THE OYSTER IMBROGLIO.

The late trials of oyster dredgers at St Michaels, for alleged violations of the oyster laws, have revealed some serious defects in the Act of 1870, chapter 364, and suggested how the law may be amended and made more efficient for the arrest and punishment of those who violate it.

Attorney General Syester has given the opinion, that the informer is not entitled to any part of the fine imposed under the act of 1870, chapter 364, except in the case of an abandoned vessel, and then the law points out no way in which the fine can be collected. This is a serious defect in the law and should be corrected by the next legislature. If the dredgers are made to know that a spy-glass may be drawn upon them from the shore every time they violate the law in Eastern Bay, Miles River, or any other forbidden waters, and that they may be brought up before a Justice of the Peace and convicted and fined for the offence on the testimony of the spy-glass operator, they will be apt to keep off the forbidden grounds.

The 12th section of the act of 1870, chapter 364 provides that "all owners and masters of canoes, boats or vessels licensed under this article, being white men, are hereby constituted officers of this State, for the purpose of arresting and taking before any Judge of any Circuit Court or Justice of the Peace, who shall have jurisdiction thereof, any person or persons who may be engaged in violating any of the provisions of this Article, and of seizing any canoe, boat or vessel engaged therein."—The 13th Section provides "that upon information given upon oath to any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction, of any violation of any of the provisions of this Article, the said Justice of the Peace shall issue his warrant for the arrest of the offender or offenders, and the seizure of the canoe, boat or vessel, together with the tackle and furniture on board, which warrant shall be directed to the Sheriff or any Constable of the county wherein the said warrant is issued, or to the owner or master of any canoe, boat or vessel licensed under this Article."

We understand that the warrants for the arrest of the vessels to be tried on the 9th inst, were not issued to the Sheriff, Constable, master or owner of any canoe, boat or vessel licensed under this Act, but was issued to Capt. Timmons, Commander of the Oyster Police Force; and it does not appear from the sections of the law quoted, that the Justice of the Peace had any authority in law to issue any warrant to the Commander of the Oyster Police Force. The 22nd section of the Act of 1870, chapter 364 requires the officer in charge of the Oyster Police Force of the State, to "overhaul, and examine the licenses of all boats or vessels engaged in taking or catching oysters in the State, and to arrest all persons who may be found violating, or who may have been guilty of any violation of any of the provisions of this Article, and to seize all boats or vessels, with their tackle and furniture, which may be found on board of such boats or vessels so engaged, used or employed in violating said provisions." The 23d Section provides what shall be done with all vessels captured under the provisions of the 22d Section: and the 21st Section confers a general power on "any Sheriff, constable, or other officer created by this Article, with or without warrant to arrest any person or persons, and to seize and to take into custody any canoe, boat or vessel whenever or wherever such person or persons, canoe, boat or vessel shall be found violating, or being used in violating any of the provisions of this Article," but there appears to be no express provision in the law making the Commander of the Oyster Police Force an officer to serve process issued by a Justice of the Peace. This appears to us to be a radical defect in the law. It is a very difficult matter for Sheriffs, Constables or tongsmen to catch a dredger and bring her into port. The officers in charge of all the Oyster Police Boats should undoubtedly be clothed with power to execute process and bring offending dredgers before the Justice of the Peace issuing a warrant. Such a provision would make the law effective, for offenders when informed on could not escape by sailing off, except by proving an alibi by perjury.

These omissions in the law can be easily supplied; and when the informer is given one half the fine, in order to keep a constant watch from the shores, and the Officers of the Oyster Police Force are clearly clothed with power to arrest offenders in any of the waters of State on a warrant issued by a Justice of the Peace of any county, it will be next to impossible for dredgers to violate the law in our waters, with impunity. We would go further and prohibit the renewal of the license of any vessel that has been twice convicted of violating the law. We think it much better to look into the defects of the existing law, and point out wherein it can be amended to advantage, than to engage in wholesale denunciation of officers who may be trying to do their duty without authority of law to perform all that may be desired of them. A public officer would be as culpable for knowingly transcending his authority as he would be for a plain neglect of duty. Let the law be made perfectly plain and effective, then if it is not enforced to the letter, let those whose duty it is to execute it be punished and removed from office, and officers appointed who will do their duty. Of the truth or falsity of the reports in circulation derogatory to the present Commander of the State Oyster Police Force we know nothing, and therefore refrain from criticism on his course; but if those reports be true it is manifest that the service has gained nothing by removing Captain Davidson. On the other hand, it is claimed that Capt. Timmons has paid more money into the State Treasury in the ten months he has been in office, for fines imposed on vessels he has arrested himself for violating the oyster law, than Captain Davidson paid in during his whole official term of four years, which is tangible proof that he has not been idle or lax in the execution of the law. If this be true, may not popular clamor sometimes do serious damage to a faithful and meritorious public officer?

ANOTHER TERRIBLE DEFEAT OF OUR ARMY BY THE MODOCS.—The news from the Lava Beds in Oregon, published in the city papers on Wednesday, and confirmed by dispatches to the Secretary of War, is to the effect that on the 26th of April, Capt Eben Thomas, of the 4th artillery, was ordered to make a reconnoisance of the position of the Modocs with 69 men—infantry and artillery. After advancing a certain distance, to a point where the commander supposed the Modocs were, he signaled that no enemy was to be seen; continuing to advance with his command, a few minutes afterwards his forces were attacked on all sides by the Indians, killing Capt Thomas and several other officers, and killing and wounding 49 out of 69 in the command. The slaughter of our troops was terrible, while the Indians do not appear to have lost scarcely any of their men. This is the most disastrous fight for the United States Army, that has taken place since the breaking out of the Modoc war. A Congressional Committee ought to be sent to Oregon to investigate the matter. There is certainly a job for somebody in the Modoc war, or affairs would be managed better.

DEATH OF JOHN R. THOMPSON.—John R. Thompson, Esq., formerly editor of The Southern Literary Messenger, published at Richmond, Virginia, died at New York on Wednesday.—Mr. Thompson was a very popular magazine writer, and a gentleman of fine literary attainments. He was employed on the literary department of the New York Evening Post at the time of his death. During the latter part of the war, after the Literary Messenger was suspended, he was the assistant State Librarian, at Richmond, and a correspondent of several Southern papers. He was a graduate of the Virginia University, and the author of several fine poems.

DEATH OF HON. JAMES BROOKS.—Hon. James Brooks, the member of Congress from the 8th New York District, who had been in bad health for some time, died at Washington on Wednesday. He was a Democrat in politics, a native of Maine, and the founder of the New York Express. His last days were clouded by his connection with the Union Pacific Railroad and Credit Mobilier. He was a victim of worry. His disease, which the most eminent physicians could not diagnose, was cancer of the stomach. He died in his 63rd year.

FAILURE OF ANOTHER NEW YORK BANK.—The Atlantic Bank of New York has failed, Francis L. Taintor, the cashier, is a defaulter to the enormous sum of $500,000, more or less. The first information of the Bank's insolvent condition was communicated by the defaulting cashier to the officers of the clearing house. A receiver has been appointed and the bank put in bankruptcy, under the U. S. Bankrupt Act.

[COMMUNICATED.]

BAYSIDE, May 2d, 1873.

EDITOR STAR:—Dear Sir: I entirely accord with the sentiments expressed by your correspondents "Olive Branch" and "Peace," and with the tone of your editorial columns respecting the course of policy to be observed, in order to preserve our county from Radical rule; and so far as I have heard an expression of opinion, you reflect the sentiments of the Democrats and Conservatives of this section of the county. We want no war of factions in the Democratic party of Talbot; we want a united party and certain victory. As the two parties in this county are about equally balanced, it will require the utmost circumspection in the management of the coming campaign to give us success. Our enemies are united and consolidated, and we may expect their votes to be cast solid against us. They are hungry for the spoils; and should they get into power, I fear they would make sad work of our county affairs, now in so healthy a condition. It would be a fearful thing for our people to have black constables and supervisors, and black ferrymen, to say nothing of higher officers, to rule and domineer over them, and to have black and ignorant jurymen to sit in judgment on their lives, liberties, rights and property.—But this will surely come to pass, unless the Democrats close their ranks, forget their past heart-burnings, and unite together in solid phalanx, to defeat the enemy and maintain white supremacy in our local affairs. I hope it is manifest to all that union and harmony is the need of the hour. The temper of the people is such at this time, it will not do for those who assume to lead the democratic rank and file, to attempt to use them for any selfish purpose. If any have personal feelings or private griefs, they must hush them in view of the great interests involved, or they should stand aside and let others lead the column to victory; for success we must have at all hazards in so important a contest as will take place next Fall. It is of the utmost importance that the public offices—all of them—should be well filled, by gentlemen of qualification; but it is still more important that a set of Radical blood-suckers, black and white, should be kept out of public trusts that they have no natural or acquired fitness for. This is the sentiment of this section of the county, and I hope that all Democrats, Conservatives, and Liberals will come to see eye to eye in a matter so important, and unite as one man in feeling and action, to maintain the honor of dear old democratic Talbot. Go ahead, sir, you are on the right path. The people are with you.

BAYSIDE.

Postponement of the Public Library Gift Concert.

It will be seen by the announcement in our advertising columns that the third gift concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, which was to have taken place to-day, has been postponed until July 8. This postponement has not been occasioned, as we are advised by Gov. Bramlette, by the small sales of tickets; on the contrary the sales have been unusually large—much larger than at either of the preceding concerts—so large, indeed, that the time given by this ninety-day postponement will enable Gov. Bramlette to dispose of every ticket and insure a full drawing without any reduction or scaling of the gifts, as has heretofore been the case. Gov. B. sees his way so clearly that he announces in the most positive and unequivocal language that the drawing will take place July 8, and that it will be a full one. The owner of the ticket drawing the capital gift will get $100,000 in greenbacks without any discount, and so of all the other gifts. The money sufficient to pay all the gifts—$500,000 in greenbacks—is already on deposit in the Farmers' and Drovers' Bank, set apart for the payment of the gifts and can be used for no other purpose, as will be seen by the cashier's certificate. With a knowledge of these facts—and we do not hesitate to guarantee their scrupulous fulfillment—there will be such a demand for the tickets now on hand that in all probability not a single one will be left for sale weeks before the time of drawing. There never was a fairer or more honorably-conducted enterprise before the public, and it has, as it deserves, the entire confidence of the people. It is one of those schemes in which the purchasers of tickets feel the most positive assurance that the drawing will be fair; for it will be controlled by the most prominent and distinguished citizens of the city and State, and those who draw gifts will be certain to get the money the moment their tickets are presented.

THE BLACKFEET.—The Blackfeet Indians are on the war path. There is every indication of a general Indian war this Summer, as the result of the Peace policy of the Administration. Evidently the Friends are not the people to deal with the western tribes of Indians. Penn might manage the Indians of his day, by moral suasion, but it takes the strongest kind of coercion to control them now.

The Md. & Del. R. R.

JAY GOULD OPERATING IT IN THE INTEST OF THE NEW JERSEY SOUTHERN.

Recent developments would seem to confirm the whispered rumor that Jay Gould has obtained control of the Md. & Del. R R. from Clayton to Oxford, by purchase. If he has not purchased it, it is operated under his directions, as we are informed from a source which we consider reliable.

In December last, when the suit of the bondholders, to compel the sale of the road, was removed from the Courts of Talbot county to Cecil, it was agreed that, should there be a prospect for the sale of the road by the 15th of February, sixty days thereafter would be allowed in which to consummate such sale, and if consummated with any promise that the interest on the bonds would be paid, the suit would be abandoned. That date has passed, and the fact that the suit was not pressed at the late session of the Court at Elkton indicates that the sale has actually been made.

Another circumstance of more recent date would also seem to confirm the rumor. A week ago the tariff on R. R. ties was increased to prevent their shipment from the road. The expedient, however, failed to accomplish the desired result, and, one day last week, an order was issued by Superintendent Caldwell forbidding their transportation. Ties are piled up in large quantities all along the road, and the order is regarded as an effort to compel their sale to Jay Gould or parties for him, he being a bidder for the ties.

The purposes for which Mr. Gould has purchased the Md. & Del. Railroad, are obvious, and it is said that his plans are already matured for their successful consummation. As a passenger route, but little is expected from the road. More ample accommodations will be provided for travel via Massey's. But as a freight route, the Md. & Del. Railroad premises much. It is proposed, we understand, to made this the great freight route between New York and the South and South west. It is said that the Norfolk steamers will touch at Oxford, both ways, and will deliver there, directly into the cars, the Southern produce in transit for New York, instead of carrying it all the way to Baltimore, and the transporting it to the depots for re-shipment. This is said to be Mr. Gould's only object in the purchase of this road.—Wilmington Commercial.

No Pill in the world ever had anything like the circulation of Ayer's Pills. Throughout these States, Mexico, and the Central American republic, down the slopes of the Andes, and across the pampas of South America, in negro villages, amid the fervid wilds of Africa, throughout the jungles of India, and the steppes of interior Asia, over the continent of Australia, and the islands of the Pacific, these Pills are known and everywhere used as family remedies for diseases. With distant nations, their wonderful cures attract more attention than they do at home; for the sentiment of wonder takes a far deeper hold on their minds than the results of a higher scientific skill with us. The amount consumed require seventy-five thousand doses a day to supply it. An inspection of the manufactory showed us how this enormous demand is made and sustained. Added to the consummate skill of their composition, is an extreme care in their manufacture, which at once secures the most perfect material in their most accurate combination. The consequence is a power and certainty in controlling diseases which other remedies never attained.—Baltimore Courier.

Centaur Liniment.

There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling it will not subdue, and no lameness which it will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. Where the parts are not gone, its effects are marvelous. It has produced more cures of rheumatism, neuralgia, lock-jaw, palsy, sprains, swellings, caked-breasts, scalds, burns, salt-rheum, ear-ache, &c., upon the human frame, and of strains, spavin, galls, &c., upon animals in one year than have all other pretended remedies since the world began. It is a counter-irritant, an all-healing pain reliever. Cripples throw away their crutches, the lame walk, poisonous bites are rendered harmless, and the wounded are healed without a scar. It is no humbug. The recipe is published around each bottle. It is selling as no article ever before sold, and it sells because it does just what it pretends to do. Those who now suffer from rheumatism, pain or swelling, deserve to suffer if they will not use Centaur Liniment. More than 1000 certificates of remarkable cures, including frozen limbs, chronic rheumatism, gout, running tumors, &c., have been received. We will send a circular containing certificates, the recipe, &c., gratis, to any one requesting it. One bottle of the yellow wrapper Centaur Liniment is worth one hundred dollars for spavined or sweenied horses and mules, or for screw-worm in sheep. Stock-owners—this liniment is worth your attention. No family should be without Centaur Liniment. Price, 50c a bottle, large bottles $1.00.

Her long experience in the business enables her to know the exact wants of her customers and the public generally, and she has duly considered their tastes and wants in her purchases. She will also keep in stock a general assortment of Ladies' UNDER-GARMENTS.

She has procured the agency of the celebrated Butterick & Co's Patterns, which have given such universal satisfaction, and will sell them at the same price as the home office in New York. She will keep on hand a full supply during each season. By the use of these patterns any lady can make her own or children's garments of every kind, and be sure of a perfect fit.

Being very thankful for the liberal patronage of the public in the past, she very earnestly solicits a continuance of the same.
