

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. England Entertain Farmers Club

The October meeting of the Ninth District Farmers Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. England, with the president, Howard R. Brown presiding. After singing Old Folks at Home, roll call was answered with my favorite quotation. Mr. J. Z. Miller, county agent talked on conservation and the part the farmers must have in the new defense program.

Mr. William Reynolds and Mr. Thomas Reynolds were appointed on the inspection committee.

After a bountiful dinner and a pleasant social hour the host was complimented on his up to date barn and milk house. Dr. Atchley and Dr. Barshinger, representatives of the Abbott Milk Company showed two talking pictures, "The milk foundation of America" and "All Washed Up".

Mr. England read a poem "Won't you live for years".

Miss H. I. Smith, Home Demonstration Agent, made announcements of coming events before introducing the speaker, Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, who gave a very interesting talk on the work of the Children's Aid in the county.

Mrs. Atlee Armour gave a most interesting account of the 4-H club meeting she had attended at Jackson Hills, West Virginia.

The club adjourned to meet with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fassitt in November.

Rising Sun Wins County Championship

Rising Sun Base Ball Team, winner of first place in the Cecil County League, made it two straight over Calvert on the Calvert diamond Saturday, by the score of 12-7, and thereby became the champions of the county.

"Mike" Brown, who relieved Smith in the fourth inning, was the real hero of the game. Over the route of 5 1-3 innings, "Mike" allowed the hard hitting Calvert boys one hit and struck out 6. In addition "Mike" hit a long double and a single. "Ernie" Little demonstrated that a surname means nothing when you have a good eye and a big bat, for "Ernie" came up with the score tied at 7-7 in the eighth inning with the bases loaded and hit one far and wide for a base cleaning triple. "Dick" Jenkins, who started three rallies, led both teams at bat with 3 out of 5 trips to the plate.

For the losers, Jim Yerkes blasted a mighty home run with the bases filled in the 4th inning.

A victory dinner will be tendered the victorious team by Rev. J. B. Dickerson on Monday night, Oct. 13, in the Methodist church.

4-H Youth Council

The meeting opened with 15 members present. Reading of treasurer's report was given by Walton Mason, Treasurer. Report was given on Bookers Beach. Plans were made to have a masked Halloween dance and party, Tuesday, October 28. Having cider and ginger snaps. Refreshment Committee: Adelaide Swift, Alfred Crothers, Jr., and Robert Baker, Jr.

Suggestions were given to attend a Rural Youth Meeting in Lancaster County.

Florence Graham gave a brief report on 4-H Club at College Park. Quite a few from Cecil County enjoyed the banquet.

Motion was made that we take up collection of 10c per person for refreshments at each meeting. Money for refreshments will be held in separate fund and will balance.

Daddy Jenks will be here at next meeting. Program—Rev. Konrad will give motion pictures of Missionary pictures in Albania.

Elkton Man Seeks Divorce

Suit has been docketed in the Circuit Court at Elkton, by James Thomas Malin of Elkton for an absolute divorce from his wife, Mrs. Olive Elizabeth Malin, on the grounds of desertion. The plaintiff alleges that they were married in Bel Air, Md., on August 20, 1932 and lived together until December, 1934. There are no children.

Farm Bureau Conference

Mr. and Mrs. David B. McDowell, of Calvert and Mrs. Atlee Armour of Greenhurst were delegates from Cecil county to the Regional meeting of the National Farm Bureau meeting at Jackson's Mill, West Virginia. Over 200 delegates from the North East section attended the conference. Mr. McDowell is president of the Cecil County Branch.

Struck By Auto And Killed

Mrs. Mamie Weaver, aged 33, of near Calvert, met instant death on Wednesday morning, about seven o'clock. Mrs. Weaver was returning from work at the Triumph Explosive Co. plant, near Elkton and stepped from the auto in which she had been riding directly in front of a machine being driven by J. Scott Black, of near Quarryville, Pa. She was struck and instantly killed.
