MARKETS.

BALTIMORE MARKET, Dec. 9, 1876.

Wheat, best Maryland,	$1 50
Corn, prime White,	52
Oats, best,	37
Rye,	68

The grain market is firmer than it was at the first of last week.

Local Record.

—Henry Schmaltz has on hand 40 barrels of apples which he wishes to sell. He also has a full supply of meal, chops, oil cake meal, and bran, at his store. He wishes to sell his goods and fixtures to any one desiring to enter the business, which will support any live and active man —The ice prevented the steamers from coming to Easton last week.

—There was fine sleighing here on Tuesday Wednesday and Thursday.

—The streets of Easton on Saturday morning were a solid sheet of ice, rendering walking extremely difficult.

—Turkeys in market on Saturday morning sold at 12½ cents per pound—which is lower than they have been here for a long time.

—Appleton's Journal for January is already on our table, containing a very interesting table of contents.

The late freeze has closed Dickinson's bay, and stopped the wild duck shooting at that celebrated ducking ground.

—Capt. William H. Bridges, of Broad Creek Neck, killed six wild geese at one shot a few days ago.

—Mr. Myers, on Dover street, has a large lot of Jewelry on hand, which he is selling cheap for cash —Go to Stebbins' gallery, on Dover street, and get your photograph taken. A picture makes a nice Christmas or New Year present.

—Our merchants have been recieving their goods from the city by rail since the steamers have been stopped by the ice. The difference in freight is but a trifle.

—The ladies of Christ Church and Trinity Chapel were busy last week, dressing with evergreens and beautifying their respective churches for Christmas.

—As Christmas came on Monday, we were compelled to put our paper to press on Saturday evening, to prevent working on Christmas day.

—Peterson's Magazine for January, just received, is very prettily illustrated, and replete with interesting stories and gossip about the winter fashions.

—Godey's Lady's Book for January, beautifully printed and illustrated, has been received. It is the oldest and one of the best of the fashion magazines.

—Roberts & Sons have removed their carpenters' shop from Railroad Avenue to their new shop in Brickbat alley, near the gravel pit west of the Protestant Episcopal cemetery.

—John H. K. Shannahan was engaged on Thursday filling his large ice house with spring water ice from his pond near his ice house.

—Life is full of sorrows and disappointments, but the most sanguine hopes of all those who try Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup are always realized. It never disappoints.

—The farmers are in a bad way, in consequence of not being able to get their corn to market before the freeze. When their money supplies are cut off, every branch of business suffers with them.

—Friday was a bad day for sellinq Christmas goods. Rain commenced falling about 9 A. M., freezing as it fell, and in a short time the streets were as slippery as glass. It was difficult for pedestrians to travel them. The inclemency of the weather made our dealers in Christmas goods look blue.

—Dr. Ruth, of the United States Navy, will lecture at the Town Hall to-morrow evening on Italy, for the benefit of the Orphans' Home. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Price of admission 25 cents. The Doctor will doubtless give our citizens an interesting and polished lecture.

—Jacob Williams, on Market Space, wants the public to know that he has a large stock of first class men's and boys' winter boots, which he intends to close out cheap during Christmas. Call and see them, if you want to buy a bargain in a pair of boots.

—Up to Friday there was no change in the political situation in South Carolina. Without Grant interferes with his soldiers, Gov. Hampton must win, as Chamberlain has no money to keep his bogus Government running.

—On Thursday week, Edward E. Wilson, colored, was shot and killed by John Henry Elliott, both of Queen Anne's county, while out rabbit shooting. Elliott claims that the shooting was accidental, while the friends of Wilson say it was deliberate. Before the fatal shot was fired the boys had a dispute about a rabbit that Wilson shot at and missed. So says the Centreville Observer.

—As the printers in town all want holiday Christmas week, the editors of the Easton papers have consented only to publish a half sheet next week; consequently in our next issue, in order to oblige our boys in this matter, we shall only issue a half sheet, and shall be compelled to omit a large number of advertisements. Advertisers will see the situation, and excuse us if their advertisements should not appear in the paper on the 2nd of January.

—While coming to Easton on Tuesday afternoon, Mr. F. H. Johnston discovered a white man lying apparently insensible, in the road, near Dr. Adkins' lane gate. He had fallen out of a wagon Mr. Johnston dragged him to the roadside, covered him with a blanket, and informed Mr. Rathell of the facts as soon as he reached town. Mr. Rathell at once impressed Mr. Shannahan's omnibus into service, and he and Mr. Isaac Marshall started at once to save the man, or to bring in the corpse if he was dead. They soon found him where Mr. Johnston had left him, but instead of being dead, they found he had only been bulldozing himself with bad whiskey, and had fallen off his wagon in a state of beastly intoxication. The young man was named John Satchell, and lived in Landing Neck. They brought him and his wagon to town, lodged him in Sheriff Grace's hospital for invalid inebriates, and put his horses and wagon in Shannahan's stable. The next morning Satchell was sober; was let out of bed, got his wagon and made tracks for home. He had a pretty cold bed on the roadside, in the rain and snow, and if he had not been rescued might have kicked the bucket while there. It is not good for the health of young men to bulldoze themselves too heavily with bad whiskey about Christmas times. The question asked, is, where did he buy the whiskey?

YELLOW FEVER.—To meliorate the dreadful effects of Yellow Fever take Simmons' Liver Regulator Let it be given in large doses, that it may have an immediate effect upon the liver, and remove the accumulating bile. It so acts upon the liver, stomach and blood as to prevent the attack of this terrible disease.

FINE CELERY.—John Riser, German gardener, at Col. Lloyd's will please accept our thanks for a package of his brag celery. It comes in nice for Christmas. John is a good citizen, as Germans generally are, especially German gardeners that grow fine celery and supply editors free of charge A merry Christmas and a happy New Year to John.

ALMOST A FIRE.—Mr. John Leonard, of Trappe district, came very near losing his house by fire a few nights ago. The kitchen floor and fireboard took fire from the cooking stove, and before the fire was discovered, the fireboard and a part of the floor about 8x2 feet were burnt. The fire occurred about midnight. While he was extinguishing the flames, his meat house took fire from the sparks. Both were saved through great exertions The property was insured. Damage not over $20.

MR. DODSON'S SECOND LECTURE.—Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, Miss Swayze's lecture on Friday evening was well attended, and surely those that heard her were well rewarded for going. She certainly reads beautifully, and her selections were admirably chosen to illustrate the "Gaieties and Gravities" of the Poets. It is difficult to decide whether she excels most in reading pathetic or humorous pieces; both were rendered with great elegance. It is needless to say that the audience were perfectly charmed. After the lecture a number of gentlemen and ladies present, went on the stage and were introduced to her by Mr. Dodson, and all were pleased with conversation and elegant manners. She will always be welcome in Easton.

KENT NARROWS BRIDGE COMPLETED.—Mr. John H. Evans, under the superintendence of Mr. Hiram Goodhand, of Kent Island, has just completed the job of rebuilding the bridge at Kent Narrows. The Centreville Record says the work has been substantially and satisfactorily done. The vent for the water at all tides has been opened to about 40 feet, and at extraordinary tides over 100 feet. The greatest width of the channel for the passage of the water as built by Shipley was only fifty six feet. The approaches of the bridge on both sides have been solidly shelled. The point on which the draw works has been rip rapped with stone from Port Depesite. The widening of the channel will decrease the velocity of the tide, and thus greatly aid navigation.

STOCKING CHESTER RIVER WITH SALMON.—Major T. B Ferguson of the Maryland Fish Commission sent down last week to Millington per the Queen Anne's and Kent Railroad, 25,000 young California salmon to be turned loose in the head waters of the Chester river. The young fish were in large tanks filled with fresh water and in charge of William Hamlin, Esq., of Baltimore. It is said to be one of the peculiarities of this species of fish to periodically return to the head of the stream in which they are turned loose. They will attain full growth in two or three years. Mr. Hamlin gave Thos. H. Goldsborough, Esq., mail agent on the train, two or three hundred of these young salmon, which he turned loose in the upper mill pond near this town.—Centreville Record

Where is brother Downes, the other Fish Commissioner, that he is not also, like Major Ferguson, stocking our waters with young salmon? There are no Democratic Conventions in session at this time, to be manipulated, and no choice of the people to be defeated. He ought to be stocking the Choptank, the Wye, the Nanticoke, the Pocomoke and other rivers, with California or other breeds of fish. Let Mr. Downes come to the front, off jacket, and go to work at once, or he may lose the laurels he won at Ocean City.

THE PRODIGAL.

Inheritors of vast wealth are preverbially spendthrifts. The golden ore is dug from the mine, refined, and coined by the labor of other hands and the sweat of other brows. Like children playing with an expensive toy, they can form no just estimate of its value. When the donor weighed it, he cast into the balance so many days of unremitting and fatiguing toil, so many anxious and sleepless nights, so much self-denial, and so much care. But the inheritor into his balance throws only—pleasure. The one, values it by what it cost him; the other, for what it will purchase. Like the prodigal in the Scripture parable, he thoughtlessly expends it to gratify the caprice and cravings of his nature. Then comes the last scene—the misery, the remorse, and the long and wearisome journey back to the home of frugal industry. But there are other prodigals On her favorites our bounteous parent, Nature, has lavished her richest treasure—health. But the prodigal values it lightly, for it cost him naught, and recklessly squanders it in riotous living. Present pleasure obscures future want. Soon the curtain rises on the last scene. We see him helpless, impoverished,—the rich treasures of body and mind all lost,—in misery and despair. Remorseful Conscience holds up to him the the mirror of memory. In his own reckless folly he perceives the cause of his present pain. He resolves to return. The journey is long and tadious, but if he perseveringly follows the right road he will at length see the haven of his hopes in the distance, and Nature, seeing her invalid child afar off will come out to meet him, and receive him back with love and blessing. To find the right road homeward, the suffering prodigal should read "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." Therein it is completely mapped out, its landmarks all indicated and its milestones all numbered. Read it. Price $1.50 (postage prepaid). Address the author and publisher, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

Business Locals.

☞ I. L. Steiman, the ready-made clothes dealer, on Dover street, has just returned from the city with a very large and very cheap stock of overcoats, dress coats, business coats, boys' coats, pants, vests, and under clothing. His long experience and thorough knowledge of the clothing trade, enables him to buy where the best bargains are to be had, and his large business has been built up by selling at a very small profit. He offers now greater bargains than ever before. In fine coats, vests and pants, he defies competition, and earnestly invites those wanting new suits to call and see for themselves.

"A DROWNING MAN WILL CATCH AT A STRAW."

If he catch it, it will do him no good. Thousands of people, who have neglected colds and coughs until they have become dangerous, will rush to almost every nostrum for relief. This is why so many experiments are tried by the sufferers. Go to your Druggist, by a bottle of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and use it with confidence. It will benefit at once and ultimately cure. It is no straw, it is a cable well-tried, hold on to it and be saved. 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

Marriages.

TODD—ANDREW.—At the residence of the bride's father, in Caroline Co., Md., Dec. 20th, 1876, by Rev. Rumsey Smithson, Capt. Robt. D Todd, of Talbot Co., and Miss Amanda D. Andrew. Denton papers please copy.

Under Italian Skies;

A LECTURE.

"Fair Italy!
Thou art the garden of the world, the home
Of all art yields, and nature can decree;
Even in thy desert, what is like to thee?
Thy very weeds are beautiful, thy waste
More rich than other climes' fertility.
Thy wreck a glory, and thy ruin graced
With an immaculate charm that cannot be defaced."

THE Ladies, Managers of the "Home of the Friendless," have the pleasure of announcing that Dr. M. L. Ruth, U. S. Navy, will deliver a lecture, entitled "Under Italian Skies," for the benefit of the Charity in their care, on at the Town Hall, in Easton. All who at this festive season, desire to share an intellectual feast of the highest order, while they enjoy, at the same time the luxury of aiding the helpless, are invited.

Tickets for the lecture may be obtained at the Drug Stores in Easton, St. Michaels and Trappe, of Prof Minnick, or of either of the managers in Easton.

J. J. JUMP & CO.,

where he will be happy to meet them and extend to them the courtesies of the establishment.

While sincerely thanking them for their generous custom in the past, he hopes, that in his new place of business, by an earnest desire to please and faithful attention to the supplying of their several wants, to merit a continuance of their regard and patronage.

In thus greeting his old friends, he will also be most happy to acquire new ones, and gives his positive assurance, that by giving him a call, every requirement can be obtained both for individual and family comfort.

As the Messrs. Jump are noted for keeping not only the largest but the best stock of goods on the peninsula, as well as for their extreme liberality to their customers, he feels confident that a call and inspection of their merchandize is all that will be necessary to ensure a satisfactory purchase—at all events it will cost nothing to "drop in" to be convinced, and to this end he extends a cordial invitation to one and all to come and see him.
