WITH

NEW FALL & WINTER

NOVELTIES.

In our Dress Goods department alone we can show you over One Hundred different kinds and qualities. It would be useless to try and give you a description of the different fabrics we are displaying this season, as this space would be inadequate. We simply invite you to call and see for yourselves. We name only a few of the choicest novelties.

BROAD CLOTHS,
HABIT CLOTHS,
BENGALINE CLOTHS,
HENRIETTA CLOTHS,
SERGES,
CASHMERES, DEBEIGES.

We keep over one dozen varieties in Kid Gloves. We have them from 25c. to $2.50 per pair. Our 59c. Kid Gloves are very pretty.

If you want to get any of the leading makes in Corsets, you can always find them at our establishment.

Same in Hosiery. We venture to say, and do say, without fear of contradiction, that we keep more Hosiery than any two stores in our town; we can give you Hosiery from 60c. dozen to $18.00 dozen; we sell black Hosiery for both ladies and children that we warrant will not fade in washing nor stain the flesh.

LADIES' HANDKERCHIEFS.

Over thirty different patterns to select from, ranging in price from 5c. to $2.00 each.

UNDERWEAR.

In this department we keep all the different qualities. Children's Vests as low as 12½c.

GENT.'S WHITE DRESS SHIRTS

in three different qualities. Our 50c. Linen Bosom Shirt can't be beat.

Saxony Yarns in all the new and delicate shades can be bought of us at 12½c. an ounce.

OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

is certainly attracting a great deal of attention this season. Miss Hall, our New York trimmer, is giving our customers entire satisfaction. Everybody tells us our hats and bonnets are beautiful, and that they never saw them so reasonable.

LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S WRAPS.

Our store room is so crowded with the goods that customers often ask us "What in the name of common sense are you going to do with so many wraps?" Well, we certainly have been showing these people in the past two weeks what we do with them. They are selling rapidly. Certain kinds are selling faster than we can get them. New Plush Wraps just received this week.

Well, we have so many different departments it is simply impossible for us to do justice in our column to all of them. But we must say just a few words to you about Carpets. Every reader of this paper knows we are the only real Carpet Dealers in this market. We can show you Carpets from the cheapest hemp to the finest Velvet, so don't forget us when you buy Carpets; also a full line of Druggets and Rugs.

Same can be said of our Men's and Boys' Ready-Made Suits and Overcoats. We are just as much headquarters on Clothing as we are on Carpets.

LINEN DEPARTMENT.

We can save you some money by buying TABLE LINENS, NAPKINS and TOWELS of us. See our full bleached TABLE LINEN at 50c. yard.

FLANNEL DEPARTMENT.

In this department we can give you Flannels from 12½c. to $1.00 yard.

I have just returned from the city with the largest and handsomest line of Lamps ever seen in Easton. Please call and inspect them before purchasing.

F. A. SHANNAHAN

Don't buy your Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes and Gent.'s Furnishings until you look through the stock at C. H. Leonard's. He has an immense stock for fall and winter, and will save you money on them.

When the ladies want fashion-plates they want those which come with first-class authority from the headquarters of European styles, and which are printed in colors, with full directions for making dresses according to their designs.

The cold weather which set in last Thursday brought a snow storm on Sunday night, and sleigh bells were heard on the streets of Easton yesterday. The snow turned into rain about 8 o'clock, and the streets were nasty and disagreeable to pedestrians.

My stock of Groceries is complete, and I will guarantee everything that goes out of my store to be fresh, pure and just as represented. A call from my friends and the public generally will be greatly appreciated.

F. A. SHANNAHAN.

Every lady wants to know what to wear and how to make it. Godey's Lady's Book tells all that, and much more. The December number is peculiarly rich, both with illustrations and literary matter; fashions, stories, poetry, shopping hints, and all that a refined and practical lady wants to know. —Godey's Lady's Book.

Don't freeze yourself, or let your horse stand in the cold, but go and get one of those elegant Robes, Lap Blankets or Horse Covers from the Shannahan & Wrightson Hardware Company. They have this year a large, and well selected stock of those goods, which they are offering at lowest figures. Go and see before you purchase elsewhere.

I have re-modeled and improved my store-room, and am now enabled to carry a much larger line of Glass and Queensware than heretofore. When you are needing a Tea-set, Dinner-set, Chamber-set, Water-set, Lemonade set or anything else in the Queensware Line, remember it is no trouble to show them to you, whether you purchase or not.

F A. SHANNAHAN.

With the closing of the year Godey's Lady's Book issue a superb number, running over with seasonable attractions of the most brilliant kind. The exquisite steel-plate frontispiece, "The Parting Promise," illustrates a capital story, by Max Vander Weyde, Emily Lennox's illustrated story, "Reggy Did It," is a gem in its way. So is Emily Read's "Stratagem." "Inasmuch" is very touching. "A Woman's Way" will be greatly enjoyed.

My assortment of Robes, Blankets and Horse Covers is complete and well worthy of inspection. Prices cannot be discounted.

Meat or Sausage Cutters, Lard Presses, Sausage Stuffers and other seasonable goods in full supply. The Enterprise Cutter is useful all the year round.

T. C. NICOLS.

If you intend to travel either for pleasure or profit protect yourself against the change of diet and water, by having with you Laxador, the great regulator, and using it in time to prevent the disorders usually resulting from such changes.

Kindness, if nothing stronger, should induce any one to use Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup for the relief of the diseases babies are subject to. Price 25 cents.

Clocks are sometimes deceiving, especially in their striking as several young men of Easton have found out after bidding good night to their lady friends. This striking of eleven for ten when it is only nine o'clock should be changed by the young ladies. We would suggest taking those clocks to the jewelry store of either Sangston or Bernhard and have them so regulated that they will strike correctly. No doubt these young men would be willing to pay the expense of regulating the same.

Big Fire at Pocomoke.

About 4.30 o'clock last Thursday a telegram was received here asking the assistance of our Fire Department, at Pocomoke City, where a fire was raging with every indication that the town would be laid in ashes. Our Fire Department was soon gotten together, and apparatus loaded on a special train sent by the superintendent of the N. Y., P. & N. R. R. to carry the Department down. On their arrival they found the central portion of the town in ashes and with every prospect of a total distruction of the town. The Fire Department with the assistance of the Crisfield Department checked the fire after fighting it several hours. The superintendent of the railroad sent a train and fifty men from Cape Charles to assist the citizens.

The fire originated in the drug store of Dr. D. J. O. Truitt. Some of the principal business places burned were: The drug stores of Dr. Truit; Lloyd, Dryden & Blaine, and E. Fontaine; general merchandise stores of W. S Dickenson & Son; I. H. Merrill & Co.; the millinery stores of H. A. DeKay and Mrs. W. B. Henderson; hardware store of Davis & Co.; H. H. Huston confectionery; E. G. Polk & Co., merchant tailors; the Clark House and Pocomoke Hotel; the Record and Gazette, Times and Ledger. The town is left without a newspaper, hotel, or drug store and all the business places except two were burned. The school building and all the churches were saved. But few residences were burned. The town, we understand, was fairly well insured. It is difficult at this writing to estimate the loss in dollars and cents. Salisbury, which has "passed under the rod," can fully sympathize with her sister city in this her deepest sorrow.—Salisbury Advertiser.

Harper and Crittenden Harper renounced their right to administer on the estate and the court granted letters of administration to Mrs. Rowena H. Harper and Samuel A. Harper. They filed their bond in $75.000

The court authorized Frank D. Harrison, administrator of Joseph H Harrison, to sell the deceased's personal estate at public or private sale with the exception of his Easton National Bank stock; also authorized him to publish notice to creditors. Said administrator presented an inventory of said deceased's personal estate.

The administration account heretofore filed by Stephen P. Jump, administrator of Wm. T. Lee, deceased, was duly examined and passed.

Roofing and Spouting.

Fashion Notes from Godey's Lady Book.

Old effects appear in the newest watered silks, many of which have wavy blotches or ovals just a thought darker than their ground tone.

Ribbons of faille and gros grain in double colors, and feathers of all sorts, claim front rank among the trimmings of winter millinery.

A new mottled enamel that gives much the effect of tortoise shell has just been brought out in London, and is all the rage for light furniture.

New French nightgowns are much fuller than formerly, and the width goes to the neck in tucks, plaits or shirrings, while some of them are tucked at the waist in front to form a Spanish girdle.

French walking skirts are two and one half yards round the bottom, with fitted front and side gores and yoke at the back drawn up on tape, to which the full back breadth is gathered, and have either a bem with trimming put below it or lace-trimmed flounce set upon the skirt.

Some new ribbons come in astrakhan and felt in the fashionable shades and will be used to some extent on hats and for bonnet trimming.

Notice.

I am paying the highest cash price for grain, wheat corn and oats.

Thoughts for Thanksgiving Day.

From Harper's Bazar.

Are we poor? We might be beggars. Are we beggars? We might be lepers. Are we lepers? Our sickness might be unto death. Is it unto death? We have yet a heaven beyond. For all let us give thanks. Thanks surely if we are in health of body and mind and even in illness there is much reason and occasion to be found for a grateful heart. Has trouble come to us now? It might be worse. Are we alone? There is poorer company than ourselves to be had. Have we lost our dearest and best? They, at any rate, are not here to suffer. Has the year dealt crushing blows in business? It has not taken away also our power and will to work. Have we work? Then for that and all the rest give thanks again. Give thanks that we live and breathe and have our being in this world of wonder and light and beauty.

A GREAT MAGAZINE.

The Century for 1889.

THE question has often been asked, "to what does The Century owe its great circulation?" The Christian Union once answered this by the statement that "it has been fairly won, not by advertising schemes, but by the excellence which characterizes it in every department." In their announcements for the coming year the publishers state that it has always been their desire to make The Century the one indispensable periodical of its class, so that whatever other publication might be desirable in the family, The Century could not be neglected by those who wish to keep abreast of the times in all matters pertaining to culture. And the unprecedented circulation of the magazine would seem to be the response of the public to this intention.

With the November number The Century begins its thirty-seventh volume. Two great features of the magazine which are to continue throughout the new volume are already well known to the public, the Lincoln history and the papers on "Siberia and the Exile System." The first of these, written by Messrs. Nicolay and Hay, President Lincoln's private secretaries, contains the inside history of the dark days of the war, as seen from the White House.

THE SIBERIAN PAPERS,

by George Kennan, are attracting the attention of the civilized world. The Chicago Tribune says that "no other magazine articles printed in the English language just now touch upon a subject which so vitally interests all thoughtful people in Europe and America and Asia." As is already known, copies of The Century entering Russia have these articles torn out by the customs officials on the frontier.

DURING 1889

The Century will publish the most important art feature that has yet found place in its pages. It is the result of four years' work of Mr. Timothy Cole, the leading magazine engraver of the world, in the galleries of Europe, engraving from the originals the greatest pictures by the old masters.

A series of papers on New England, its customs, landscapes, etc., will appear, and there are to be illustrated articles on Bible scenes, treating especially the subjects of the International Sunday-School Lessons. George W. Cable will write "Strange, True Stories of Louisiana." There will be novelettes and short stories by leading writers occasional articles on war subjects (supplemental to the famous "War Papers" by General Grant and others, which have been appearing in The Century), etc., etc.

The Century costs four dollars a year, and it is published by The Century Co., of New York, who will send a copy of the full prospectus to any one on request.
