Come, All Ye People, and hear political and economical principles discussed by eminent orators and statesmen.

W. T. H. LEE,
CHAS. R. WOOTERS,
JEROME B. BENNETT,
State Central Committee for Talbot county.

THE Democrats of Pennsylvania are working with a will to reduce the majority of that Republican stronghold. Twelve hundred meetings were held on Thursday last throughout the State.

THE difference in the way of raising campaign funds by the national committees of the two leading parties is noticeable. Chairman Quay is "frying the fat" out of the manufacturers, and the Democratic workingmen are sending in their subscriptions in sums varying from 25 cents to $1.

THE Republicans are going to send the "plumed knight" out West, for the purpose of trying to stop the farmers from voting for Cleveland on account of the Tariff. On Saturday he visited Chairman Quay in New York, and the New York World says he gave Blaine his instructions, one of which was to say no more about trusts. It will be interesting to see how he answers the questions the Western farmers will put to him in regard to them. They are not in favor of dodging, and will have no respect for Mr. Quay's feelings. Mr. Blaine "put his foot in it," when he spoke about them before, and the Western people know it. In his speech at the Polo grounds, New York, last Saturday he obeyed orders, and only referred to the tariff, tracing its history up to 1861, but failing to say anything about what it has been since. Our opinion was that it was the tariff, as at present constituted, that we had to deal with. Such a course in the West will only conduce to enlarge Mr. Cleveland's vote, and for it we will be very thankful.

The Art Amateur for October gives an excellent colored fac-simile of 'Stormy Weather Off the Coast of Maine,' painted in oils by Edward Moran, who talks instructively about Marine Painting, and also gives directions for painting this picture. There is a striking double-page design, 'Night-hawks and Nightingales,' together with a crayon portrait study of a little girl, china painting designs for a honey-dish (apple blossoms) and a cracker-jar (lilies), a continuation of the fish-plate series, a bold figure design (George Washington) for a large hammered brass plaque, and a companion (Mary Washington) is promised for the next number. There are a page of monograms, and various wood-carving and embroidery designs and motives for decorative borders. Excellent articles are given on painting wild flowers, landscape painting, china painting, carving and other practical art topics. There are also suggestive talks with a Japanese expert on Oriental Ceramics and with the architect Bruce Price on the use of terra cotta in decoration. The various minor departments are specially well filled. Price 35 cents. Montague Marks, Publisher, 23 Union Square, New York.

The guarantee to our colored citizens of all their rights of citizenship, and their just recognition and encouragement in all things pertaining to that relation; a firm, patient and humane Indian policy, so that in peaceful relations with the government the civilization of the Indians may be promoted, with resulting quietness and safety to the settlers on our frontiers, and the curtailment of public expense by the introduction of economical methods in every department of the Government.—Cleveland's Letter of Acceptance.

Cash for the Cause.

NEW YORK, September 26.—At noon today a medium-sized man, with dark hair and moustache and dressed in a business man's attire, ran up the brownstone steps leading into the national Democratic headquarters, and requested an assistant sergeant-at-arms to direct him to Chairman Brice's room. He was escorted up stairs, and when he stood in front of the red-headed political organizer from Ohio he drew a plain envelope from a pocket, and, as he extended the hand holding it, said:

'Mr. Brice, here is a little contribution to continue a national blessing in Grover Cleveland's retention in the Presidential chair. The country has never seen a better President, and, as a good citizen, I wish to contribute my mite to the education of the people on the issues of the campaign.'

As Chairman Brice received the envelope the man turned and walked away. The former, removing the inclosure, found to his surprise that it was a yellow backed one thousand dollar note.

'Hold on!' he shouted after the retreating figure, 'give us your name, please.'

'Never mind that,' said the stranger, waving a hand in farewell, 'simply credit it to "A friend of a good cause."' Then he tightly bounded down stairs and disappeared without leaving the slightest trace of his identity.

That incident strikingly illustrates the manner in which the appeal of Chairmen Barnum and Brice for campaign funds has been met. Treasurer Canda's mail is heavy with contributions from every State in the Union, and the gratifying feature of these subscriptions is the fact that they seem so free from any suggestion of enforcement or of emanating only from office-holders.

In fact the most frequent contributions are single one-dollar notes sent with cheering words by workingmen, clerks, business men and even women. These are received with as much gratification as the larger amounts, because they are looked upon as giving evidence of a new and healthy political sentiment among the people at large. Pennsylvanians figure largely in these contributions. To-day's mail contained money enclosures from Pittsburg, Susquehanna, Gettysburg, Bloomsburg and even from a Philadelphia merchant.

A Review of the Trusts.

Here is a list of some of the trusts that exist in the United States in consequence of high tariff:

1. The Steel-Rail Trust, buttressed by a tariff tax of $17 per ton.
2. The Nail Trust, by a tax of $1 25 per 100 pounds.
3. The Iron Nut and Washer Trust, by a tax of $2 per 100 pounds.
4. The Barbed Fence Wire Trust, by a tax of 60 cents per 100 pounds.
5. The Copper Trust, by a tax of $2.50 per 100 pounds.
6. The Lead Trust, by a tax of $1 50 per 100 pounds.
7. The Slate-Pencil Trust, by a tax of 80 per cent.
8. The Nickel Trust, by a tax of $15 per 100 pounds.
9. The Zinc Trust, by a tax of $2.50 per 100 pounds.
10. The Sugar Trust, by a tax of $2 per 100 pounds.
11. The Oilcloth Trust, by a tax of 40 per cent.
12. The Jute-Bag Trust, by a tax of 40 per cent.
13. The Cordage Trust, by a tax of 30 per cent.
14. The Paper Envelope Trust, by a tax of 25 per cent.
15. The Gutta Percha Trust, by a tax of 35 per cent.
16. The Castor Oil Trust, by a tax of 30 cents per gallon.
17. The Linseed Oil Trust, by a tax of 25 cents per gallon.
18. The Cottonseed Oil Trust, by a tax of 25 cents per gallon.
19. The Borax Trust, by a tax of $5 per 100 pounds on borax and boracic acid, $3 per 100 pounds on crude borax and borate of lime, and $4 per 100 pounds on commercial boracic acid.
20. The Ultramarine Trust, by a tax of $5 per 100 pounds.

The effect of monopoly tariff on capitalistic combinations does not stop with those above enumerated. The tendency of the system is to foster trusts of of all kinds, and to encourage close combinations of capitalists hostile to the interests of labor and to individual business enterprise.

How the Betting Stands in Indiana.

An Indianapolis dispatch to the Louisville Courier Journal says: 'There is a popular impression that the trend of betting on election results is a good indication of the way things are drifting. Admitting such to be the case, the democrats have the best of it to all intents and purposes in this State. They post their money readily, and are not so particular as to the amount, while the republicans hesitate and prefer small sums. That is, they abstain from the thousands altogether, and are satisfied with a few hundreds. As a rule, the republicans here have nothing to stake on the general result. When they put up it goes even money to say that Hartison will carry Indiana. There is a democratic syndicate in this city that covers, without odds, every republican dollar to be found, whether on the State or the issue at large.'

Refused to Save the Tariff.

Edward B. Whitney, secretary of the National Association of Democratic Clubs, was recently informed that Henry R. Hinckley, a prominent cutlery manufacturer of Northampton, Mass., and an old Republican, had written a sharp letter to Albert Daggett, refusing to respond to the famous 'Fat' circular. On writing to Mr. Hinckley for a copy of his letter to Daggett, he received the following reply:

I did write a letter to Mr. Daggett in answer to his circular, but I did not keep a copy. I wrote him that I agreed with him that the tariff was the issue of this campaign, but that I thought the Republican party was on the wrong side and that I would not give a cent to save it from perdition. Every manufacturer is not a sneak-thief.

No Congressional Scandal This Year.

Judge Kelley, of the House of Representatives, some weeks ago charged Representative Stahlnecker, of New York, a democrat, with using improper pressure upon the architect of the new library building to induce him to buy marble and cement in which the New York democrat had a personal or family interest. The investigating committee which has been examining witnesses decided unanimously that Mr. Strbinecker is wholly innocent of the corrupt action charged upon him. It was a case merely of excessive zeal in behalf of industries in Mr. Stahlnecker's district, and even so Mr. Stahlnecker wanted his constituents' marble and cement to stand on their merits after the usual tests.

'Diseases, desperate grown, by desperate appliances are relieved, or not at all.' The point of wisdom is to check them before they reach so far by buying a bottle of Salvation Oil. Price 25 cents.

'Conspiracies no sooner should be formed than executed,' and a cold should no sooner be taken, than a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup should be bought and used according to the directions.

Here is a pretty good campaign document:

'KINGS COUNTY
REPUBLICAN GENERAL COMMITTEE,
BROOKLYN, July 27, 1888.

Mr. Frank E. Hippie, 229 Broadway, New York:

'DEAR SIR—On behalf of the Campaign Committee the undersigned begs leave to add your name to its list of campaign speakers.

'Knowing your ability to 'speak of the faith that is in you,' your zeal in the cause that lies nearest to the heart of all of us, and your prompt and cheerful obedience to every call of the Grand Old Party in the past, the committee confidently relies upon receiving an early and favorable answer to this communication. Very respectfully yours,

'THEODORE B. WILLIS,
'Chairman Campaign Committee, 479 Fulton street.'

Mr. Hipple, who is a lawyer at No. 229 Broadway, sent the following letter in reply:

'Theodore B. Willis, Esq., Chairman Campaign Committee of Kings County:

'DEAR SIR—Owing to my absence from the city, I have been unable heretofore to answer your communication of July 27, requesting my service as a campaign speaker. Highly appreciating the confidence you express as to my zeal in the cause that lies nearest the heart of all of us, and my cheerful obedience to the call of my party, I am, nevertheless, in all sincerity bound to place that zeal and obedience at the service of the party that now represents tariff reform.

'When I was a Republican I followed in the footsteps of such leaders as Grant, Garfield, Sherman and Arthur, all of whom earnestly recommended a reduction of the tariff. I also represented as a Republican the principles laid down by the Chicago platform of that party in 1884, which then pronounced high taxation 'a burden.' Now that these principles have been laid aside, I am in conscience bound to ally myself with the party which has dared to fulfill in deed that which the Republicans have so long promised in vain, and to enroll under the banner of Cleveland, Thurman and tariff reform.

'Thanking you again for your confidence, I remain, Very truly yours,

'FRANK E. HIPPLE.'

The New Methodist Discipline on the Liquor Question.

BOSTON, Sept. 26.—The 'Book of Doctrine' of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which has just been published, but is not yet on the market, contains this article: 'We approve the action of the Lay Electoral Conference of California, condemning the raising and selling of grapes for the manufacture of fermented wines, and think the time has come for a broader utterance on this subject. We warn our members against raising and selling, not only grapes, but also other fruits, hops and grain, for the manufacture of alcoholic liquors, as inconsistent with the Christian profession, benumbing to the conscience and hurtful to the cause of temperance and true piety. These practices bring the Church into complicity with the great liquor nuisance, paralyze our efforts, and afford comfort to the greatest enemy of modern Christianity.'

The Indianapolis Sentinel (Dem) thus lays bare the fatal lack of logic in the high tariff argument to the workingmen:

The monopoly taxers tell us that—

A High Tariff Makes { Prices Low / Wages High

at one and the same time, thus compelling the manufacturers

To { Pay Out More Money, / Take in Less Money

than they would without the high tariff. And they also tell us that the manufacturers will all be ruined unless this same high tariff is maintained. This is what James G. Blaine and Ben Harrison and all the rest of the monopoly taxers ask the people to believe.

Which { Reduces Their Revenue / Increases Their Expenses

For the information of voters the following sections of the new Registration Law are quoted:

SECTION 3, And be it further enacted, That said several Officers of Registration for the respective election districts in the counties of this state, instead of sitting five days in September and two days in October each year as prescribed by the said Act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two, section ten, shall sit for the purpose of performing the duties imposed upon them by said Act, and by this Act, daily for two successive days in the month of May, for three successive days in September and for five successive days in October in every year in which an election shall be held in said counties; said sittings in May and September to commence on the second Monday of said months respectively, and the October sitting to commence on the first Monday in October. Said sittings shall in like manner be called the May, September and October sittings. The said respective Officers of Registration shall sit at said several sittings in the several counties with open doors from 8 o'clock a. m. until 6 o'clock p. m. on each day of their sessions, and their proceedings shall be public and open to free inspection, without any obstruction whatever. The places of their sittings shall be selected as prescribed in said Act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That said Officers of Registration, when sitting at their respective May, June, July and September sittings, and the first sitting in October, shall register as provided in the said Act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two, all qualified voters who shall present themselves for registration; and in addition to said work of registration they shall carefully revise and scrutinize the said registries of voters so received by them from said Clerks of the several Circuit Courts and of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, to the end that all errors therein shall be corrected; and the names of all voters entered therein who shall have died or become for any reason disqualified, or who for any cause shall have ceased to be entitled to remain on said registration books, shall be stricken off. In order that the work of striking off from the registries the names of all dead and disqualified persons, and of all persons erroneously or improperly placed thereon, may be thoroughly and accurately accomplished, it shall be the duty of said several Officers of Registration at their May sitting to go carefully over the whole list of names upon said registries in their respective precincts and election districts, and to note for striking off the names of all persons whom from their own information, or from information furnished to them from others, they have good reason to believe to be proper to be stricken off. Having made out the list, which shall be at all times open to public inspection, it shall be their duty to address written notices to all the persons whose names are set down thereon, except those known to be dead, calling on said persons to appear before them on or before the first day of July sitting in the city of Baltimore, and the first day of the September sitting in the counties, to show cause why their names should not be stricken from said registries, which notices shall be served in Baltimore city by the police of Baltimore city, and in the counties by the sheriff of the several counties, upon all of such persons who can be found by them, and said notices shall also be sent by mail to said persons, addressed to them at the place from which they were registered. Should no cause, or, in the judgment of said Officers of Registration, an insufficient cause to the contrary be shown by the first day of their July or september sitting, as the case may be, it shall be the duty of said Officers of Registration, during said sitting, to strike off the names of all persons on said list; but if said Officers of Registration shall be satisfied by competent sworn testimony produced before them, or from their own knowledge or information, that any of said persons, notwithstanding their failure to appear in answer to said notices, are in reality entitled to have their names retained on said registration books, then the names of said persons shall be so retained; moreover, whenever any suggestion shall be made to them in writing, signed by any person, that said registration books contain any specified name or names which should be stricken off, it shall be their duty to diligently inquire into and investigate every such suggestion, and to strike off every name which, upon such investigation, they shall ascertain to have been improperly registered in the first instance, or to be no longer entitled to remain upon the registration books, for any lawful cause. Within three days after the sittings in May, June, July and September and the first sitting in October in the city of Baltimore, and after the May, September and October sittings in the counties, said Registration Officers shall publish, as provided in said Act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two the two alphabeticallists required to be published by section twenty-one of said Act, and shall also put up and retain during their subsequent sessions, in a conspicuous place in the room occupied by them as a registration office, two of said printed alphabetical lists; and the said Officers of Registration, within three days after the close respectively of their sittings in May, June, July and September, shall send by mail, and through the police of Baltimore city and the sheriff in the several counties, notices to all persons whose names have been stricken off at said respective sittings, notifying them that their names have been stricken off at said respective sittings, notifying them that their names have been stricken off, so as to give them an opportunity to appear at some future sitting, not later than the first of the October sittings, and establish their right to be reinstated. At the end of the first October sitting it shall, in like manner, be the duty of said Officers of Registration to send notices in the same modes to all persons whose names have been stricken off at such October sitting, notifying them that their names have been stricken off, and informing them that said Officers of Registration will sit on the third day after the date of such notice for the hearing and determining of all applications for reinstatement, at which final sitting said Officers of Registration shall sit for said purpose only. In all cases when a name is stricken off, the reason shall be recorded opposite such name, and when a name is stricken off upon the oath of any person, the name of such person shall be recorded opposite the name stricken off. At the end of each day's registry, or revision of registration, one of said Registers in the city, or the Register in the county, shall sign his name or initials immediately under the last name registered under each letter, so that no new name can be added without discovery. And shall any of said Officers of Registration of the several counties of this State be unable to sit and register the qualified voters of their respective election districts on the next to the final day of the October sitting, by reason of sickness or other unavoidable cause, all persons qualified to be registered, who shall appear in person at the place of registration on said day, and who shall fail to be registered, by reason of such disability of the Officer of Registration shall have the same right of appeal as if they had been refused registration by the Officer of Registration.
