It's the Taupe

Because it's both casual and chic, this costume is a favorite in the spring wardrobe of Adele Girard, youthful singing harpist heard on sustaining programs over the Columbia network. The "top hat" is of navy taffeta stitched in a flexible silver straw cord, which is both practical and decorative, and trimmed with a bow of bright red patent leather. Taupe corduroy fashions the coat, with which Adele wears a scarf of navy blue crepe and matching gloves of suede and kid.
