0982

1837, 1840 Caspar Morris Letter book MS1894

Caspar Morris
Letter book

her means of support. on the Sunday on how I occupy to way I open for you to acquire Wealth & splendid to bestow it upon you - respectability, a society and usefulness all that is Needed on your part is a steady determination to do not your duty only but all that is in your power to give satisfaction to Every body and you Establish for yourself a reputation which is worth a fortune Mr Brown in his communications to me stated without hesitation that he was had in his Employ house any one who gave him so entire satisfaction as you While you made the effort to please him but he at the same time states that for some time past your Conduct had been such as to render it impossible for him to permit you to Continue - Now my Dear Stewart let me propose to you this simple question in which state of mind had you most Comfort whilst you were laboring under