Lease At Well Cove Protested By Watermen

Hearing On Harvey Ruth Application Set By Board For March 3

Objections have been filed with the County Commissioners on the application of Harvey Ruth, Grasonville, to lease a parcel of land located on the channel side of Well Cove Landing near the Narrows. Mr. Ruth desired ground on which to accumulate a shell pile.

A petition bearing the signatures of seventeen citizens and taxpayers of the vicinity has been filed with the Commissioners and the Board set a hearing for Tuesday, March 3, at 2 p. m.

The petition read: "We, the undersigned citizens and taxpayers do hereby protest against the leasing of any piece or part of the Public Landing situated at Well Cove near Kent Island Narrows", and the following signed the document:

Joseph W. Collier, J. W. Eaton, W. Butler, J. W. Beecher, James Wilkins, Melvin Wilson, Herbert Tolson, Joseph H. Beecher, William Beecher, Ernest S. Burns, Herbert Burns, Wesley Horney, Benjamin Miller, Roland Miller, Lemuel Gardner, Paul Jones, and William Sterling.

Representative Joseph W. A. Evans conveyed the petition to the County Commissioners.

Miss Sara Mitchell Gives Shower For Bride-To-Be

Miss Sara Mitchell gave a miscellaneous shower at her home on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Doris R. Moore, whose marriage to Mr. Walter K. Moffett, of Parlin, N. J., will take place here on Saturday.

Five hundred was the feature of the evening. Mr. Dorsey Wright was awarded high prize.

Miss Mitchell's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Wright, the Misses Doris Moore, Dolly Price and Lucille Lutz, and the Messrs. Hugh Perry and Billy Thompson.

A most enjoyable evening was spent and Miss Moore received many attractive and useful gifts.
