THE EASTON STAR.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1884.

T. H. ROBSON, Editor.

L. JEFF. MILBOURNE & CO., Managers Advertising Agency, Baltimore, Md., are authorized to contract for advertisements for THE STAR, at our best rates.

How often do we hear of the sudden fatal termination of a case of croup, when a young life might have been saved by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral! Be wise in time, and keep a bottle of it on hand, ready for instant use.

JIM Blaine is going to Washington to live, to pull the wires for a "second term." Next time he will be beaten worse than he was on the 4th of November, 1884. If Mr. Blaine is wise he will now "haul up and calk," and let some other Republican try his hand at the wheel of fortune.

MR. Robert Garrett has been elected President of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad to succeed his father. He has been acting President for a year or two, and is esteemed quite equal to his father, John W. Garrett, as a railroad man. He has large views, but is very conservative in the management of his great corporation.

JOHN ROACH recently finished the new government Dispatch Boat Dolphin, and she broke her shaft and brought the old man to grief on her trial trip, before she had been accepted by the Navy Department. They had better keep the oyster pungys away from her or she may go down like Mr. Chandler's pet boat, the Talapoosa.

VICE-PRESIDENT elect Thomas A. Hendricks has been to Albany to call on President elect Cleveland. Gov. Hendricks was very favorably impressed with the views of Gov. Cleveland on the questions of public policy that were talked over between them. Gov. Cleveland will resign as soon as the New York legislature meets in January, and will be succeeded by Lieut-Gov. Hill.

ALTHOUGH a violent partisan and supporter of Blaine, Rev. Dr. Burchard considers Blaine's defeat Providential, and that he was unwittingly the instrument of Providence in bringing it about. If he believes that way about it, he certainly ought now to turn over to "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion" and shout for Cleveland as he shouted for Blaine before the election.

THE Republican papers in the business centres have condemned Mr. Blaine's incendiary Augusta speech as unqualifiedly as have the Democratic papers. There are now few regrets among business men in the cities that Mr. Blaine was defeated for President. Had he been elected there is no telling what mischief he might have done, if his Augusta speech is an index to his heart.

WE advise Democrats not to be too anxious for office, now that there is to be a democratic administration. We doubt if there are many removals, except for cause, among the lower grade of places. The Republicans have fixed things as well as they could to retain their places. There are doubtless a great many useless offices which will be abolished. It will be time enough to make a rush for the offices, when it is ascertained what places are to be filled.

Congress.

The second session of the 48th Congress commenced yesterday. Mr Randall's committee on appropriations has been in session for over a week, preparing the appropriation bills, several of which are already ready for the action of the House. It is likely that little will be done during the Session beyond passing the appropriation bills and disposing of private claims. There will not be time to consider a tariff bill; so that question will not be a disturbing element this session.

IT is apparent that the Gazette, now that the Republican party has gone under, is trying to sneak into the St. John's Prohibition party through the back door. We will bet a big apple, that it will advocate next fall the nomination of a Prohibition ticket, and another big apple, that after it is nominated, it will again throw away its vote on the Republican party, as it did at the late election on Blaine. It is evidently trying to stand on two stools, and the old adage tells what the result will be. It is plain that it preaches prohibition for policy's sake, and votes the Republican ticket from old associations and the force of habit.

THE Gazette says it never entered its mind that the negroes would be remanded to slavery in the event of the election of a Democratic President. If that be so, then Republicans have lied awfully to the negroes, telling them that the Democrats would re enslave them, should they get the power, when they knew such was not the fact. There is not a negro church in the country, that this doctrine has not been preached every Saturday night during the campaign, and the gospel on Sunday morning. Every negro in the country knows this to be true. Even those negroes who were free born have been made by the Republican politicians to fear being made slaves by the Democrats as much so as those emancipated by the war. Now, forsooth, since Cleveland has been elected, these Republican politicians come out and say, they never had an idea that the negroes would again be made slaves by the Democrats! What must the negroes, to say nothing of white people, think of such a criminal deception.

KING HUMBERT'S RETURN.

The People Crowding Around his Carriage and Struggling to Kiss his Hand.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—King Humbert returned to Rome to-day after his tour of the cholera-infected districts of Naples, Genoa, and the provinces. There was no regularly organized reception, because the King had expressed his earnest desire that the money which had been intended to provide a grand fete of welcome should be given to cholera sufferers. There was, however, an impromptu reception of the most enthusiastic character, and the joy and gratitude of the populace were most emphatically expressed. The people seemed wild with delight and crowded around the royal carriage, struggling to kiss the hand of the King through the carriage window. King Humbert sent away the cavalry guard that had been escorting him, so that all the people could have free access to his carriage, and he was kept busy bowing his acknowledgements as the cheers and blessings of his people rang in his ears.

The streets through which his Majesty passed were ablaze of color, every house being decorated with flags or flowers. The progress of the royal cortege was very slow on account of the throngs of people that constantly surrounded the King's carriage. It was after dark when the King reached the Quirinal, and by that time all the houses along the rout were brilliantly illuminated, and hundreds of torches were lighted and carried by the men in the streets.

Forepaugh's white elephant, the "Light of Asia," died a $50,000 death the other day.

Purge out the lurking distemper that undermines health, and the constitutional vigor will return. Those who suffer from an enfeebled and disordered state of the system, should take Ayer's Sarsaparilla to cleanse the blood, and restore vitality.

Bruce Fleers Blaine.

Ex-Senator Blanche K. Bruce of Mississippi, who is considered one of the best representatives of the colored race, who was in Philada. Saturday week was very frank in expressing his opinion regarding Mr. Blaine's attack upon the south. Mr. Bruce said: "That speech of Mr. Blaine at Augusta will doubtless be the cause of great uneasiness and mental distress among the colored people of the south. Fortunately its effects can only be short-lived. Such utterances were demagogical in the extreme and wholly unwarranted. I think I ought to know something about our people in the south. The greatest harmony exists between the white and colored races. Blaine's charges of intimidation and violence at the polls are absolute and unqualified falsehoods. To day the south is loyal and peaceful; its people, white and black, are, or were until Mr. Blaine fomented this new antagonism, in the right frame of mind to enter upon harmonious relations with the people of the north. They were especially desirous that the pleasant business relations should not be interrupted. This is exactly what Mr. Blaine strikes at, and his Augusta speech has lowered him more in popular estimation than any act of his life."

KILLING A BROTHER PREACHER.

Watching the Corpse All Night and then Holding a Prayer Meeting Over It.

ATHENS, Ga., Nov. 23.—The story of the killing of John Nail, near Hartwell, has some strange features. The negroes gave a hot supper, at which Joe Durrett and John Nail, both preachers, were present. Late in the night some one introduced whiskey, and the whole party got drunk, including Gracie, a sister of Joe Durrett. In trying to get his sister out of the way Durrett was attacked by Nail, whereupon Durrett seized a rail and crushed Nail's skull into a jelly, killing him instantly. Joe seemed chained to the spot and building a fire, watched by the side of his victim until daylight, making no attempt to escape. In the morning he got the negroes together and started a prayer meeting, he leading in prayer over the dead body of the man he had murdered. The reverend gentleman is now in jail.

Unnecessary Taxation.

At a great Democratic demonstration in Brooklyn last week Mr. Thomas A. Hendricks, the Vice-President elect, made a speech in the course of which he said:

"President Arthur expresses it as well as I am able to express it. He said that the only standard should be the needs of the Government economically administered. And Secretary Folger, in his last report to Congress, said that the question now presses upon it as to what legislation will relieve the people of the burdens of unnecessary taxation. Ah, it is a burden and it presses hard when it is $85,000,000 a year. How much would that $85,000,000 do for the country if taxation were otherwise reduced wisely, judiciously, so as to leave in the pockets of the people and in the channels of trade $85,000,000 every year? How much would it contribute to enterprise, to industry, to prosperity. How much would it bless labor and stimulate capital?"

No Intimidation.

It is worthy of Mr. Blaine's attention that while in the third congressional district of Mississippi the Hon. T. T. Catchings, the democratic nominee for Congress has 5,530 majority over his republican competitor, Mr. Blaine received in the same district the full vote of his party and beat Cleveland just as many thousand. So at least there was no intimidation in the "shoestring" district, even from a republican view of it.

The Electoral College.

The eight electors of President and Vice President of the State of Maryland will meet in Annapolis next Wednesday, December 3d, to cast the vote of this State for President and Vice President. It is supposed that either Gen. Bradley T. Johnson or Col. T. J. Keating the Electors at large, will be selected to preside. The College votes for President and Vice President separately.

IN whatever condition other men may leave public office, W. W. Dudley, of Indiana, has gone out in shame. No man ever used a public position more ignobly than he did the Pension Bureau. Its whole power was wielded for partisan purposes, with an utter disregard of all considerations of decency or policy. Dudley may, therefore, retire to his well-earned shame with the assurance that the country knows and recognizes it.—Philadelphia Times.

Washed-Out Hair.

There is a sort of pallid, chalky complexion which the novelists call a "washed-out complexion." It is ghastly enough, and no mistake. Washed-out, faded, discolored, or parti-colored hair is almost as repulsive and melancholy. Parker's Hair Balsam will restore your hair to its original color, whatever it was; brown, auburn or black. Why wear moss on your head, when you may easily have lively, shining hair.

IN the course of a sermon recently the Rev. and immaculate Dr. Burchard propounded the startling question: "Why am I not in heaven?" The question that Mr Blaine would prefer to have answered is why this remarkable divine was not in a very different locality before the late campaign opened.

The distinction of running off the largest number of papers on the day after election rests with the Boston Herald, so far as heard from, which claims to have printed and sold 302,080 copies on that day. The New York World comes next with its extraordinary issue of 223,000 copies.

THE largest grain elevator in the world is at Newport News, Va., with a receiving capacity of 30,000 bushels, and a shipping capacity of 20,000 bushels per hour.

THE large diamond belonging to Mr. Simon Dessau, valued at $50,000 and called the "Cleveland gem" goes to dazzle the New Orleans exposition.

THE Congo river discharges a volume of water next to the Amazon, and drains a territory of 1,600,000 square miles.

A Georgia rooster, so overjoyed at the turn events have taken, has gone to laying eggs.

New Advertisements.

Hard times, low wages, shrinkage of values are all having their effect on prices. The Clothing market feels the effect so much as to reduce prices to almost a give away point.

Now is your time to buy good first-class Clothing, such as our stock is composed of, at the lowest figures known to us for years past.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs; none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me.

HORACE FAIRBROTHER."

Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup. It seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,

MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."

159 West 126th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CRANE."

Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN."

Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. E. BRAGDON."

Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK

Is the oldest family magazine in America, and is conceded by the press and public to be the leading Fashion Magazine, especially so, as its circulations covers the largest area of any American publication, its patrons being found in every civilized country under the sun. 1885 will mark the fifty-fifth year of this Magazine, and it is proposed that it shall not only exceed in excellence in every department anything in its previous history, but surpass in attractiveness, quality and quantity any other magazine published for the same price. The Magazine, during 1885, will contain:—

1000 pages of reading, consisting of Stories, Novels, Romances, Sketches, Poetry, History, Biographies, by the best magazine writers; also, Art and Current Notes, Charades, Dialogues, Lessons on Dressmaking and Cooking.

300 Practical Recipes; besides descriptions of Fashions, domestic and foreign.

150 pages illustrating Fashions in colors, and black and white.

50 pages illustrating Fancy-Work in colors, and black and white.

24 pages of Select Music.

18 Beautiful Engravings.

12 Illustrations of Architectural Designs; besides illustrations of Household Interiors and Stories.

Each subscriber will be allowed to make a selection each month of a "Full Size Cut Paper Pattern" of any design illustrated in the Magazine, without extra cost; these patterns are worth more than the price of the Magazine. We will also present to every subscriber a Steel Engraving (for framing) of Perault's celebrated picture "Sleeping Love," prepared expressly for this Magazine.

As Godey's Lady's Book has faithfully observed its promises with the public for fifty-four years, there need be no doubt about the above offer being fulfilled to the letter. Subscription price $2.00 a year. Sample copies, 15 cents.

Lippincott's Magazine.

A POPULAR MONTHLY OF GENERAL LITERATURE.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1885.

Among the chief periodicals of the country Lippincott's Magazine has acquired the distinctive reputation of being "eminently readable."

Arrangements have been made for many contributions of special interest during the coming year. Among these particular attention is invited to a serial story entitled by F. C. Baylor, author of "The Perfect Treasure," in which the experiences of an English baronet and his friends during a tour through the United States are related with a mirth-provoking humor, a knowledge and appreciation of national characteristics, and a perfect fairness of tone and freedom from caricature, that cannot fail to secure critical approval and wide popularity. Miss Tincker's beautiful novel, "Auron," will be completed in the summer, and will be followed by several stories in two or more parts, including "The Lady Lawyer's Irish Client," by the author of "A Latter-Day Saint."

"ON THIS SIDE,"

A description of bric-a-brac hunting in England and France, by Mrs. Lucy C. Lillie, sketches of Italian life, by Mrs. Laura Thompson, an account of the Pioneers of Tennessee, by "Edmund Kirke," an article on the Premier of Canada (Sir John Macdonald), a narrative of the experiences of a Steerage Passenger to and from Liverpool, by Thomas Wharton, an article on Queen Anne, or Free Classic Architecture, by George C. Mason, Jr., and a comedy for private theatricals, by James Payn, will be published in early numbers, together with the usual variety of short stories and articles of general interest by popular writers.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

"MANTUA,"
A VERY Valuable Farm,
CONTAINING ABOUT 700 ACRES,

Situated on Coan River, Va., near the mouth of the Potomac River. Improvements first-class, and land in fine condition, divided into 7 or 8 fields of from 50 to 80 acres each, with never-failing springs of pure water in each field. A first-class stock farm, over 100 head of cattle grazed upon it and sold last year. Land in cultivated grasses (Clover, Timothy and Blue grass) except that in grain crops. Over 100 acres of wheat seeded this fall.

Navigable water surrounds over half the farm, and Steamer landing adjoining. It is by far the most beautiful farm in the county, and in as good condition as the best. All fenced with Chestnut rails; has been thoroughly cultivated and had heavy applications of Phosphate of Lime applied to each field. The soil is a medium loam with red clay sub-soil. A young, thrifty orchard of PEACH, APPEE, PEAR AND CHERRY TREES of the best varieties of fruit; nearly 3,000 trees five years old next spring in the healthiest condition possible. It is one of the very healthiest properties to be found anywhere, and is offered for sale because of the owner being unable to give it his undivided attention, having business that frequently calls him to Baltimore.

☞ PRICE, $35,000. ☜

¼ cash, the balance on long credit, or would take in exchange as part payment a good small farm in Maryland, or good Baltimore city or suburban property.

For full particulars address the undersigned for descriptive circular, or visit him at the farm.

The Steamer Sue leaves Pier 10, Light st. Wharf, every Tues day and Friday at 5 P. M., arrives at Coan Wharf, adjoining the farm, next morning about 5 A. M. Fare for round trip, $3.00. Address,

T. R. CRANE,
79 Oak Avenue, Baltimore,
Or at Heathsville,
Northumberland Co., Va.
