School Group Holds Meeting

4-County Conference Held Here Monday

Mrs. Mary S. Cooper, principal of Tri-County High School, and E. Clyde Walls, principal of Centreville High school, were among the speakers at the regional conference of superintendents and high school principals of Queen Anne's, Talbot, Kent and Caroline counties at the Blue Lantern Inn Monday evening.

Mrs. Cooper's topic was the weakness she had found in the classwork of beginning teachers and remedies taken to correct them. Mr. Walls discussed the advantages, difficulties and possible weaknesses of the sixty-minute period.

The conference was called by E. Clark Fontaine, state supervisor of high schools. The superintendents present at the meeting included Franklin D. Day, Queen Anne's; Benjamin Willis, Caroline; J. Willard Davis, Talbot; Louis C. Robinson, Kent; Edward B. Fockler, supervisor of colored schools, Cecil; and former superintendent Edward N. Noble of Caroline.

Among the principals present were J. Fred Stevens, Stevensville; Miss Anna M. Harrison, Sudlersville; and Bernard Merrick, Church Hill.

Anthony Tops Company K Marksman In Match

First Sergeant Charles E. Anthony led Company K riflemen in an intra-unit shoot Tuesday night at the Centreville Armory scoring 359 out of a possible 400 on the indoor range. Other scores of the match, under the supervision of Lieut. Chapman of Easton, were: pl. Henry E. Wallace 343, Segt. Paul E. Buehl 338, Segt. Wm. H. Richardson 334, and 1st class Pvt. Wm. S. Roberts 308.

The match was fired at a distance of 50 ft. with .22 calibre rifles, under Chief of the National Guard Bureau regulations. A comparative report with the results from other Maryland National Guard units will come from Headquarters later.

The annual matches with other Eastern Shore units will be held next month.

Y. M. C. A. Secretary To Address P-TA Jan. 24

Frank M. Liddle, Executive Secretary Y. M. C. A. Metropolitan Boys' Branch in Baltimore, will be the principal speaker at the Centreville Parent-Teachers Association meeting to be held at the Grammar School on January 24. Mr. Liddle will talk on "Recreation, Its Needs and Benefits". It has been announced also that he is to lecture to the local High School students at 11 a. m. on that date.

Delegates of the local organization had an opportunity to hear Mr. Liddle speak before the State P-TA Convention in Baltimore last fall and invited him to come here with the thought that his talk would be of great assistance to young people.

Woman's Club Elects; Names Its Committees

Mrs. A. M. Green Reelected President; To Aid Firemen, Red Cross

Organization of the Centreville Woman's Club for the year was practically completed at the meeting of the executive committee Thursday following the regular January meeting in the Little Theatre on the Monday preceding. Mrs. Alfred M. Green will again head the club as president.

Other officers selected were Mrs. W. Marvin Barton, 1st vice-president; Mrs. A. Sydney Gadd, Jr., 2d vice-president; Mrs. A. A. M. Dewing, secretary; Mrs. Vachel Downes, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. Ray Tabler, treasurer; Mrs. Sterling G. Harris, publicity director.

Three chairmen of standing committees were appointed, including Mrs. Norman P. Walters, membership; Mrs. A. Sydney Gadd, Jr., civic improvement; and Mrs. M. Wilson Harris, hostess committee.

These ladies with Mrs. Howard W. Ryland, Mrs. Edward O. Willis, Mrs. Franklin D. Day and Mrs. Oliver C. Jones comprise the board of directors.

The January meeting of the club was featured by an illustrated talk on the world wide activities of an internationally known soup company.

At the meeting Mrs. M. Wilson Harris was made chairman of a committee to obtain information leading to possible federation with the national organization of Women's clubs.

At the executive session the Woman's Club combined with the Red Cross of Queen Anne's county in jointly outfitting a child who is to be sent to a sanitarium.

Announcement was made that the Firemen's Auxiliary of the Woman's Club has been provided with dishes, glasses and other utensils for the kitchen of the Little Theatre to be available for providing hot coffee and soup for firemen when on duty in bad weather.

2 Farm Locals Name Leaders

Program Presented For Barclay-Sudlersville Groups

The Sudlersville and Barclay Locals of the Queen Anne's County Farm Bureau started the current year with a lively meeting in Cox Hall at Sudlersville Monday evening when officers were elected and an enjoyable program presented.

The 1936 staff for the Sudlersville local consists of John W. Smith, president; B. P. Stafford, vice-president; and Theodore J. Walbert, secretary-treasurer. E. S. Graham was chosen president of the Barclay local.

Mrs. Preston Lee, Charles Chance and Mrs. Theodore Walbert gave readings and the Sudlersville Male Quartette sang several selections on the program. A humorous debate between Mr. and Mrs. Walbert as to whether the oyster is a more intelligent animal than the sponge was settled by the audience in favor of Mrs. Walbert.

The annual banquet of the Sudlersville Local was set for Thursday evening, February 13, at Cox Hall.

Dance Planned At Stevensville

Alumni Ass'n Slates Event For Friday Night

Injecting what promises to be a colorful note in the winter season on Kent Island, the Stevensville High School Alumni Association will catch the rythm at the annual dance to be held in the auditorium of Stevensville High School tomorrow, Friday evening from 9 p. m. to 1:30 a. m.

The event will be semi-formal in character. Lou Startt and his Country Club orchestra have been engaged for the music.

The list of patrons includes Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Stevens, Mr. ond Mrs. Dudley Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. John Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lowery, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Jones, Dr. and Mrs. John C. Norris, Mrs. Lee Bell and Mrs. Lillian Cockey.

Committees from the association, of which Mr. Walter Denny is President, have been active in preparation for the affair, distributing tickets, planning decorations and selecting favors to be distributed.

The dance was originally scheduled for December 26 but the snows of Christmas week put a damper on it as on other events arranged on the supposition that the roads would be kept open.

Since its organization the Stevensville High School Alumni Association comprising graduates of the schools and honorary members from Kent Island has maintained a vigorous program of activities with a card party, a dance and a banquet among the more important events on its calendar.
