williams, Sunday.

Mrs. Gilbert Simmers rendered a solo at the Sunday morning service at Hopewell. In the evening service the church school had charge. The pastor sang a solo. A gorgeous basket of flowers was given to the oldest mother there, Mrs. Elmer Watkins. A tie between Mrs. Howard Jackson and Mrs. Jos. D. Simmers for having same number of living children, eight, so the flowers were divided. Tulips were presented to the youngest mother, Mrs. Wilmer Brown.

NOTTINGHAM TRIPS NEWARK 2 TO 1

Newark High School met defeat at the hands of the West Nottingham Academy nine in a tight, fast ball game at West Nottingham, Wednesday afternoon, May 5.

Hill, the visiting twirler, pitched a nice game setting the Maryland sluggers down with one hit, but he was a trifle wild and that was his down fall. Emrey was hit by a pitched ball in the first inning, and walked in the third. On both occasions the fleet-footed Nottingham first baseman made a clean steal of second.

And both times, Bill Reynolds sent him tearing home with precious runs, the first time when Crater dropped his sizzling line drive to left, and again on a clean single over second, the only maroon hit of the play.

For Nottingham, Thompson flashed his regular form for the first time this season, limiting Newark to 5 singles, all nicely scattered, and issuing only one pass.

In the sixth inning with the tying run on second, Respass, Maroon third baseman, dove clean back of the bag to make a dazzling one-handed stop of what looked like a sure two-bagger and threw his man out at first. It was the prettiest play of the game.

Smitley's fine relay to the plate after catching a fly in deep left prevented a Newark score in the fifth.

Greatest Circus Is Coming To Baltimore

Dazzling Introductory Spectacle. One of Host of New World Acclaimed Features of Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Organization

The world's mightiest amusement enterprise on tour—the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey combined circus—with its 1937 seven-ring-and-stage program, star studded and liberally interspersed with new thrillers from Europe and Asia, featuring among its array of new wonders the most gorgeous introductory spectacle in its brilliant history, India, is definitely scheduled to exhibit in Baltimore, May 20-21.

India is not just another circus spectacle. It is not merely a glittering parade to open the Big Show performances. It is the result of a year's planning, a really staggering expenditure and much research on the part of Sam W. Gumpertz, general manager of The Greatest Show on Earth. Costly fabrics were purchased in car load lots. Color schemes blend in lovely perspectives. Every one of the two thousand people and animals taking part wears a small fortune on his or its back. All have towering headdresses of exquisite beauty. One group of 170 horses, with girl riders, is like nothing ever before offered, for the horses, wearing medieval bejeweled blankets of velvet, carry gorgeous canopies over the girls' heads. India is a torrent of color and flashing jewels, flowing over the hippodrome track and the seven rings and stages. It is the last word in pageantry.

In aerial and equestrian displays The Greatest Show on Earth has outdone itself this year, while the ground acrobatic numbers are the largest and finest ever presented in any land or age.

The Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey combined circus will arrive on four long trains of 100 double-length steel railroad cars, carrying 1600 people, 1009 menagerie animals, 7 herds of elephants and 700 horses.

SUN CAUSES FIRE

Here is one for "Believe It Or Not Ripley." It is clipped from the Quarryville, Pa., Sun:

The sun set fire to Joseph Rohrer's home at Manheim, Monday. Cleaning house, Mrs. Rohrer put a feather mattress on a tin roof. A short time later she found the house afire.

Firemen, after extinguishing the blaze which caused less than $100 damage, said the sun's rays produced spontaneous combustion in the oil of the feathers.

Helen Fitzgerald is enjoying a fine new bicycle.

Mrs. E. S. Rowland has a new car. Mrs. John Henry, Mrs. William Burdett, Mrs. Elizabeth Mears, Charles Ewing, spent Mother's Day with their mother, Mrs. Annie Ewing.

Lewis A. Coulson and friend, Yorklyn, Del., called on relatives in this vicinity Sunday afternoon.
