1774 Aug. 18 John Bolton to [illegible]

SIDE ONE

Sir

Have sent ye Mr Hodges some Letters for Baltimore one for Mr Thomas Jones to whom have wrote to pay you fifty three Pounds Nine Shillings & Eleven pence or £53.-10 Sh[illegible] which I take to be the Ballance due to your House if he still refuses to pay it unless you will take it 66⅔ Exch[ange] may take it at that rate & I will make up to you the deficiency of three & one third p[er] C[ent]. I also gave him a Letter to your house inclosing a second Bill Exch[ange] for £30 Ster[ling]. the first of which I sent by a Vessel that sailed in June from Annapolis please forward it ye first opportunity to Bristol or London & you'll Oblige

Chester Town
Aug[ust] 18. 1774.

Y Hbl Serv[an]t
Bolton