NOT IN HIS VOCABULARY

Bug—I can't stop, I'm in a hurry. Snail—Hurry? What's that hurry mean?

Who For?

Father was losing his temper with his son, who, it appeared, was quite incapable of learning anything.

One day, when the lad was even more than usually stupid, his father sent him round to the local druggist for some common sense.

The boy took the quarter, and, just as he got to the door, turned to his father:

"Shall I say it's for you, dad?" he asked.

AND STEP LIVELY, TOO

Visitor—Since baby came I suppose you and your wife hardly ever attend evening affairs?
Daddy—Don't we though. Attend a bawl almost every night.

A Few Little Smiles

PRETTY HIGH-TONED

Mr. A., who discovered two mice in a trap, addressed the lady of the house in the following brief language: "Estimable madam, immediately disengage these obnoxious rodents from the shackles which have environed them and promptly convey their pestiferous carcasses across the street where the neighbor's happy feline may indulge in their luscious substance and partake of their most delightful and stimulating qualities which appeal to his marvelous appetite and enrich his inner propensities for the devouring of these detestable and troublesome creatures which inhabit our domicile."

ATTRACTIVE GIRL

She—Her father is a steel magnate, of course you know?
He—That's why she's so attractive to me, I suppose.

Trouble Ahead

The lady of the house suspected that one of her two sons was paying attention to the maid. Anxious to find out which one, she said to the girl: "Norah, supposing you had the opportunity of going to the movies with one of my sons, which one would you prefer?"

"Well," replied Norah, "it's hard to say, for I've had grand times with the both of them, but for a real, rollicking spree, give me the master!"

Call Out the Guards

An angry woman rushed into the clerk's office. In her hand she bore a license. Turning to the clerk: "Did you, or did you not, issue this license for marrying me to Albert Briggs?" she demanded.
"Yes, I believe I did. Why?"
"Well, what are you going to do about it?" she stormed. "He's escaped."

It All Adds Up

Visitor—Well, your baby is certainly a cute little rascal. Does he take after his father?
Mother—Well, yes, in a way. His father is not quite so cute, but much more of a rascal.

WATCH YOUR STEP

Mr. Kallow—Yes, ma'am, I've just taken my degree. I'm a Bachelor of Arts.

Mrs. Wise—That's nice. But let me warn you it takes many arts for a young man to remain a bachelor.

Correct Audience

Professor—I am going to speak on liars today. How many of you have read the twenty-fifth chapter of the text?

Nearly every student raised his hand.

Professor—Good. You are the group to whom I wish to speak. There is no twenty-fifth chapter.

Clinging Gowns

Dolly—Does your husband like clinging gowns?

Molly—He sure does. He likes one to cling to me for about five years.

Head of the Class

Professor—Now class, how many make a dozen?

Class—Twelve.

Professor—How many make a million?

Class—Very few these days.

You Would Too

Physical Culture Instructor (to new pupil)—Your chest expansion is extraordinary.

Pupil—I've just had a salary increase, and the girl I love has accepted me at last.

HOW TO SEW

by Ruth Wyeth Spears

CUT STRAIGHT BANDS 2" WIDE. TURN AND PRESS EDGES; THEN STITCH AS SHOWN

Blue denim with red bands for a boy's bed.

"STURDY and masculine." Also, "Red trimmings, please." That was the order for the bedspread in the combination work-and-play room of a 10-year-old lad. Blue and tan predominated in the room. The clever mother made curtains for the rather large square window; using lunch cloths in these colors—one cloth making a pair of curtains.

Blue denim with red gingham bands is suggested for the spread. The diagram may be used as a guide for cutting and making a spread of any 36-inch material for a bed of any width. The amount of material needed will be three times the full width of the finished spread, plus two inches. Two seams covered by bands run straight across the width of the spread. The two lengthwise bands may be close together or far apart according to the width of the bed. The corners at the foot are cut out as shown. The edges are then pressed to the right side and bands stitched over them.

Doc's Note Came Easy To Chemist—With Cash

An invitation to dinner had been sent to the new doctor. In reply the hostess received an absolutely illegible letter.

"I must know if he accepts or declines," she declared.

"If I were you," suggested her husband, "I should take it to the druggist. They can always read doctors' letters."

The druggist looked at the sheet of notepaper which she had handed him, and without waiting for her explanation went into his dispensary and returned a few minutes later with a bottle which he handed over the counter.

"There you are, madam," he said. "That will be $1.50, please."
