LOCAL MATTERS.

THE WILSON CASE.—This case is still progressing slowly in our court. It will probably be concluded sometime during the present week.

THE BROAD CREEK NECK CAMP MEETING.—This camp commences on the 20th. inst. we are informed, and not on the 6th. as we published it would week before last.

HEALTH OF THE COUNTY.—We are gratified to notice that the health of the county generally is unusually good except that we have some sickness among children, which is always the case every where during the summer months.

LAND SALE.—Capt Straudberg, as agent, has sold Mr. A. P. Jump's farm near Hillsborough containing 380 acres to Mr J. M. Downing, of Bucks county, Pennsylvania for $20 per acre.

RAIN —This section been visited lately by several gentle showers of rain, which will be of great service to the fields and gardens. However, we have not yet had any thing like as much as we need for the growing corn.

RACING.—The pacing race announced in our last between Bates and Ned Forest, came off on Wednesday afternoon, Bates winning the race in three straight heats, to the great delight of the gentlemen that were present from Cambridge.—The race may be considered a very pleasant episode in the Wilson trial.

PUMP OUT OF REPAIR.—We notice that the street pump, on Aurora street, Easton in the darkey settlement, in the rear of Mr John Goldsborough's residence, is out of order. Will the town commissioners have it repaired? Leaving is long out of order would be a great deprivation to the Washerwomen in that locality. What is the Baliff about that he does not look after such things?

LANDLORD AND TENANT.—The present is likely to be a hard year on farm renters in this country, many of whom will not make produce enough to pay their rents. In view of this fact, we think it the duty of landlords to divide the losses with their tenants. It would be a great hardship indeed for the poor but hard-working land-renter to be punished for the works of Providence. A word to the wise is sufficient.

THE CROPS.—Less than one third of a crop of wheat, and a prospect for not half a crop of corn, what is to be done? The prospect ahead looks gloomy indeed, unless our people turn their attention from temporal to spiritual things, go to the camp meetings, and get a plenty of religion, which will more than make up for all deficiencies. The great financial revulsion in the cities last fall was followed by a wonderful revival of religion, and we opine that those who lost their temporal wealth, but have laid in a good store of spiritual things, are none the worse off to-day for the exchange. Let those that are now mourning over the short crops try the experiment.

DEATH TO ALL VERMIN.—Do not fail to read the Rat and Roach EXTERMINATOR advertisement of MR. COSTAR, to be found in another column.

Camp Meeting.

BY divine permission, a CAMP MEETING will be held at 'McGee's Chapel,' on Wye Mission, Talbot county, commencing August 13th, 1858. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

ju 20 3w THOS. McCLARY.

Dover Ferry.

THERE will be a Ferry at the old Dover Ferry, TWO DAYS IN EVERY WEEK—Tuesday and Saturday. All persons wishing to cross over, on those days will be promptly attended to by the undersigued. During the two weeks of the Camp Meetings at Harmony and Marsh Creek, there will be a ferry every day day except Mondays. No Ferry kept after sun-set.

A CARD

From Dr. C. S. BURNETT, to his Patients.

THE authorities of this city, with commendable promptness and zeal, have been putting a stop to the swindling operations of the hordes of Medical Quacks, who, for the past few years, have been swindling the public under fictitious and assumed names calling themselves "Old Doctors," "Retired Physician," "Old Root Doctors," &c , &c., in order to deceive their victims. All letters addressed to such parties are ordered by the proper authorities to be sent to the Dead Letter Office at Washington.

During my absence from the city my letters were detained for a few days by mistake; but immediately on my return the mistake was rectified, and a satisfactory apology given; and as the above detention was mentioned in one of our city papers, I consider this explanation necessary: After showing the authorities my Diploma, (which I hold from the Medical Department of the University of Edinburgh, Scotland,) and inviting them to my office and labratory, they expressed themselves satisfied and highly pleased with the honorable and philanthropic manner in which my business was conducted. I would merely say, in conclusion, that most of the Quacks, &c., mentioned above, are imitators, and have been copying my "Recipe," &c, &c. and offering it for sale—also manufacturing an inferior Medicine. Against all such empires and swindlers the public are earnestly cautioned. Very respectfully,

C. S. BURNETT,
831, Broadway, New York.

P S—Dr. Burnett can be consulted as usual on all diseases of a Pulmonary, Scrofulous or Nervous nature (free of charge.) His Recipe, &c., will also be sent to all who desire it (free.) Address
