"Dodsworth" To Be Seen At Opera House

Sinclair Lewis' unsentimental chronicle of a sentimental hero, "Dodsworth", which first gained a vast audience as a best selling novel and then as a play ran for almost two years, will provide the screen entertainment at the Centreville Opera House next Monday and Tuesday. Walter Huston has the title role, Ruth Chatterton is his much younger wife who yearns for a last fling at romance, Paul Lukas is the Continental gentleman of distinction who would provide that opportunity, and Mary Astor, strange as it might seem after the recent publication of her diary, offers "Dodsworth" the slippered ease and conventional companionship that he yearns for.

All who favor a return to—
SAFE . . . SANE . . . SENSIBLE GOVERNMENT
Are invited to attend this rally.

SPEAKERS
SENATOR O. STRAUGHN LLOYD
Republican Candidate for Congress
WALTER H. FREENEY
A Jeffersonian Democrat, Instructor of Speaking at Carnegie Institute.

A Special Invitation is extended to Women

Published by Authority of Republican State Central Committee of Queen Anne's County.

What Do YOU Want?

IF YOU want:

1. Permanent employment in place of temporary and inadequate doles;
2. An American form of Constitutional government, safeguarded by an independent Supreme Court, in place of a centralized bureaucratic dictatorship;
3. Individual liberty in place of a regimented, goose-stepping citizenship;
4. Performances in place of broken promises;
5. Plenty instead of planned scarcity;
6. Lasting prosperity in place of artificial business activity induced by the wasteful spending of taxpayers' money.
7. Your wages or income to buy more instead of less;
8. No more government liens against your property, savings and earnings;
9. Real social security instead of costly insecurity;
10. National cooperation in place of class intolerance;
11. Balanced budget and bearable taxes;

If YOU want what we understand in America to be LIBERTY and EQUALITY — the kind which has made this nation the richest in the world and the American standard of living the highest on this globe:

VOTE AGAINST THE NEW DEAL
on November 3rd
and FOR ALFRED M. LANDON for President and FRANK KNOX for Vice President and this Congressional candidate opposed to the New Deal
O. STRAUGHN LLOYD, 1st District

Published by authority of the Republican State Central Committee—Wm. P. Lawson, Chairman

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE
For Congress, First Congressional District

O. Straughn Lloyd
State Senator For Wicomico County

HE STANDS FOR:

(1) The application of sound business methods in government.

(2) The elimination of waste and extravagance from government.

(3) The abolition of such Government Bureaus and Commissions as are not essential to the functioning of the Government.

(4) Sound currency and an honest business administration.

(5) The immediate balancing of the budget and a cessation of reckless spending.

(6) The withdrawal of the Government from competition with private business, but a reasonable, supervision of business by the Government for the good of the people as a whole.

(7) The proper care of and provision for the destitute and needy, administered impartially and without preference, regardless of race, creed or political affiliation, in such a manner as to discourage indolence and to enable the beneficiary to maintain self-respect.

(8) The conservation of the great natural resources of inland water-ways of the nation and further development of the seafood industry.

(9) An intelligent consideration of the problems of the farmer and such assistance in the solution thereof as may conform to the laws of nature and the law of the land.

(10) A recognition of the fact that both labor and capital are essential to the welfare and continued progress of the nation and that each is dependent upon the other, and the general welfare of all the people upon both.

(11) The abolition of Utopian Theories in Government and a return to common-sense, business-like methods, the application of which has heretofore made this nation the greatest power in world affairs.

SENATOR LLOYD'S RECORD

In Wicomico County, which has an affiliated Democratic majority of 2-1, he, a Republican, in 1930 was elected to the Maryland House of Delegates. In appreciation of his splendid record in that body he was elected to the Maryland Senate in 1934, where he served as minority floor leader. While serving in that capacity he was generally acclaimed as the outstanding

OPPONENT OF:
HIGH TAXES GENERALLY
THE STATE GROSS RECEIPTS TAX
THE GENERAL SALES TAX

As a buyer of produce for the past thirty years and a resident of Salisbury, in the midst of the Chesapeake tidewater Counties, he is intimately acquainted with the many problems of Eastern Shore farmers, watermen and business men. Their interests have dominated his entire legislative career.
