SPECIAL NOTICES.

Mr. A. H. Larrimore is our authorised agent for the collection of bills due this office.

The hour of closing the Easton Postoffice of evenings having been changed from 8 to 7 o'cl'k, necessitates our putting the Star to press an hour earlier on Monday afternoon. Advertisements, to insure insertion, must therefore be handed in on Saturday or early Monday morning. We cannot promise the insertion in the next issue of advertisements handed in after the middle of the day on Monday.

Local Record.

Mr. Henry C. Morgan brought to this office last week a specimen of corn containing ten ears on one cob. The principal ear was encircled with nine others.

Wm. R. Bartlett, Esq., will please accept our thanks for one of his comical drawings entitled "Honey Wise"—a baldheaded old gentleman in "tights," bearing off on his arm a beautiful, dashing, and beflounced young lady, who has magnanimously traded her heart for the old gentleman's money. Mr. Bartlett's comical sketches are inimitable. He has only to illustrate some popular book to become famous as an artist.

If the breastbone of the goose is a reliable indicator of the weather, as it is said to be, we may look out for a severe winter this year. Town people had better lay in a plenty of fuel, as hauling will be heavy in mid-winter, and the bad weather will extend through March. The goose bone says there will be no let up of the bad weather after Christmas—until spring.

"Bob White" is the name of a new brand of Lynchburg smoking tobacco just introduced here by Mr. James C. West. Persons have only to try it, to be satisfied that it is little inferior to the "Lone Jack," although it costs only about half as much per pound.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR TALBOT COUNTY

NOVEMBER TERM.

EASTON, Nov. 20, 1871.

Court met—Present Hon. F Stump, Associate Judge, John Baggs, Clerk; Chas H Gibson, State's Attorney; J B Bennet Sheriff; Wm K Rathell, Crier.

The Grand Jury was called and sworn, and the Judge addressed them in a few appropriate remarks in regard to their duties.

State vs Wm H price, col'd; presentment for assault and battery with a stick on Samuel T. Harrison. Guilty—fined $1 and costs. Gibson for State, Martin for defence.

The dockets were called over and cases struck off, marked for trial or continued, which occupied the time until the hour of adjournment.

TUESDAY, Nov. 21.—C W Haddaway vs Wm H Hughlett. Appeal from Magistrate. Judgement affirmed, with costs. Seth for appellant, Hambleton for appellee.

James Glandon vs Joseph P Holden. Appeal. Judgement reversed, with costs above and below. Martin and Shannahan for appellant, Townsend for appellee.

Dr. W G G Willson vs A A Pascault. Appeal. Gibson for appellant, Martin for appellee, Judgment held sub curia.

Daniel Sharp vs H K Hays. Appeal. Martin for appellant, Powell & Harrington for appellee.

Sam'l T Hopkins vs Ex'trs James M Seth—removed to Anne Arundel county.

Michael Warner, a native of Germany, declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 22.—Present Judges Wicks and Stump.

Sharp vs Hays continued. Witnesses examined and argument commenced.

THURSDAY, Nov. 23.—Sharp vs Hays. Verdict for appellant, for $14.64 and costs.

Cornelia A Miller vs C H Rigby, Ex'tr of Thos A Miller, deceased. Trial before the Court.—Plea, payment and satisfaction. Madison and J B Brown for plaintiff, Hambleton for defendant. Held sub curia.

State vs R A Stevens, indictment for assault with an axe, on Annie M Jackson, some time in March, 1871. Powell & Harrington for defendant.—Acquitted.

Fangmeyer & Doll vs. Haddaway & Shuck. Action for debt. Gibson for plaintiff, Townsend for defendant. Judgment of non pros.

C. C. Cox and L. C. Cox vs. Edward Lloyd, trustee of E. T. Winder. Attachment on Judgment. Hopkins for plaintiffs, Martin and Thomas for defendants. The Court adjourned.

SATURDAY, Nov. 25th.—The case of Cox & Cox vs Lloyd, trustee, concluded. Judgment of non pros.

Andrew O. Oxenham vs. Daniel Leonard. Appeal from a Justice of the Peace. Martin for appellant, Thomas and Townsend for appellee. Judgment of 30 cents for appellee—each party paying his own cost.

The Grand Jury comes into Court with the following report: To the Hon. Circuit Court of Talbot county—The Grand Jury beg leave to report, that in the discharge of their duty, they have visited the jail and find it in good condition, whitewashed and clean, and the comfort of the prisoners well and properly attended to. And, furthermore, beg leave to report on the part of the sheriff, that the conduct of the prisoners has been exceedingly commendable, and after Monday next, he will have but one permanent boarder.

O. HAMMOND,
Foreman.

Nov. 24th, 1871.

The jury were then discharged with the thanks of the Court, adjourned till Monday.

MONDAY, Nov. 27.—Robert McAllister owner of the Schooner Easton, of Baltimore, vs. the State of Maryland. Appeal from a Justice of the Peace. Charge, violation of the State Oyster Law. Defence—the party claimed to have been tried and fined for the same offence. Martin for appellant, Gibson for State. Held under curia.

THE WICOMICO CASE.—An important case removed from Wicomico county will be commenced in the Circuit Court for Talbot county this morning. Hon. John W. Chrisfield, Hon. William M Merrick, Judge Thomas A. Spence, Hon. Daniel M. Henry, and other eminent counsel are engaged in it. We understand the suit has been brought on a bond given by several wealthy gentlemen of Wicomico county, to insure the tax payers of Wicomico against taxation to build a court house and jail on condition that they would vote in favor of laying off the new county at the time the county of Wicomico was formed.

THANKSGIVING.—Next Thursday, the 30th inst., is the time set apart by the Governor of Maryland as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer. Divine service will be held in the several churches as usual.

CONCERT.—The concert given at the Town Hall on Tuesday evening by the "Continental Quintette" musical association of Baltimore was well attended by our most cultivated people. The association is composed of Messrs. George Hinman and J. R. Jones, and Misses Lydia Thompson, Zelma Jones and Emma Rame, vocalists, and Mr. W. Muller pianist, all excellent musicians; Miss Jones especially has a delightful voice. The rendering of the pieces selected was excellent, and elicited the enthusiastic applause of the audience. The "Minute Gun at Sea" and the "Sleighing Glee" were new to most of those present and loudly encored. The Easton Quartette club, Messrs. Mortimer, Bennett, Tharp, and Dodson, at the urgent request of the Continentals, sang one piece, "Come where my Love lies Dreaming," and were complimented by an encore. Excellent as was the music of the Continentals, it was only a part of the attractions of the evening. The whole party dressed in the fashions of one hundred years ago, and appeared on the platform as our grand fathers and grand mothers looked at the era of the revolution. No doubt the band-box bonnets of '76 were considered dressy in those days, but to the present generation they look decidedly funny. Comedy was certainly uppermost when they were in vogue. The Continentals are talking of making a tour of the Peninsula, and giving concerts in the principal towns; if they do, no doubt they will be received with the same cordiality that greeted them in Easton.

AN AWFUL MAN WITH A BROAD-AXE.—There is a man living in Chapel district named Dill, who is probably the most expert man with a broad-axe in the State. Sometime ago in the presence of several gentleman he threw his axe some distance and stuck it into a log. Drawing out the axe, he told a man present to stick a grain of corn in the cut, and he would throw again and split the grain of corn open. The corn was put in the place; he threw again and split it open. A gentleman standing by, believing it a chance throw, said he would give him a dollar if he could do it again. He threw again, split open the grain of corn, and pocketed the dollar. A second and a third dollar was won in the same way. The man with the greenbacks, finding that Dill was throwing on a certainty, drew off. Dill then stuck an eight-penny nail in the end of a log, threw at it, and drove it up to the head with the eye of his axe. This was too much for the excitable man with the dollars, who said, I'll give you another dollar if you can do that again. The nail was put in place; Dill threw, drove it up again and pocketed the dollar. The greenback man ventured another dollar and lost. Having lost five dollars, he come to the conclusion that the expert axeman was too much for him, and let him slide. If any other man in the State can beat Mr. Dill handling a broad-axe, we should like to hear from him. What say the St. Michaels ship carpenters.

SALES.—The sale of the late John P. Paca's personal property, in Queen Anne's county, will take place on the 6th of December.

The sale of Charles Clemency's property, in Landing Neck, Trappe district, will take place on Wednesday, the 6th of December.

On Monday, the 11th of December, Mr. Lewis Willis, near Long Woods, will sell all his property, being about to remove to Baltimore. At this sale there will be offered a very superior saddle and harness horse, and one three-year old colt, which promises to be a very fast trotter.

The sale of Mrs. Dehaven's property by Wm. K. Rathell, auctioneer, next door to Mr. A. A. Pascault's in Easton, will take place on Tuesday, the 5th of December.

James C. Tarbutton, administrator, will sell the personal property of the late Jas. A. Redman, in Chapel district, on Thursday, the 14th of December.

N. E. Nicols, Esq., agent, will offer at public sale this afternoon on the Court House green, several horses, cattle and a piano.

POSTPONED SALE.—The sale of the late John Johnson's property has been postponed to Wednesday, December 13th. See Advertisement.

NEW CHURCH IN CHAPEL DISTRICT.—The members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Chapel district, are building a neat little chapel on the Three Bridges road, near Mr. Charles M. Williams' farm. Hon. Charles M. Jump is superintending the building. Every public improvement of this kind in the county adds to the value of property, to say nothing about the advantages to morality and religion. The membership of the church is small and will thankfully receive any contributions, however small, which persons may hand to Mr. Jump, Mr. Wm T. Lee, or Rev. Mr. Shipley.

THE SONG MESSENGER a musical monthly published by Root & Cady, Chicago, which was destroyed by the great fire, has reappeared in new and beautiful type. The December number is at hand, containing sixteen pages of choice music. Price $1 a year. If the lovers of music would help the great Western house of Root & Cady to re-establish their business, they should at once subscribe to the Messenger.

St. Michaels Jottings.

—Several town sites have changed hands recently. Mr. Stepen Harrison has bought the "burnt lot" opposite P. E. Church from Joseph H. Harrison, for $500. This is the site of the old storeroom of Mansfield & Harrison. The purchaser is leveling the ground, filling up the old cellar, &c., preparitory to building a large carpenter, wheelwright and blacksmith shop upon it.

—On Saturday, 18th inst., two houses belonging to the estate of Mrs. Leonard, deceased, were sold at public sale by the administrator. One on Chestnut street was struck off to James Benson, at $450; and one corner Fremont street and Canton Avenue to James L. Lecompte, for $325. Both of these pieces of property sold cheap.

—A man named O'Donnell was drowned off a pungy sailed by Capt. Thos. H Haddaway one night last week, while the vessel was lying in Poplar Island Harbor. The captain and crew had gone ashore, leaving the unfortunate man alone on the boat. When they returned to the vessel, he was missing. Upon search the body was found at the bottom of the harbor, near the vessel. O'Donnell was one of the owners of the vessel. The body was taken to Baltimore where he belonged.

—Messrs. E. P. Sparks and Frank Conway have formed a firm for doing cabinet work, joinery, and all manner of plain or nice corpentering. They are established at the old stand of O. P. Sparks, whose duties as sheriff will prevent him from giving the strict attention to the cabinet business he has heretofore done, though the new firm will doubtless have the benefit of his experience and knowledge of the business.

—The new houses that are building in St. Michaels give an air of impovement to the town. Rev. Mr. Poisal has finished a very pretty house on Chestnut street, next door to the Rectory. Mr. Dodson's large mansard-roof dwelling at the foot of Cherry street, shows conspicuously, and the workmen engaged on Capt. Hopkins's house on Talbot street, are metamorphosing an eyesore into a neat and comfortable residence. If some enterprising man would buy "Boston Row," and replace those tumbledown shanties with nice houses he would do a public service.

Deaths.

In Easton, on the 25th inst., suddenly, LOUIS EDWARD, infant son of Louis E. and Annie T. Barrett, aged 2 months and 11 days.

[Cambridge papers please copy.]

Near Forest Landing, on the 24th inst., WILLIAM JOHN MCMENAGLE, 4 years 10 months and 20 days, third son of Patrick and Elizebeth Ann McMenagle, after a protracted illness.

Very suddenly, at the residence of her brother, A. A. Pascault, Esq., in Easton, on the 25th inst., Mrs. SARAH R. GOLDSBOROUGH, relict of the late Charles Goldsborough, Esq., of Kent Island, in the 54th year of her age.

Trustee's Sale

OF VERY VALUABLE

REAL ESTATE

In Trappe District, Talbot Co., Md.

BY virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court for Talbot county, sitting in equity, the undersigned, as Trustee, will offer at public sale, in front of the Court House, in the town of Easton, on

Tuesday, 12th of December next, between the hours of 1 and 3 o'clock P. M., a part of the valuable real estate of which Samuel Dickinson died possessed, located immediately on the broad waters of the Choptank river, in Trappe district, Talbot county, and containing the quantity of

of ARABLE and WOOD LAND, more or less.

The location is one of the most beautiful and healthy on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, in a good and highly cultivated neighborhood, convenient to mills, markets and schools, within three and a half miles of the flourishing town of Trappe, twelve miles of Easton, and, by water, only four miles from Cambridge

The most of the land is highly improved, produces heavy crops, and is adapted to the growth of grass, grain, vegetables and fruit. The resources for improving the soil are abundant.

The property will be sold in Two FARMS.

No. 1,

is the farm on the right of the road leading to the Mansion house, has on it a good

FRAME

Dwelling House,

and all necessary farm buildings. Situated immediately on the salt water.

No. 2,

is the farm on the left of the said road; it is also improved with a good FRAME DWELLING and necessary farm buildings, which are situated on a beautiful sheet of salt water.

Terrapins, oysters, fish and wild fowl abound in their season in the bay and river upon which the property is located.

A plat of the land will be exhibited on the day of sale, giving the number of acres in each farm. Persons wishing to purchase real estate are invited to examine these beautiful and valuable salt water situations.

TERMS:

The terms of sale, as prescribed by the decree are, one-third of the purchase money to be paid in cash on the day of sale; the balance in two equal instalments of twelve and eighteen months, the deferred payments to be secured by the bond of the purchaser, with security to be approved by the trustee. On the payment of the whole purchase money, a good title will be conveyed. Stamps and title papers at the expense of the purchaser.

Trustee's Sale

OF VERY VALUABLE

REAL ESTATE,

IN

TRAPPE DISTRICT,

TALBOT CO., MD.

BY virtue of competent authority, the undersigned, as Trustee, will offer at public sale, in front of the Court House, in the town of Easton, on

Tuesday, 5th of December next,

at 2 o'clock P. M, that valuable

Farm or Plantation, situated on the Choptank river, in

Bolingbroke Neck,

TRAPPE DISTRICT, TALBOT COUNTY,

adjoining the lands of Thos. C. Hughlett and William H. Ross, Esqs., and Col. Wm. R. Hughlett, and called and known as

"Cherry Grove,"

AND

"LOWE'S BRAMBLE"

and now occupied by John R. Hughlett, Esq., containing the quantity of

315 ACRES of LAND

more or less; about 40 ACRES are in

WOOD & TIMBER.

The soil is first-class—a rich loam—highly improved, and grows heavy crops of grass, grain, fruits and vegetables.

Bolingbroke Neck, in which the property is located, is one of the most highly improved neighborhoods in Talbot county; the population is intelligent, kind and hospitable—It is located convenient to Churches, Schools, Mills and Markets, and within a mile of the Steamboat Landing at Hughlett's wharf.

Steamboats running between Baltimore and Denton pass the premises going up or down the Choptank river, daily. It is only about three and a half miles from the town of Trappe, and twelve miles from Easton, and within six miles of a Station on the Md. & Del. Railroad, now completed to Oxford

Being located on the salt water, fish oysters, terrapins, wild fowl, and all the luxuries of the salt water abound in their season. The country around abounds with game, and Bolingbroke Creek, situated adjacent, is noted as the

FINEST DUCK-SHOOTING PLACE

in the county. The celebrated Canvas-back, the Red-head, the Bald-pate, and Black-heads, and other wild fowl flock to these waters to feed by thousands

The neighborhood is well drained and healthy, and comparatively free from malarious diseases. The DWELLING fronts on the public road leading to Hughlett's wharf, while the land runs back to the river, and is beautifully situated for

Fruit & Market Farming

The improvements consist of a new and large

TWO-STORY

Frame Dwelling

built out of the best material, and finished in the best manner, with basement kitchen and pantry, and dumb-waiters to convey the food and dishes to the dining-room above.—It is finished with water tank, bath room, water closets, gas, and bells and water in every room. It contains 13 rooms, including a large and handsome parlor. In short, it has all the modern improvements and conveniences.

THE OUT-BUILDINGS

including Barn, Granary, Stables, Corn House, Corn Gin, Meat House, Ice-House, &c., &c., are all new and in complete order.

There are also on the premises,

3 Comfortable Frame

Tenement Houses,

for farm hands.

As a place of residence this property possesses superior advantages; as a simple investment, at the present price of Real Estate, it is believed that it will pay a heavy per cent. on the purchase money, better than investing in Government bonds or Northern Pacific Railroad gold bonds. Those wishing to speculate in Real Estate, or to purchase a splendid residence, are invited to examine this magnificent estate.

TERMS OF SALE:

The terms of sale are—one-third of the purchase money to be paid in cash on the day of sale; the balance in two equal instalments of twelve and eighteen months from the day of sale; the deferred payments to be secured by the bond of the purchaser, with security to be approved by the Trustee, bearing interest from the day of sale. Stamps and title papers at the expense of purchaser. On the payment of the whole purchase money, a good title in fee simple will be conveyed to the purchaser.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY virtue of one writ of fieri facias issued out of the Circuit Court of Talbot county, and to me directed, at the suit of T. N. Chance, Trustee, against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of M. C. Durney, I have seized and taken in execution the following property, to wit:

291 Acres of Land,

more or less, situate in Chapel district, Talbot county, called and known as adjoining the lands of A. W. P. Robinson, Jno. W. Warner and others, near Cordova.

"PART OF TILBERRY,"

Notice is hereby given, that on Tuesday, 12th of Dec., 1871, in front of the Court House in Easton, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 5 P. M., I will sell all of the right, title, interest and claim of the said M. C. Durney of, in and to the above mentioned property to the highest bidder for cash, to pay and satisfy the above writ of fi. fa., debt, interest and cost due and to become due thereon.

BY virtue of three writs of fieri facias, issued out of the Circuit Court for Talbot county, and to me directed, one at the suit of Henry Warner, one at the suit of Emily M. Pascault, use of John H. Lowe and Louisa F. Seth, Executors of James M. Seth, dec'd; and one at the suit of Jas. O. Duke, against Henry H. Goldsborough; and one writ of venditioni, at the suit of Mary A. Arringdale, use of Samuel T. Hopkins and A. A. Pascault, against William Smith and Henry H Goldsborough, I have seized and taken in execution the following property, to wit:

Lot No. 1,

40 ACRES OF LAND, more or less, with improvements thereon, situate in St. Michaels district, about one mile below the town of St. Michaels, adjoining the lands of the late John N. Hambleton and the heirs of the late Thomas Ball, being the farm formerly owned by one Andrew Moore, colored, and now occupied by John L. Stewart.

Lot No. 2,

226 ACRES OF LAND, more or less, with the improvements thereon, situate in Chapel district, on the east side of the public road running from Easton to Chapel, and opposite the Pierson farm, now owned by Thomas Baker, and known as "Crow's Delight."

Lot No. 3,

186 ACRES OF LAND, more or less, with the improvements thereon, situate in Chapel district, on the public road running from the Easton and Chapel road to the King's Creek road, adjoining the lands of Hinson Kirby and Mrs. Hannah Wilson, and known as "Lark's Discovery."

Lot No. 4,

200 ACRES OF LAND, more or less, with the improvements thereon, situate in Chapel district, on the east side of the public road running from Chapel to Hillsborough, and immediately on the public road running from the said Chapel-Hillsborough road to the King's Creek road at Matthewston, adjoining the land of Mrs. McNeal and others, and known as the "Rathell Farm."

Lot No. 5,

122 ACRES OF LAND, more or less, with the improvements thereon, situate in Easton district, called "Poverty," adjoining the lands of Howes Goldsborough and others.

Lot No. 6,

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY, and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps.

Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents.

THE RADIANT.

RADIANT is the name of the new

FIREPLACE STOVE, just improved and patented by Librant McDowell, of Philadelphia.

CALL AND SEE IT.

The improvement consists in shields to prevent the smoking of the windows when kindling fires; also in the damper, so that all the heat may be thrown above or below at pleasure, or distributed between the upper and lower room, when desired.

This is the neatest and most economical stove yet invented.

A general assortment of Grates, Cook Stoves, Parlor Stoves, Radiators, Ranges, Furnises, &c., always on hand, at city prices.

Also, constantly on hand, a full line of Tin Ware, Stove Fixings, and House Furnishing goods.

The public are invited to call and examine my stock before purchasing.
