1869 October [illegible]

Friday morning

I am sorry to find that Mary's sleeve band is broken will you see if it can be mended. Billy asked this morning for three dollars on account of his wages. Any loans that I buy for you I will pay for out of the money that Cousin Mary paid me and then you can return it to me when I go to Philadelphia. Harry has given Henry a draft on Uncle G. for thirty dollars, where is all the money to come from well we must trust that it will all come out straight in the end but I do not see our way clear yet. Once more Good bye.

Yours fondly

Mary E. Murray
