

Constables

On the death or removal of any Constable or refusal or neglect of any Person, appointed by the county court, to qualify, any two next Justices of the county are required forthwith, to appoint some other proper person to be constable of the vacant Hundred, who, upon their certificate to him - Copy of such appointment, delivered, shall within the time appointed by the act of Assembly and according to the directions therein Qualify himself under the penalties directed by this Act - Constable of the Hundred shall be paid his fee at the demand at the request of the Plaintiff, is served by an indifferent Person gratis - Bacon -

(Discount in Bar)

Accounts sworn by the Creditor to be just and true & before an Justice shall be good Evidence Except the Debtor or Defendant make it appear by lawful Evidence, other than his or her own Oath or Affirmation, that such account is false in part or in the whole - The Defendant may prove an Acc<sup>t</sup> ag<sup>t</sup> the Plaintiff which shall be discounted, except the Plaintiff or Creditor can prove the whole or part to be false, by legal Evidence or by acc<sup>t</sup> of a shop or inferior <sup>statute</sup> properly proved, may be discounted out of a Bond Bill, or the Debtors Assumpsit provided it arose after the passing the 1st Bond Bill or Assumpsit - Bacon