LIME.

To the Editor of the Annapolis Gazette:

WE deem it due to Mr. COULTER, of your place, to invite public attention to the very superior article of Lime now furnished by him. In doing so we feel that we are rendering a service to the Farmers, and especially to those of Anne Arundel county. We say without hesitation that, in our opinion, Mr. COULTER furnishes an article greatly superior to anything of the kind we have ever used or seen. The Lime furnished by him is burnt with the best spruce pine and light wood, the ashes of which every farmer knows the value of, in improving land. These mix with the Lime and add greatly to its fertilizing properties. Whereas the Lime obtained from Baltimore and elsewhere is burnt with filthy coal offal, procured from yards, and of course inferior in quality and of much less value as a fertilizer than that furnished by Mr. COULTER.

Mr. COULTER must certainly possess some secret in manufacturing his Lime, for we have never seen any Lime where all the shells were so thoroughly burnt. He burns ten thousand bushels in ten days, and every shell is converted into Lime of the finest quality and as white as the driven snow.

Dr. JAMES HIGGINS, State Agricultural Chemist, in company with Col. WALTON, visited Mr. COULTER's place of business a short time since, and pronounced his Lime the most beautiful article of the kind he had ever seen.

Mr. COULTER furnishes his Lime at Baltimore prices; and the farmers of Anne Arundel county and others would do well to give him a call, if they wish to procure an article of superior quality. FARMER.

CITIZENS;—I return you my sincere thanks for the liberal support extended to me during the last twenty years, and would further say that I have recovered my health so as to be able to supply your demands for anything pertaining to head gear.

But how long I shall be able to continue to do so, depends altogether upon you.

The state of the case stands thus: I must raise FIFTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS, very soon, or leave your county. Now I would say to you who desire my services any longer as a HATTER, that I would prefer to spend the balance of my days in the county of my adoption, but as intimated above, that is with you to say. I don't ask you to give or lend me anything, but simply to render unto me what you may think is my due—a word to the wise is enough. I remain as ever your obedient servant,

IN TIME FOR COURT.

AS Court is now in session, and many persons from different sections of the county will visit Easton, the subscriber would respectfully call their attention, as also the public generally, to his extensive and unrivalled assortment of WATCHES and JEWELRY, which surpasses all his former selections, both as regards price, quantity and excellence. He has added a great variety of other articles to his ordinary assortment, which cannot fail to attract the attention and secure the patronage of both ladies and gentlemen, (as necessary to the toilet) if they will but give him a call, and take a look at his well-filled cases. His stock at present embraces such a numerous variety of articles appertaining to his business, that he deems it unnecessary to rite the patience of the reader with enumerating at this time, but will lay the collection before them in print next week, if deemed advisable.

His selection of FANCY GOODS, embrace a greater variety of articles than he has heretofore presented to the public, and will be sold on better terms than they can be purchased elsewhere on the Eastern Shore. No one in want of a GOLD WATCH and its appendages can fail to be suited if they will just drop in and take a look at his superior collection of such articles. He has also purchased a superior article of PERFUMERY for the ladies, together with an endless variety of Fancy articles, that cannot fail to trract their attention and open their purses. This is a pleasant season of the year to go "bobbing around" occasionaly, and we do not know that you can do better than to drop in occasionally at "STEWART'S," and take a peep at the many attractive articles he has on exhibition.

Clocks, Watches and Jewelry repaired at short notice, in the best manner and on reasonable terms.

Old gold and silver bought or exchanged for goods.

Thankful for past favors, he trusts to merit and receive a share of public patronage.
