C 1 5

1887-1889, n.d. Emily Hollingsworth Incoming Files

Recd the 4th and the 6th of August

ANNAPOLIS AUG 3 PM 1887 MD

Miss Hollingsworth
520 Tasker Street
Philadelphia
Pennsylvania

SIDE ONE

enjoys in such hot weather as we have had - with the liberty of doing just as you please - At present we are favoured with rather cooler breezes (the thermometer to day has stood at about 79.) with some rain. This we would have been glad to have been without for a few days as it interferes with the thrashing which Rob was in the midst of at Tulip Hill. But the rain obliged him to stop with that however it enabled him to take a good rest this afternoon which he evidently needed. Harry slept on the library sofa and Rob on the parlour - for the rain also stopped the picking of the blackberries, so that they were not obliged to be at the canning house. Deedie had a nice letter from Charley this evening - he was about starting for his camping out - Every had taken out their goods and chattels and they hoped to be fixed before Sunday - this would be a bad day for them if they had the same weather there that we have had. He invites Cousin Lia to join him and suggests that they might occupy one of the Union Springs Cabins. There are not many of them rented - One can never tell what a year may bring forth dear Cousin - but I do not yet see you and Deedie and Charley fixed there even in imagination! And now dear Cousin you want to know what their plans are so as to form yours by them - and all I can tell you is that they have no plans with many many thanks for the loving desire to be with them and to aid them. I do not think that Charley feels that matters have shaped themselves sufficiently for them to settle down to any thing yet - and they will not be able to make any definite