SIDE TWO

and are very sure to day again.
Late very thankful for tea. Mrs Miller. Mr Rud and Effie Bear and Ballenger myself - She has her shoulder to the wheel and works cheerfully The accounts from Mercy are encouraging as regards Annie Kirk. Mrs Buckley & all our dear Cattle Effie enjoying herself highly Israel says there is no difficulty about a pump One can be got either here or Baltimore - I will enquire about the price She not mind if any more than a common pump - They have one at Hawthorne Ridge I believe & also at Walbrook. I Henry come to Baltimore & we can make enquiry We can learn all about it at the Planters Light St where I purchased the Hall Stove - Be sure you pray for me Ever comfort yourselves - If I do not get away here I will see you down in the fall when you are ready to return with me. - My heart yearns after you dear. But I am kept cheerful and almost hoping & the midst of all I do realize the truth that we have been most mercifully [illegible] - Yet I can write but feebly to you this time. Thus divided yet I am pitifully [illegible] with our [illegible] at present and not conscious
