THE STAR.

EASTON, MD.

TUESDAY MORNING, MAR. 2, 1858.

Business Notices.

The large circulation of the Star renders it one of the best advertising mediums on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

Advertisements must be handed in on Saturday morning to insure insertion in the next issue.

Newspaper Agents in the cities must send the CASH with advertisements, or they will not be inserted.

Persons wishing to subscribe to, or advertise in the Star, must address us direct, as we have no agents, and those at a distance must accompany their orders with the cash.

The Post Master General has ordered the mail matter from Baltimore for the Post Offices in this county to be sent via Elkton. This arrangement will give us our Baltimore daily papers several hours in advance of the Wilmington route.

Crawford's Equestrian Statue of Washington, was inaugurated with great pomp and splendor, on the 22nd of February, at Richmond, Virginia. About forty thousand persons attended the inauguration. Hon. R M. T. Hunter was the orator of the day;

New Books.—We republish on our first page this morning from the Baltimore Exchange, are extended notice of The Life of Dr. Kane, by Dr. Elder, just published by Childs & Peterson, Philadelphia; also, an interesting extract from Parton's Life of Aaron Burr," just issued by Mason & Brother, New York. These are two of the most interesting books that have appeared for a great while, and will prove alike entertaining to youth and older persons.

To Correspondents.—"Young America's" reply to "Old Fogey" should have been accompanied with the name of the author.—Send us your name, and with a slight pruning of personalities your article shall have a place.

"Joe Dobbin's" favor is of questionable propriety, but as it is written in a sportive vein, with a view, we suppose, to have a little fun at the expense of his friends, it shall have a place next week if the writer will give us his name.

"Talbot" is unavoidable crowded out.

Thanks.—H. H. Goldsborough Esq. of the Md. House of Delegates, Mr. Clayton, clerk of the House, B. M. Bowdle Esq. of the Md. Senate, and Mr. Willis, clerk of the Senate, will accept our thanks for public documents. Also, Hon. James A. Pierce, of the U. S. Senate, will accept our thanks for vol. III, "Commercial Relations." The Senator will place us under additional obligations if he can furnish us with the two preceeding volumes of the work.

Our acknowledgements are also due Wm. B. Clark Esq. of the Md. House of Delegates, for a copy of the Report of the President and Directors of the Md. Penitentiary for 1857, also, Hon. Jas. A. Stewart, for a copy of the Report of the Commissioners Patents, for 1856, and to Hon. Wm. T. Avery, M. C. from Tennessee for a copy of his speech on our Central American Relations, and the Admission of Kansas into the Union, delivered in the House, January 27th 1858.

Court House Burnt.—The Court House at Belair, in Harford county, was destroyed by fire one night last week. This is the third Court House recently burnt in Maryland. The frequent destruction of public buildings by fire should admonish the people of this county of the importance of having fire proof safes erected for the security of our records, in the event of the burning of our Court House. The citizens of Harford county having fortunately sometime ago erected fire proof safes for the security of their public records, they were saved at the burning of their Court House. No amount of money could restore our records were they once destroyed, and it would take ten times the amount to partially restore them, that it would require to erect safes for their preservation We think it would be well to have some legislation on the subject during the present session.

The Eastern Shore Claim.—By reference to the proceedings of the Legislature in another place, it will be seen that the bill providing for the payment of the Eastern Shore Claim has been lost in the Senate by a vote of 10 noes to 8 ayes The vote, however, has been reconsidered, and the bill recommitted, and it is likely it will come up again in some other shape, The news of the defeat of the bill was received here with profound regret, and we have no doubt it will create a strong feeling of indignation throughout the Shore, The justice of the claim is so clear, and the ground of opposition so flimsey, we cannot perceive how the Senate could reject the bill, guarded as it was in every respect to protect the interests of the State. Those aspiring gentlemen at Annapolis who have taken the responsibility to defeat the bill, may rest assured that a day of reckoning will come, when the same measure of justice will be awarded to them, which they have seen proper to meet out to the people of this Shore. We feel too strongly the great wrong which a majority of the Senate have inflicted on the Eastern Shore to trust ourself to comment further on the subject, and hope that a returning sense of justice will influence the Legislature before the end of the session, to reconsider their action, so far as to let justie and right prevail, through the heavens should fall.

N. B.—Since the above was in type, a public meeting was called on Saturday night at the Town Hall, in Easton to afford the citizens of this county an opportunity to express their feeling respecting the action of the Senate. Although the notice was very short, the meeting was one of the largest assembled in Eastern for a long while. Wm. H. Groome Esq. President of the Easton Bank, presided. A committee of eight was appointed to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. Resolutions protesting against action of the Senate were reported and unanimously adopted, and a committee of fifteen appointed to convey them to our Senator and Delegates at Annapolis.—Several eloquent speeches were made, but our limited space prevents us from giving even a synopsis of them. We believe the preamble and resolutions express the sentiments of this entire community, with here and there a single exception. We regret that we did not receive them in time to lay them before our readers this morning.

Bowdle, Daniel, Hoffman, Kimmell, McCollough. Nuttle, Wallace and Wilkins–8. Nays—Messrs. On motion of Mr. Harrington, it was ordered that the House meet hereafter at 10 o'clock A. M.

Mr. Kennard, from the joint select committee appointed to examine the penitentiary, made a report recommending an appropriation thereto; which was conferred to the committee of ways and means.

Mr. Alexander, chairman of the committee on the judiciary, reported unfavorably on the bill of Mr. Belt to punish frauds at elections, &c.; also unfavorably on the bill to divide the city of Baltimore into election districts, &c.; also unfavorably on the bill relating to a free bridge at Chestertown.

Bills Reported.—By Mr. Alexander, to provide for taking the sense of the people for the assembling of a convention to reform the constitution.

By Mr. Magruder, to apply the money obtained from the general government to the support of common schools of this State.

Bills Passed.—To provide for the rebuilding of the court house of Harford county. To preserve the existence of St. Mary's Female Seminary. To repair comptroller's office.

The order of the day, being the general school bill, was taken up. A motion to strike out of the bill all relating to the general supeintendent was lost by ayes 32 noes 33. Mr. Stonestreet moved to fix the compensation at $1,500, instead of $2,-500, which was lost. Mr. Hobbs moved to strike out "Orphans' Court" as a board of local control, and insert "County Commissioners," which was lost- Mr. Allender offered an amendment providing for the election biennially of a county school commissioner in each county, which was lost. Mr. Kilbourne spoke in opposition to some provisions of the bill, after which the House adjourned

[A meeting of the Eastern Shore members of the Legislature is called for tomorrow morning; when, it is said, some measures will be adopted to express their indignation at the result. It is probable however, that the bill will be brought up again in some form. It is said here that the people of the Eastern Shore are prepared for the most ultra measures, in case their claim is rejected, and that the most intense excitement prevails throughout.]

The Expected Duel—Challenge Withdrawn.—Washington, Feb 24.—The challenge having been withdrawn and the seconds having retired, Messrs Critenden and Toombs, and Mason of Kentucky, have effected a settlement of the difficulties between Messrs. Clay and Cullom, who have returned to Washington.

Drowned—The Centerville (Md.) Advocate states that Master Sterrett, a nephew of the Misses Harris, residing in Wye Neck, broke through the ice while skating on the mill-pond in the neighborhood of of their residence, on Thursday last, and was drowned.

Let there be no secrets in medicine, or rather no pretended secrets. The Medical Faculty publish as soon as made, all their discoveries, and almost all that is known of real value for the cure of disease, has been discovered by them. Dr. Ayer takes the honorable honest course, and right because it is honest. He goes to work and invents the best remedy which medical skill can devise for the cure of certain complaints: then publishes what it is and maintains his monopoly of it solely by making it cheaper, better, more perfect than anybody else can. If the people would exact this of all who offer medicines, they would have much less tracle 'and trash to swallow,—New Orleans Organ.

PRETTY FAIR AND TRUE AS GOSPEL.

The Georgia papers tell a capital story of a lady formerly resident of that State but who had removed to Mississippi, characteristic of the attachment of the daughters of that quarter of the Union to their birthplace. We will relate the story as it is now going the rounds of the press; and then we will make the correction of the error which we regret to see our Georgia friends have inadvertedly committed. The lady alluded to was shouting at a camp meeting in Mississippi, and in the ecstacy of her happiness, she exclaimed, "Glory hallelujah!—I feel like I was in Georgy!" The fact is the lady had drawn a prize in S. Swan & Co's legalized lottery which draws every Saturday at Augusta, Ga., and to which point by sending $10, 5, or 2½ the fortunate purchaser will be entitled to a whole, half, or quarter prize in their drawing of March ensuing.

Communication.—All persons indebted to the late firm of Goldsborough and Dawson are earnestly requested to settle their accounts without delay.

As the closing of the firm has devolved upon me, parties may rest assured that it will be out of my power to give indulgence after 1st day of January next. I hope, however, that I shall be spared the unpleasant duty of placing any accounts in the hands of an officer.

CHAPPED HANDS.—This very troublesome and oftentimes painful condition of the hands, also tan, sunburn, freckles, and all redness and roughness of the skin, occasioned by extremes of heat or cold, may be removed and prevented by the use of Burnett's Kalliston, Prepared by Joseph Burnett & Co., Boston.

Burnett's Kalliston for the Toilet.—The Proprietors are permitted to copy the following letter written by a lady from Vienna:

"We have been constantly on the move now for many weeks, and hope to reach Paris in time for the baptismal fete. At any rate, I look forward to our arrival there, as a period of rest. As old travellers we bear the annoyances and privations incident to journeying, with composure, but I have suffered—more from the exhaustion of my supply of Kalliston, than from any other cause. If any good friend should be coming our here, do, pray, send me enough to last until I get home again. You can have no idea of the relief and comfort it brings when one is suffering from exposure. I have tried other appliances, but have found nothing that will compare with it for efficacy or agreeableness."

DIED

In St. Michaels, on the 12th inst., at the residence of her father, Solomon Plummer, Esq., Mary E. Lee, in the 21st year of her age.

The subject of this notice adds another to the numerous trophies of the destroyer consumption. Just entered upon the active duties and relations of life, the blighting hand of disease was laid upon her, and earthly prospects faded before its inevitable decree. But painful and lingering as was her passage to the tomb, it was illustrated by the presence of the Redeemer in whom she trusted, and soothed by the liveliest and holiest comforts of Religion—treading the dark valley she "feared no evil," for the rod and staff of Omnipotence sustained her, and the swellings of Jordan drowned not the voice which whispered: "When thou passeth through the waters I will be with thee." In her last moments was exhibited one of the most sublime triumphs of Christian faith, that of affording the sufferer perfect resignation and quiet repose of spirit, whilst the spark of life barely lingered in its wasted receptacle. The last few weeks of her life were indeed almost wholly devoted to the rejoicings of hope, the confidence of unshaken trust, and the counsels of dying affection. Thus triumphing, the spirit fled to share the raptures of the heavenly world, there, in the presence of her Redeemer, radient with the gorgeous light of his countenance, it shall shine as the sun forever. Earth has received the broken casket—yet this ———"new rising from the tomb

With lustre brighter far shall shine,
Revive in ever-during bloom,
Safe from diseases and decline." * *

SELLING OUT TO CLOSE.

AND NOW FOR BARGAINS.

Any thing I may have in store I will sell very low for the next sixty days, and many things at cost.

Me much pleasure to credit you.
