Ladies Revive Kent Island Club

Homemakers Give Lift To Community Club

Plans for reviving the old Kent Island Community Club in conjunction with the present Homemakers' Club at Stevensville were made at an organization meeting of the Homemakers in Stevensville High School Tuesday afternoon when the first staff of officers was elected.

Mrs. Calvert Jones of Chester was chosen president; Mrs. John Daniel, Stevensville, vice-president; Mrs. Claude Lowery, Chester, secretary; and Mrs. T. Walter White, Stevensville; treasurer. Mrs. Lowery also put on a demonstration of insect control of flowers.

The members voted to have a festival on Decoration Day, May 30, with the proceeds to start a fund for building a community house. The club also decided to meet twice each month instead of the customary once for Homemakers.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. Calvert Jones, Mrs. Alfred White, Mrs. John Daniel, Mrs. T. Walter White, Mrs. W. P. Kirkwood, Mrs. John Longan, Mrs. Claude Lowery, Mrs. Henry Grollman, Mrs. Clinton Jones, Mrs. Robert Cook, Mrs. Lee Bell, Miss Katherine Kirwan.

The Stevensville Girls 4-H Club met Tuesday morning in the High School to work on clothing projects. About twenty-five members were present with Miss Mary Ellen Hoxter, vice-president, presiding in the absence of the president.
