LOCAL MATTERS.

WEDNESDAY, May 24, 1871.

ATTENTION SMALL BOYS!—Save your quarters and look out for the Circus.

FESTIVAL.—Do not forget the festival at the Stone Church to night—No pains have been spared to make it not only attractive but brilliant.

FRANCE.—Just before going to press we learn through the cable that the Versaillists have effected a lodgement within the walls of Paris in two places, and the total reduction of the city cannot be deferred longer than a day or two. The communist leaders are flying in every direction to escape the halter they so richly deserve.

TO FARMERS.—We recommend to all who may wish to purchase Mowing Machines, that they call at E. Whitman & Sons, on Pratt Street, Balt. to examine the Sprague Mower. We know nothing about this or any other Machine, but we do know that the above firm will sell nothing that is not good in its line. See advertisement in another column.

We invite the attention of persons wishing to procure a town residence to the advertisement of Dr. James L. Bryan in another column. It is one of the most comfortable residences in one of the pleasantest towns on the Eastern Shore, and so good an opportunity for purchasing is seldom offered.

BURIAL OF LATANE!—We have received from the publishers a copy of this famous engraving, generally considered the finest of its kind in America. We think it fully equal to its reputation, and cordially recommend it to the lovers of the fine arts. But every one can judge for himself by calling at the Law Office of Henry & Sulivane, where it may be seen at all times. See Advertisement.

THE METROPOLIS EXPLAINED AND ILLUSTRATED, is the title of a neat Guidebook for the City of New York, containing a full description and history of the Central Park, with fine engravings, a directory to all the churches of the city, the public buildings, banks, hotels, railroad depots, libraries, &c.; and a colored map of New York and Brooklyn. It is published by Devlin & Co., the celebrated clothiers, and is presented gratuitously to all who apply for it by mail or in person.

☞We have received the "STAR SPANGLED BANNER," for May. With its January number this unequalled paper began its ninth year of successful publication. It is a Rich, Rare and Racy 40 column paper, Illustrated, devoted to Literature, Poetry, Wit, Humor, Fun, and to exposing Swindles and Humbugs. It is only 75 cents a year, and every subscriber receives gratis and prepaid, the new and superb Engraving "PIONEERS OF AMERICA," which cost $1000 to engrave. Specimens can be seen at this office, or will be sent free by addressing

STAR SPANGLED BANNER,
Hinsdale, N. H.

DEMOREST'S MAGAZINE.—The June number of Demorest's Illustrated Monthly Magazine is superb. This Magazine is undoubtedly the queen of our monthlies, especially on such matters as relate to Dress and Home interests. Demorest also offers a premium, and sends post free, to each subscriber, the fine Parlor Chromo, "Isn't She Pretty," by Lily M. Spencer, the retail price of which is $8.00, thus giving $11.00 in value for only $3.00. Every family should avail themselves of this splendid offer. Address W. Jennings Demorest, 838 Broadway, N. Y.

TROTTING RACE.—The owners of the St. Lawrence Messenger have replied to the challenge from the owners of the Trip Patchen, accepting the challenge to trot a three mile heat for five hundred dollars, the race either to take place in Dorchester or on the race course in Baltimore. The trotting race will certainly take place unless the proprietors of the Trip Patchen back down.—Dem. & News.

SEALED PROPOSALS.—We learn that Messrs. Wm. S. Parsons, T. F. J. Rider and Dr. Briscoe, as building committee, will receive sealed proposals for the erection of a new Protestant Episcopal parsonage in this town until the 10th day of June next.—Salisbury E. Shoreman.

LAND SALE.—On Saturday last, Messrs Henry & Sulivane, Trustees, sold the Joseph Vickers land, situated near Federalsburg and containing about 510 acres, for the sum of $4,656.

REGATTA.—The gentlemen of Oxford Neck are making preparations for a fine time on the 4th of July. The feature of the day will be a regatta, open to all sailing vessels. An elegant dinner, and a liberal supply of seasonable refreshments, will be provided. Those wishing to spend a happy, pleasant and comfortable day, must make preparations to visit Oxford on the 4th.

Decision upon the Oyster Law entitling Persons to Locate Five Acres for Bedding Oysters.

Judge Stewart on Tuesday last heard the case of William Lambden and Robert Wilson, vs. Alexander A. Mitchell and others. No. 18, appeals.

The Defendants, seven in number, located and appropriated, thirty-five acres in Brannock's Bay, for the purpose of bedding oysters, and the petitioners allege in their petition, that the parts located are natural oyster beds, and is therefore in violation of the act of assembly, prohibiting the appropriation of natural oyster beds, and ask that the said locations be declared null and void. A great interest was manifested by citizens living along Brannock's Bay, and those engaged in the oyster, trade, and a large assemblage collected to hear the case. The array of witnesses was large on either side. Henry & Sulivane appeared for Petitioners, and C. F. Goldsborough for Defendants. At the trial, the locations made by three of the Defendants, were not contested. Judge Stewart gave judgment for the Petitioners, declaring the locations made to be natural oyster beds, and therefore null & void.—Dem. & News.

[From the London Era.]

Handenburgh & Co.'s Monster Menageries and Circuses.—There has been so much said of late about shows that we hardly know how to approach the subject again; but, as journalists, we must not pass by unnoticed unquestionably the largest and best show in the whole world. In making this rash assertion we are backed up by the whole press of the country, without a dissenting voice, where this Show has traveled, and it is conceded by professional showman (a great number of whom have recently visited our city), to be superior to any similar concern now traveling, and we are again convinced that it is the Show, from the liberal manner in which it is managed.

The list of animals embraces almost every kind known to naturalists. Birds and beasts in unlimited numbers and excellent varieties.

We take pleasure in commending this Show to the public, feeling satisfied that all who patronize it will be well entertained, highly edified, and, as it is probably the last of the season, no doubt our citizens and neighbors will bestow upon it a liberal patronage.

The advertisement appears on the page of our paper this morning, and it is attractive enough to call the attention of our readers without the usual "see advertisement," which we generally append to a notice of this kind.

We shall watch with considerable interest the sensation that the Consolidation will create when it comes to our city. It will, no doubt, draw the largest crowds of any Show of the season.

These Menageries will be found, in all respects, worthy of the attention of those who delight inspecting the various specimens of natural history, inasmuch as the number of their inmates and the extent of the variety of the species have never been equaled in this country by any organization ever fitted out. Messrs. Handenburg & Co. have invested some $150,000 in the enterprise, and claim to have "shows" which are gigantic, both in dimensions and attraction.

"Ah!" said a pious Sunday school teacher, "Caroline Jones, what do you think you would have been without your good father and mother?" "I suppose, mum,," said Caroline," I suppose as I should ha' been a horphan."

BUSINESS LOCALS.

TAKE NOTICE.—All who wish any painting done with neatness, despatch and upon most reasonable terms, that Mr. S. G. A. Burnett, painter, has returned from Phila., where he has been for a few weeks for the express purpose of learning the latest styles &c., and is prepared to give entire satisfaction in every branch of his business.—His performances in all parts of our town are standing testimonials of his skill.

Samuel B. Pennington can always be found early and late at his place of business on Poplar Street next door to Bramble's Hotel prepared to give satisfaction in every department of the tailoring business. No words of commendation are necessary to his old customers, and all he asks of others is that they will give him a trial.

PHOTOGRAPHIC GALLERY.—Mr. J. J. Pattison is at his old stand above the Post office prepared to execute faithful photographs &c, in the latest styles and upon the most reasonable terms. This is the best season of the year, when the sky is bright and the atmosphere is clear and pure, to obtain life-like picturs of those we love, and let everybody who loves anybody give him a call.

MESSRS, WM. C. LITTLETON & SON, are still on hand with a handsome stock of spring goods, and utterly defy any man to come to their shop and go away dissatisfied with either the quality of their goods or the excellence of their fit.

☞I. N. Elston, fashionable tailor, knows that nobody can go to his shop, be fitted with a suit of clothes and leave dissatisfied. Then, why not give him a trial?

HELMBOLD'S COLUMN.

TO PHYSICIANS.

NEW YORK, August 15th, 1868.
Allow me to call your attention to my

Preparation of Compound Extract Buchu.

The component parts are BUCHU, LONG LEAF, CUBEBS, JUNIPER BERRIES.

MODE OF PREPARATION.—Buchu, in vacuo. Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebs extracted by displacement with spirits obtained from Juniper Berries; very little sugar is used, and a small proportion of spirit. It is more palatable than any now in use.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and glutinous decoction. Mine is the color of ingredients. The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopœa, nor is it a Syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exist. In this, you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.

Hoping that you will favor it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation,

With a feeling of confidence,
I am, very respectfully,
H. T. HELMBOLD,
Chemist and Druggist, of 16 Years' Experience.

[From the Largest Manufacturing Chemist in the World.]

NOVEMBER 4, 1854.

"I am acquainted with Mr. H. T. HELMBOLD; he occupied the Drug Store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise."

Firm of Powers & Weightman,

Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu

Is the great specific for Universal Lassitude, Prostration, &c.

The constitution, once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity ensues.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract of Buchu,

In affections peculiar to Females, is unequalled by any other preparation, as in Chlorosis, or Retention, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus State of the Uterus, and all complaints incident to the sex, or the decline or change of life.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu and Improved Rose Wash

Will radically exterminate from the system diseases arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or exposure; completely superceding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiva and Mercury, in all these diseases.

Use Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu

In all diseases of these organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, "immediate" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.

Those suffering from broken-down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that, however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect the bodily health and mental powers.

All the above diseases require the aid of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic.

Sold by Druggists everywhere. PRICE —$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.
