Local Record.

The Sunday School Musical Exhibition and Strawberry Festival held on last Thursday night, at the M. E. Church, South, Hillsborough, was a grand success. The attendance was large, the pupils acquitted themselves handsomely, and the receipts were satisfactory. It was conducted by Rev. Mr. Shipley, who takes a deep interest in the prosperity of the Hillsborough Sunday School.

Trappe Station and Talbot Circuit, M. E. Church, South, have determined to hold a camp-meeting conjointly in Mr. John Chilcutt's Woods, commencing August 18, 1871.

The sale of Mr. H. McMiller's property, at "Woodstock," takes place to-morrow.

There was an ugly fog yesterday morning, the thing of all others that farmers dread most when wheat is ripening.

Sheriff Bennett left last night for Baltimore, with the prisoners convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary at the late term of the Circuit Court for Talbot county—ten in number.

The finest lettuce we have seen this season was sent us by Mrs. Charles H. Bowdle, of Trappe.

Judge Wickes arrived in town on Wednesday evening and took his seat upon the Bench, with his brothers Robinson and Stump on Thursday morning. On Friday morning Judge Robinson left here for Annapolis.

The weather for the last few days has been excessively hot. The mercury in the thermometer was above ninety.

Last week was an awful time for the negro thieves of this county. The Court and jury put them through in "two forty." On the delivery of the jail on less than ten were convicted of felony and sentenced to the Penitentiary, and several for crimes of a lesser grade.

I. C. W. Powell, Esq., of the Easton Bar, who has been in Florida for some time to recruit his health, returned on Tuesday very much improved by his visit South.

We had calls from two of our brother Peninsula editors last week—W. Fisk Townsend, Esq., of the Sussex Journal, and R. F. Perkins, Esq., of the Chestertown Transcript. They both visited Easton on business with the court then in session.

On Tuesday last Sam'l. T. Hopkins, Esq., trustee, sold the home farm of James Lloyd Chamberlaine, in Island Creek Neck, to Dr. Jos. E. M. Chamberlaine, of Easton, 150 acres, at $48 per acre; and the adjoining farm, with inferior improvements, 94 acres, was sold to the same party, at $35 per acre. He also sold the Mrs. Learton house and lot, on West street in Easton, to Mr. Whittington Cox, at $325. Mr. Wm. K. Rathell officiated as auctioneer at the sale.

By dodging into "ways that are dark," and practising "tricks that are vain," the Journal attempts to defend itself from the charge of pilfering the local columns of the Star; but as we had the "dead wood" on it, it was an up-hill business. We let it pass until we shall choose to bait another trap for it.

Sandenburgh & Co.'s Great English Circus and Menageries will exhibit in Easton to-day.

The Kent News has been enlarged to a thirty-two column paper. A new power press has also just been added to the office. We are pleased to note this evidence of its prosperity.

The Camp-meeting Committees of the M. E. Church of this vicinity, will hold a meeting in the Easton Church on Saturday, the 10th of June.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Mr. A. S. Lovejoy is our authorized agent for the collection of bills for this office.

The desire of visiting the Easton Conference of evenings having been changed from 8 to 7 o'cl'k, necessitates our putting the Star to press an hour earlier on Monday afternoon. Advertisements, to insure insertion, must therefore be handed in on Saturday or early Monday morning. We cannot promise insertion to matter sent out of the corresponding hours or after the middle of the day on Monday.

SHERIFF BENNETT'S BOARDERS.—The negroes convicted of larceny at the late term of our court were sentenced by Judge Stump on Saturday evening as follows:

ANTHONY JACKSON, convicted of stealing fence rails from Jesse Mullikin, to serve 6 months in the penitentiary.

CHARLES GRAHAM, convicted of stealing rags from G. W. Minnick, to serve 18 months in the penitentiary.

ROBERT BLACKSTONE, convicted of stealing an overcoat from R. C. Harrington, to serve 2 years in the penitentiary.

KENNARD CUFF, convicted of stealing pork from Robert N. Lloyd, to serve 4 years in the penitentiary.

GOLDSMITH NEWMAN, convicted of stealing money from James Bryan, to serve 18 months in the penitentiary.

JACOB DAVIS, convicted of stealing one buffalo robe of William Collins, to serve 18 months in the penitentiary.

ROBERT SKINNER, alias Robert Sadler, convicted of stealing corn of R. H. Collier, to serve 18 months in the penitentiary.

ANTHONY BROWN, convicted of receiving stolen turkeys from Peter Miller, the property of Wm. C. Smith, sentenced to serve 4 years in the penitentiary.

PETER MILLER, the principal, had previously been convicted and sentenced to serve 4 years in the penitentiary.

JOHN SKINNER, convicted of committing a violent assault and battery on John W. Andrews, a white man, at night, on the public highway, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and costs of the trial, and to serve 1 year in the county jail.

JOHN SKINNER, (the same), convicted of committing a violent assault and battery on Wm. M. Bayne, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and costs, and to serve 6 months in the county jail.

In both of the above cases Skinner was charged with an intent to kill, but was acquitted of the charge in each case.

GIDEON BRYAN and ASBURY HARMON, convicted of committing a riot in Easton, on the day the negroes came to town last September to register, was each sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and costs, and to serve 3 months in the county jail.

ROBERT TRIPPE, charged with stealing a saddle and bridle of Samuel Griffin, and in whose case the jury were before last failed to agree and were discharged, was tried again on Saturday by a jury and acquitted of the charge.

The Court very properly declared that they intended to punish those convicted of larceny to the full extent of the law, until stealing among the negroes in this county is broken up. It is to be hoped after this that rogues will be scarce in Talbot.

A VALUABLE COW.—Mr. John Satterfield, of this town, has a cow—a grade—Half Alderney and half Ayrshire, which he refused $100 for on last Saturday. She is ten years old this summer, and has at her side now her tenth calf, having had three calves in the last eleven months, all living and doing well. He has sold 9 calves from her, which brought him $200; and get milk daily, and Mrs. Satterfield makes about 8 pounds of butter from her weekly, when she does not sell the milk. There are 9 of her calves living, valued at $900. Her twin calves are owned by a gentleman in Queen Anne's county, who is raising them for a yoke of oxen. They are exactly alike in size and color.

EXCURSION.—The Methodist Protestant Sunday School of Easton will give a grand Excursion to Oxford in the cars on Thursday week. Arrangements are making, in connection with other Sunday Schools on the line of the railroad, who will participate in the excursion, to make it the largest affair of the kind that has ever taken place in this section. Those who wish to pass a pleasant day in the delightful town of Oxford, and take a look at the head of the last nail driven in the rail that completed the track of the Md. & Del. Railroad, at Oxford, should not fail to secure a ticket.

DEATH OF MR. JOSEPH L. PLUMMER.—Mr. Joseph L. Plummer, a highly respected citizen of Easton, was attacked with inflammation of the brain, whilst on a visit to his family in Caroline county last week, and died suddenly on Saturday morning. His body was brought to Easton on Sunday afternoon, his funeral preached in the Hall of the M. E. Church, South), of which (a nomination Mr. Plummer was a local preacher), after which his remains were buried in the Methodist Episcopal Cemetery.

A NUISANCE ABATED.—We notice that Mr. Bennett, the new landlord of the "Brick" Hotel, has had the back yard of his premises thoroughly cleaned out and purified. This yard for a long time has been the greatest nuisance in town. Nothing speaks more for the character of a hotel than its clean back premises. By the way, during court we heard much praise bestowed by citizen of the county on the present management of the "Brick." Evidently, Mr. Bennett knows how to keep a hotel.

THE EXECUTION OF FRED. LAWRENCE.—On Saturday last Sheriff Bennett received from Annapolis the Death Warrant of Frederick Lawrence, negro, convicted of murder, fixing the FOURTEENTH OF JULY next as the day for his execution.

St. Michaels Jottings.

THE FESTIVAL AT ST. MICHAELS.—The strawberry and cream festival, held at the Town Hall in St. Michaels on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of last week by the ladies of the town and country for the benefit of Burns Masonic Lodge, if not so elaborate in its arrangement, magnificent in its display, or successful in its results as the one given by the ladies of Easton during the proceeding week, is yet worthy of being recorded among the archives of the Star.

Our new Hall is perfectly well adapted for an affair of this kind. It is sufficiently commodious to accommodate a large throng without crowding, the ceiling is high, and the arrangements for ventilation excellent. Two rows of tables and three rows of seats leave a large promenade space on each side the central row of tents. On this particular occasion, there were six octagon tables, three on each side the Hall. Each table had affixed to it some Masonic emblem, wrought in pasteboard, and covered with evergreen and flowers.

Table No. 1, upon the right of the front entrance of the Hall was presided over by Mrs. Wm. A. Burns, and Mrs. N. Hilles. The emblem was a "Star"—conspicuously displayed upon a floral cross.

The second table was under the charge of Mrs. James D. Mansfield and Mr. H. C. Dodson. An arch extended above it longitudinally, surmounted a small and beautiful wreath of box and roses. From the central point of the long arch the "Trowel" was pendant; and the ladies in charge of the table worked like master masons (they have the honor of being the better halves of past masters) to secure a flourishing business during the fair.

The "Taper" table came next. It was presided over by Mrs. Wm. H. Bruff and Mrs. John T. Harrison, and attracted a great deal of attention from the tasteful arrangement of the flowers, symbolic &c. A heavy arch extended transversly above each end, and a wreath of brilliant flowers was woven on the white linen around the table.—Lighted tapers were placed in them, upon a pyramid, and the whole presented a very pleasing effect.

Turning to the left to cross the Hall, we came to the Invisible Lady's Well, in front of the centre of the stage, and facing the main aisle.—It was extensively patronized, the attraction doubtless being as much in the fair ones who drew the ice lemonade as in the beverage itself.

Crossing to the left side of the Hall, we came to the "Anchor" table, under charge of Mrs. James Benson and Mrs. Jos. E. Haddaway. A triangular arch surmounted the table. From the apex of the arch having a wreath of rose and box, in which was placed the anchor, the symbol of the table.

The central table upon the right side of the hall, in front of Mrs. D. E. DeHart and Mrs. L. W. Hillens, and was very attractively arranged. The table upon the left of the door therefrom was under the charge of Mrs. Wm. M. Foxal, and Mrs. S. E. Mettee. The flowers, and other ornaments, by their happy arrangement, made the table present a beautiful appearance. We do not remember the emblem of this table.

Several large cakes were disposed of by-lot on the last evening of the fair. A fine cake from the "Anchor" table, containing the Masonic emblems, was won by Mr. J. A. Rigby, the agent of the Empire Mutal Life Insurance Company. The next was won by Mr. A. Levi and the third by Samuel Bradhman. Thus fortune smiles "Yetserland," at festivals as well as in war. Mrs. D. H. DeHart was the lucky drawer of the fourth cake, and the fifth fell to Master Frank T. Orem.

The affair "wound up" by an auction at which the remaining cake, fruit &c., were sold. Jere Marshall did the auctioneering and proved himself equal to the occasion. Jere is an adept in the ways that he part, and his tongue thereto rivals, if not the successful auctioneer.

Thus the fair closed. Every one appeared to have a happy time, and a handsome sum was added to the treasury of Burns Lodge, for which the ladies deserve and receive the thanks of every Mason who owes allegiance to Burns Lodge No. 87.

SHIP-YARD AFFAIRS.—On Wednesday (to-morrow) Messrs. Robert Lambdin & Sons expect to launch the schooner they have just completed for Captain Jno. Henry Harrison. This is a vessel of 5 tons, carrying about 2,500 bushels of grain. Captain H. intends putting her on the waters of Broad Creek Neck as a grain boat.

Mr. Thos. H. Kirby has contracted to build for Captain Geo. W. Tyler a schooner of the same size and model as the one he recently finished for Captain Marshall.

THE NEW M. E CHURCH.—The corner stone of this edifice will probably be laid in June. The building committee have secured the two lots on Talbot street, nearly opposite the head of Mulberry street. They paid $350 for the Murphy, and $500 for the Skinner lot. The house on the latter has been sold to Wm. J. Fairbank for $100.

Marriages.

On the 18th inst., by Rev. John Hough, ALEXANDER BOOTH to Miss SARAH E McDANIEL, both of this county.

In the M. E. Church, St Michaels, on the 18th inst., by Rev. Thos. E. Bell, C. COLUMBUS BUTLER and Miss SARAH A. JONES, eldest daughter of Capt. Edward Jones, all of that town.

Excelsior Reaper and Mower.

THE EXCELSIOR REAPER & MOWER is no longer an experiment, having been before the public for six harvests.—Among its many superior qualities we call attention to the following:

The Excelsior Machine has two large, independent drive wheels.

It has only one spur wheel, and the gearing is very simple.

AS A REAPER,

The Excelsior requires only a boy or an old man to drive it. By a treadle under his foot the driver drops the grain from the Machine in bundles ready for binding, thus saving the wages of a "Raker" during harvest.

The driver sits on an adjustable seat, balancing the weight of the tongue, and his position enables him to oversee all the working parts of the machine.

By an ingenious arrangement, the cutter-bar, reel, &c., can be easily raised and lowered at pleasure, thus enabling it to work up and down, through mud and mire, over stepes, stumps and ditches, wet and dry, cutting through tangled and lodged grass, and grain, and still doing its work equally well under the circumstances.

The cutting apparatus can be instantly thrown out of gear by the driver.

It is light, strong, durable, always reliable, and, in short, just the machine a farmer needs.

AS A MOWER,

It is second best to none. In this capacity it stands as high, where known, as any independent Mower, cutting a swath of four and a half feet with the greatest ease and speed.

The Excelsior enjoys the high honor of having never yet found grass so heavy, lodged or tangled that it could not cut it.

DEMAND FOR THE "EXCELSIOR."

The demand for the Excelsior, since its introduction, is without a parallel in the history of Reaping and Mowing Machines, which furnishes unmistakeable evidence of the manner in which its merits are appreciated by the intelligent farmer. So great has been the demand the past season that not only hundreds, but thousands, have been disappointed in procuring one.

THE CHEAPEST COMBINED MACHINE IN USE.

The candid farmer, who looks at the Excelsior, with all its advantages over all others, must agree that as a Mower, or a Combined Reaper and Mower, it is worth full $50 more than any other Machine in the market.
