Fact, Fun and Fancy.

TENNESSEEAN ON A BENDER.

During the past week not a few people about town—principally around the St. Charles Hotel—have been surprised, astonished, and stunned generally, by the eccentricities of a stout, plain-looking old codger, with a broad-brimmed white hat, who came down from Memphis on the Belfast. He landed here with a brick in his hat and his pockets full of rocks—enormously solid rocks. His eccentricity consisted in his waste of his money—not in strewing the mopuses around him on the blind principle, but in coolly and deliberately insisting upon paying fifty or a hundred times the value of every trifle he bought.

He went into a barber's shop on Common street, got shaved, and handed the darkey a $20 bill. The darkey said he hadn't change enough. The man of mone said he didn't want any change—told the darkey to keep the bill, and walked out. The darkey came very near fainting, and has been bragging of his twenty dollar shave ever since.

He went into the Orleans House, with an acquaintance to take a drink. After drinking he threw down a half dollar, and the barkeeper offered three dimes in change. He told the barkeeper to keep the dimes, and feeling ashamed of his littleness, drew forth a twenty dollar bill, and slapped it on the table, telling him to take that besides. The barkeeper stood on his dignity, and shoved the bill back. The old fellow got huffy, and crumpling the bill up, threw it behind the counter and walked out.

Wherever he went, we are informed, he acted in a similar manner, giving offence in some quarters and inspiring delight in others. He had his pockets stuffed with hundreds, fifties and twenties, and couldn't run against a man without poking a fist full of bills in his face. We have no doubt that he created an awful commotion among the sharks and greasers about town; but the conspicuous manner in which he acted prevented any one from attempting to take advantage of him. We heard, however, that at night a yellow washerwoman of Common street got hold of him and feathered her nest to her hearts, content from his well filled pockets. We must not omit mentioning that several times during his cruising around the St. Charles Hotel, he stopped to admire it, with the remark, "Well, that's a rather fine building—d—d if I don't think I'll buy it!" Had he executed this threat, and paid for the hotel in ratio to his drinks and shaves, it would have cost him about two hundred millions.

Next day, the old fellow renewed the sensation by going around with an augmented brick in his hat, and a linen bag so full of silver that he had to bend sideways to carry it. He lugged his bag about with him, throwing out a handful of half-dollars whenever he incurred a debt of a dime. How much money he threw away can only be guessed at—it must have been thousands.

On the day after that, he went about more like a rational man. The barkeeper at the Orleans House, supposing he had come to his senses, offered him the twenty dollar bill he had been forced to take, saying, "Here's a twenty you left here the other day, sir."—"Well, I know I left it," said the man of money, "I gave it to you, didn't I?" "Yes, sir." "Well, then, damn it, keep it!" And the barkeeper was finally compelled to pocket the affront. How many other incidents of this kind transpired we have no means of knowing. After cutting a "wide swath" for three days the old fellow packed up and traveled back to Tennessee. We learn that he is a wealthy planter of that State.

There have been many queer spreers in New Orleans at different times but we think the old Tennesseean can fairly "take the cakes" from all of them.—N. O. Crescent.

A SHARP HOOSIER.—Oliver H. Smith gives this incident in the early history of Indianna: At the Rush Circuit Court my friend Judge Perry bargained for a pony for $25 to be delivered the next day, on a credit of six months. The man came with the pony, but required security of the judge for $25. The judge drew the note at the top of a sheet of fools cap, and signed it; James Raridan signed it and handed it on, and on it went from lawyer to lawyer around the bar, till some twenty of us had signed it. I then handed it up to the Court, and the three judges put their names to it. Judge Perry presented it to the man he had bought the pony of, but he promptly refused it, saying: "Don't you think I am a fool to let you get the Court and all the lawyers on your side? I see you intend to cheat me out of my pony." Up he jumped, mounted the pony, and started for home at full gallop.

"GOT HIM FOUL."—Aunt Jenny was a very exemplary colored woman and always felt and showed much concern for the future welfare of her numerous children.—But little Nicholas had so much of the "Old Nick" in him, that with all her persuasions and threats, she could not bring him into the good way of saying his prayers. One afternoon Aunt Jenny was startled by hearing loud cries from the barn yard—"O Lord!" and, hastening out, she saw young Nick pinned to the fence with the horns of a cow, one on each side of him, and now and then she would let him out, but only to "bunt" him back again. Nick kept up his cries—"O Lord!" and all the louder when he saw his mother coming. But she didn't interfere.—She stopped, took a good look, set her arms a kimboo, and sang out, "Oh yes! you's mighty willin' to call on de Lord now you's got into trubble; but you couldn't pray wid yer mudur like a 'spectable chile! And turning to the kitchen she left Nick to the tender mercies of the cow, being quite sure, however, that no serious harm would come to him.

The Cincinatti Gazette notices a new steam boiler, which is so constructed that it accurately indicates the quantity of water therein, and when it reaches below a certain point, sends forth a shrill loud blast which can be heard throughout the building.

LIME.

To the Editor of the Annapolis Gazette:

WE deem it due to Mr. COULTER, of your place, to invite public attention to the very superior article of Lime now furnished by him. In doing so we feel that we are rendering a service to the Farmers, and especially to those of Anne Arundel county. We say without hesitation that, in our opinion, Mr. COULTER furnishes an article greatly superior to anything of the kind we have ever used or seen. The Lime furnished by him is burnt with the best spruce pine and light wood, the ashes of which every farmer knows the value of, in improving land. These mix with the Lime and add greatly to its fertilizing properties. Whereas the Lime obtained from Baltimore and elsewhere is burnt with filthy coal offal, procured from yards, and of course inferior in quality and of much less value as a fertilizer than that furnished by Mr. COULTER.

Mr. COULTER must certainly possess some secret in manufacturing his Lime, for we have never seen any Lime where all the shells were so thoroughly burnt. He burns ten thousand bushels in ten days, and every shell is converted into Lime of the finest quality and as white as the driven snow.

Dr. JAMES HIGGINS, State Agricultural Chemist, in company with Col. WALTON, visited Mr. COULTER's place of business a short time since, and pronounced his Lime the most beautiful article of the kind he had ever seen.

Mr. COULTER furnishes his Lime at Baltimore prices; and the farmers of Anne Arundel county and others would do well to give him a call, if they wish to procure an article of superior quality. FARMER.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, Mass., 20th Dec., 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, Miss., Feb. 7, 1856.

BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of whooping cough, croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.
HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY, IA., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pectoral by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb. 4, 1856.

SIR: Your Cherry Pectoral is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years. HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE Co., IOWA, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectoral for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill; for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.
Yours with gratitude and regard,
ORLANDO SHELBY, OF SHELBYVILLE.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:—

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Coach & Harness

MAKING.

THE subscriber (surviving partner of Anderson & Hopkins,) takes this method of informing his friends and the public generally that he has taken the shop, stock, &c., of the late firm, and will hereafter carry on the Coach Making business in his own name. From his long experience in the business he flatters himself that he will be able to give general satisfaction, and hopes by a prompt and faithful attention to business, to merit a continuance of that favor and patronage which have heretofore been so liberally extended toward him.

He is prepared to manufacture Carriages of all kinds to order, in a very superior manner, at short notice, and on reasonable terms. Repairing also executed with neatness and despatch.

He has now on hand and ready for sale a fine assortment of Carriages, Harness, &c., both new and second hand, of various patterns and finish, which he would respectfully invite the public to call and examine.

Orders from a distance punctually attended to, and all new work warranted for 12 months.

HELMBOLD'S

GENUINE PREPARATION OF
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU.

For Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsey, Weaknesses, Obstructions, Secret diseases, Female Complaints, and all diseases of the Sexual Organs, arising from excesses and imprudencies in life, and removing all improper discharges from the bladder, kidneys, or sexual organs, whether existing in from whatever cause they may have originated, and no matter of how long standing, giving health and vigor to the frame, and bloom to the palid cheek.

MALE OR FEMALE,

JOY TO THE AFFLICTED!

It cures nervous and debilitated sufferers, and removes all the symptoms, among which will be found

Indisposition to exertion, loss of power, loss of memory, difficulty or breathing, general weakness Horrror of disease, week nerves, trembling, Dreadful horror of death, night sweats, cold feet, wakefulness, dimness of the vision, languor, universal lassitude of the muscular system, often enormous appetite, with dyspeptic symptoms, hot hands, flushing of the body, dryness of the skin, palid countenance and eruptions on the face, pain in the back, heaviness of the eyelids, frequently black spots flying before the eyes, with temporary suffusion and loss of sight, want of attention, great mobility, restlessness, with horror of society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than solitude, and nothing they more dread for fear of themselves, no repose of manner, no earnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes—soon follows Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits—in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases—Insanity and Consumption? The records of Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumptions, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither mirth or grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan despair
Low sullen sounds his grief beguiled."

DEBILITY IS MOST TERRIBLE, and has brought thousands upon thousands to untimely graves, thus blasting the ambition of many noble youths; It can be cured by the use of this

INFALLIBLE REMEDY.

If you are suffering with any of the above distressing aliments, the will cure you. Try it and be convinced of its efficacy.

Beware of Quack Nostrums and Quack Doctors, who falsely boast of abilities and references. Citizens know and avoid them, and save long suffering, money, and exposure, by sending or calling for a bottle of this popular and

SPECIFIC REMEDY.

It allays all pain and inflammation, is perfectly pleasant in its tastes and odor, but immediate in its action.

HELMBOLD'S

is prepared directly according to the rules of

with the greatest accuracy and Chemical knowledge and care devoted in its combination. See Prof. Dewees' valuable works on the Practice of Physic, and most of the late standard works of medicine.

$100.

One hundred dollars will be paid to any Physician who can prove that the medicine injured a Patient; and the testimony of thousands can be produced to prove that it does great good. Cases of from one week to thirteen years' standing have been effected. The mass of voluntary testimony in possession of the Proprietor, vouching its virtues and curative powers is immense, embracing names well known to
