LOCAL MATTERS.

WEDNESDAY, June 21, 1871.

The Mass Meeting on Monday.

The Conservative Democracy assembled in Cambridge on the 19th inst. and, on motion of Levi D. Travers Esq., organized by the election of Col. James Wallace as President, Hon Wm. T. Goldsborough and Jas. H. Woolford Esq. as Vice. Presidents, and Joseph H. Johnson Esq. and Clement Sulivane as Secretaries. Various gentlemen were then put in nomination as Delegates to the State Convention, and during the progress of the ballot the following resolutions were offered by Clement Sulivane Esq., and adopted.

Resolved by the Democracy of Dorchester in Mass Meeting assembled.

1st. That in accordance with ancient law and precedent the Eastern Shore is entitled to the next Governor of Maryland.

2nd. That the Hon. R. B. Carmichael is the choice of our County for that high and responsible office.

3rd. That the Delegates to the approaching State Convention to be selected this day, are requested to act as a unit to carry out the sense of this meeting as expressed in the foregoing resolutions and secure the just rights of the Eastern Shore.

After the polls were closed the ballots were counted, and the following gentlemen were found to have been selected as Delegates to attend the State Convention on 19th of July next, viz:

George J. Meekins, Wm. Holland, Sam. W. Woolford, Clement Sulivane.

Alternates Dr. Washington A. Smith Wm. T. Vickers, Charles Lake and Philip D. Laird. The meeting then adjourned.

The County Commissioners adjourned on Thursday last, after having completed all the preliminaries necessary to their levy for the year. It is not known as yet how much exactly the assessment will be, but there is reason to think that it will not much exceed, if at all, $1.00.

The amount levied for the Schools is $12.000, being $1000. more than the levy of last year.

The following appointments were made on the last day of their Session, of collectors in the several districts, viz:

District No. 1—Wm. H Brinsfield,
" " 2 & 12 Martin L. Smith,
" " 3 & 11 M. T. R. Fooks,
" " 4 Wm. J. Lambdin,
" " 5, 10 & 14 O. P. Gootee,
" " 6 L. T. Dunnock, Sr,
" " 7 & 13 Thos. H. Handy, Jr.
" " 8 Thos. C. Bennett,
" " 9 Wm. H. Willis.

Thos. J. Ellis, heretofore appointed Constable in Dist. No 1, vice James F. Wheatly resigned, bonded during the session of the Commissioners and has entered upon the duties of his office.

We are indebted for the information embodied above to the efficient and obliging Clerk of the Board, John M. Beckwith, Esq

PERSONAL.—We wish to take occasion to thank the public for the very liberal manner in which they have patronized our newspaper enterpise.

From every part of the County our subscription list has steadily increased, until to-day at the expiration of nine weeks after the first Edition of our paper it number 130 more names than when we first took pen in hand and "hoped that so long as this paper should truly advocate the best interests of Dorset, it would receive from its citizens a generous support."

Some of our friends, personal and political, yet hold aloof, but we trust it is from temporary causes, and when they as well as the public at large come to realize the fact that this is a living, established institution in Dorset, pushing ahead the interests and truly reflecting the sentiments of the people, that, then, they too will swell the list, so dear to our eyes, of those who approve our efforts and by substantial aid second them.

To the many friends who have so kindly assisted and encouraged me, I return the warmest and most grateful thanks.

In the shape of a supplement to the Chronicle we present this week to each one of our subscribers, a handsome engraving of Oak Hall, the place of business of the celebrated Clothing House of Wanamaker & Brown, Phil. In case the picture is rumpled or creased a flat iron applied will obviate the difficulty.

Col. Jas. R. Herbert, so well known as the Commander of the celebrated 2d Md. Regiment, Army of North Virginia, is a candidate for the Sheriffalty of Baltimore City.

☞ The season is approaching when city people are in the habit of flocking to places of summer resort, and we desire to call the attention of Baltimoreans especially to a few reasons why they should come to Cambridge.

It is conceded to be the handsomest town in the State, and is peculiarly blessed with what all city people most feel the need of, shade, grass, fruits, flowers and water facilities for all kinds of aquatic sports. We have ample Hotel accomodations, and at the cheapest rates, persons of moderate means can come over and spend a month here who cannot afford to go elswhere — And finally we have a pleasant, social population, always pleased to welcome the stranger. Come and see, and we think you will come again.

The Board of County Commissioners will meet on Tuesday next, the 27th inst. The Collectors appointed are expected to appear and bond.

J. M. BECKWITH.
June 21, 1871, Clerk.

We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Geo. R. Brown & Bro. in another column.—These popular and enterprising young men are rapidly rising in the the esteem and confidence of the community from the excellence of their work, and the fairness of their charges.

A few days ago a party of gentlemen from this place went over to Easton to spend the day on the steam tug attached to the Mud-Machine at work in our harbor. All had an unusally pleasant visit and speak in the highest terms of the obliging politeness of Capt. McCoy, commander of the Tug, and of the hospitable entertainment they received at the hands of Charles W. Bennet, Esq., of the Brick Hotel, Easton.

STRAWBERRIES.—Twenty-four car loads of strawberries, comprising 256,000 quarts of the fruit, weighing 250 tons, passed through Wilmington, Del, for the North, in a single day recently.

The excursion to Annapolis on Friday last was a great success. Quite a number of our people attended and all speak of their delightful visit to the Capital of the State.

Bayard Taylor, & several other distinguished men are expected at Cambridge to-day, on an excursion train.—They are "interviewing" the Eastern Shore.

WITHDRAWN.—The Baltimore papers of Thursday contain a letter from Hon. Rob't Fowler, announcing his withdrawal as a candidate for Governor.

A camp meeting will be held at Concord, in Caroline county, commencing on the 12th of August.
