UP AND DOWN THE Eastern Shore

Wolves in Sheep Clothing

Elkton—Posing as Good Samaritans, Charles and Albert Rhoads picked up Miss Mollie Wright along the Singerly-Elkton road, took her to the hospital where she planned to visit a friend. then the men back-tracked on their trail and raided her roost of ten plump hens which were sold in Wilmington. Next day Miss Wright returned home, reported the theft and the Sheriff thinks he has solved a wholesale series of roost raids in Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland.

Overhauling Side-Wheeler

Crisfield—The side-wheeler "Eastern Shore" which for 53 years has plied the bay between Baltimore and Crisfield has tied up at the down town ferry dock and will be entirely rebuilt from the water line up. Two 200 h. p diesel engines will transform her into a twin-screw oil burner instead of a side-wheeler and the old steamer will take the water next fall.

Dies on Wedding Day

Salisbury—With an apartment rented and all plans made for his wedding that day, Rudolph Horseman, 25-year old resident of Jesterville, suffered a pulmonary hemorrhage and died before he could be removed to a hospital. He was to have wed Miss Viola Jones of this town.

Refuge for Wildfowl

Cambridge—Under the auspices of the U. S. Biological Survey, CCC workers have been assigned to Dorchester County to create refuges for ducks, geese and other members of the winged family this summer. Restoration of land to its natural condition to provide winter feeding is the objective and the project in this county is to be known as the Blackwater Migratory Fowl Refuge.

Checker Champ Visits

Crisfield—Newell W. Banks, former U. S. checker champ was a visitor here last week and while blindfolded took on six of the town's best players. Banks won 4, drew 2. He offered to play a dozen games simultaneously. George B. Raus, Bridgeville, Delaware champion shifted the checker men according to numbers called by Banks.

Queen Nicotina Weds

Princess Anne—Miss Mary Leonore Garner, who was crowned Queen Nicotina at the Southern Maryland Tobacco Pageant in 1934, was married last week in La Plata to Omar James, Jr., a native of Princess Anne.

Another Stick-Up

Sharptown—Believe to have been the victim of the same trio who held up Julius Meyers, florist at Marydel, Harry Hughes, a poultry buyer of Vienna, was accosted on a lonely section of the road near here last Saturday morning and robbed of $380 in cash. The thieves stopped him to ask the way to Claiborne, then drew pistols, Hughes said.

Seedlings Set Out

Berlin—A project of the Rural Resettlement Administration, seedling of 91,000 loblolly pines and 20,000 short leaf pines to cover approximately 110 acres of abandoned farm lands in Worcester and southeastern Wicomico county is under way.

Widow's Mite

Crisfield—Coming home from a shopping tour Mrs. Mamie Handy, widow, was near hysterics when she discovered that a handkerchief secured to her clothing in which her lifetime savings of $270 had been tucked away was still there, the money gone. Friends and neighbors joined in a search throughout the afternoon and evening. The search ended when Mrs. Handy found the money had sliped down, and lodged in her underclothing.

Pleas for Buoys

Ocean City—Replacement of channel markers in Sinepuxent and Chincoteague Bays which were destroyed by several ice conditions last winter have been authorized by the Superintendent of Lighthouses at Norfolk. Meanwhile watermen at Rock Hall have appealed throguh Senator Tydings for installation of a beacon at that point.

Taxidermist Exhibit

Easton—The Talbot County Free Library swarms with make-believe wildlife of the Eastern Shore. The bulk of the mounted birds and small animals, skillfully posed in characteristic attitudes, as well as tanned skins, insects, reptiles and birds' eggs have been loaned by Taxidermist N. F. Toadvine, of Salisbury.

$96 vs $270

Princess Anne—Strife between Miss Marcell Cook, Welfare Executive Secretary, whom Somerset county officials have long sought to oust because she is not a native of the county, is believed to have been at the roots of the County Commissioners' refusal last week to allot $96 in Somerset funds to gain a Federal appropriation of $2000 and $700 from the State to continue the program of dependent children's maintenance.

Woman Burns to Death

Pocomoke City—Mrs. John T. Taylor, 52 was burned to death and the business section of Chincoteague was threatened when Mrs. Taylor attempted to start a fire in the kitchen stove with kerosene. Burned beyond recognition, she lived only a few minutes and three others who sought to aid her were painfully burned.

Brotherly Brothers

Cambrige—Harry B. Wright, grand master of the Masons of Maryland is slated to become a "Tall Cedar at Sight" when the Tall Cedars of Lebanon representing Forests from the Eastern Shore, Baltimore, Delaware and Washington hold a district ceremonial here on April 25.

Mrs. Chelton Dies

Crisfield—Mrs. Mary Ellen Chelton, 82, for more than sixty years a resident of "Make Peace", one of the historical homes visited by President Roosevelt on his surprise visit here shortly after his inauguration, died last Thursday.

May Merge Schools

Ridgely—With several rooms in the local high school not being used and heating facilities at the primary school not considered adequate, the Parent Teachers' Association may ask for a merger of the two schools.

Obituary

REV. SAMUEL CAWMAN

The Rev. Samuel Cawman, a retired Methodist Episcopal minister, died at his home in Queenstown Thursday afternoon about 2 o'clock from a complication of diseases. He was 76 years old.

He was born in Millville, N. J., on August 14, 1859, the son of the late Thomas and Ella Cawman. For about twenty years he served as supply minister in the New Jersey Methodist Episcopal conference and later in the Wilmington Conference. His last charge was at Henderson.

He was twice married, his first wife having been the late Mrs. Ella Cawman and the second Mrs. Eliza Stranahan Roberts of Bryantown, who survives him.

A daughter, Mrs. Edith Mullendore, of Baltimore, three grand children and a sister, Mrs. Mathews of Millville, N. J., also remain.

Funeral services were conducted at his late home Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Ray W. Kirwan, pastor of Queenstown Methodist Episcopal Church, assisted by the Rev. Charles Sharpless.

The bearers were the Messrs. T. D. Swann, Nathan Draper, Harry C. Reynolds, W. Stedman Cross, J. K. Wrightson and Samuel C. Collier.

Interment was in Church Hill cemetery.

THOMAS J. LYNCH

Thomas Jefferson Lynch, lovable little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lynch of the vicinity of Queen Anne, died of pneumonia at his parent's home on Wednesday morning of last week. The child was two years and nine months old.

He is survived by his parents, two sisters, Betty and Barbara Lynch, and a brother, Sonny.

Funeral services were held from his parents' home Saturday morning at 10 o'clock with the Rev. Father Hensel of St. Benedict's Catholic Church of Ridgely officiating.

The bearers were four boys, Maurice Lynch, Jr., Thomas Binebrink, Robert Magrogan, Jr. and Raymond Whitby, Jr.

Interment was in Hillsboro cemetery.

ETHEL M. GREEN

Ethel Marie Green, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Green of the vicinity of Church Hill, died at her parents' home Friday after a brief illness. She was 1 year, 5 months and 27 days old.

Besides her parents the child is survived by a brother, Arthur Merritt Green, and three sisters, Mary Catherine, Ina and Janie.

Funeral services were held from the family home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Monroe Iglehart, pastor of Ingleside Methodist Episcopal Church officiating.

The bearers were Billy Wilson, Frank Walls, John Walter Skinner, Linwood Cronshaw, Leroy Phillips and Billy Phillips.

Interment was in Church Hill cemetery.

WILLIAM B. PAYNE

Funeral services for William Bowers Payne of Ridgely were held from the Moore funeral parlors in Denton Thursday afternoon with interment in Hillsboro cemetery.

Mr. Payne, who was 54 years old, died at Cambridge hospital on Tuesday of last week. He was a native of Kent county but had been a resident of Ridgely for several years. He was a farmer and a former employee of the Pennsylvania railroad.

He is survived by his wife, Henrietta Carter Payne, and a son Oscar Payne, of Ridgely, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Davidson of Centreville.

CHARLES WALDRON

Charles Waldron, caretaker of the Centreville sewage disposal plant, died of pneumonia at his home in Centreville Sunday evening about 9 o'clock. He was 62 years old and had been ill for several weeks.

Mr. Waldron was born in Talbot county on September 11, 1873, the son of the late Dominic and Ophelia O'Connor Waldron, who were both natives of Ireland. Most of his life was spent in Queen Anne's county. Until he took charge of the sewage disposal plant about two years ago he had lived on a farm near Burrisville.

He is survived by his wife, the former Miss Rose Spray, and a son, Thomas Waldron, of Claymont Delaware.

The funeral was held from his late home Wednesday morning with a requiem mass celebrated in Mother of Sororws Church by the Rev. Francis J. Fisher at 10 o'clock.

The bearers were George Legg, Hiram Briscoe, J. Edward Connolly, Ray Richardson, Edward Pinder and Winfield Roe.

Interment was in Chesterfield Cemetery.

STOMACH UPSET

Get at the real cause. That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged intestines or constipation.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets help the intestines in a soothing, healing way. When the bowels are performing their natural functions, people rarely suffer from indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested fods? Try Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound. Know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain. All druggists. 15c 30c and 60c.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief.

AN OPEN LETTER

to the

PEOPLE OF QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY

April 23, 1936.

DEAR FRIENDS:—

If we may we would like to bring to your attention a few important factors regarding the purchase of a memorial.

FIRST—Like all other purchases you make you want the best money can buy at a price you can afford.

SECOND—The purchase of a memorial means only one thing and that is . . . HOW LONG IT WILL LAST AND MAINTAIN ITS BEAUTY . . . and not how much it will cost.

THIRD—You will save yourself many a heartache if you will make it a point to see the actual stone before making a purchase.

FOURTH—We are quite sure that you wouldn't care to invest the price of a memorial in purchasing a dress, simply by looking at a pretty picture. Then why choose your memorial from a picture book that is two or three years old . . . or go to the cemetery and order one like any you see there . . . When you can come to Maurice E. Newnam and Son's and inspect the largest display of memorials on the Eastern Shore.

FIFTH—Every memorial is quarried by companies known throughout America . . . Every memorial is of different design . . . every one lettered to your individual taste.

SIXTH—Our Name has been known throughout the Eastern Shore for 38 years . . . and never have we known any of our customers to be dissatisfied.

SEVENTH—Our prices are in keeping with the quality work you receive . . . and in a great many cases lower because of the inferior quality and imperfect memorials being sold by some dealers who sell from catalogues and pictures.

EIGHTH—After considering all of these points and shopping around for comparison, we invite you to pay us a visit. We are reasonably certain that you will leave here with full assurance that A NEWNAM MEMORIAL will give lasting satisfaction.

Thank you,

Maurice E. Newnam & Son
