LOCAL MATTERS.

WEDNESDAY, July 12, 1871.

THE CONCERT.—In accordance with the advertisement, Miss Von Busk, assisted by Miss Montague and Mr. Davis, and by Prof. Mittler on the piano, gave concerts at the Court House on Friday and Saturday evenings last, and as was anticipated from the high reputation of the performers, they proved the most remarkable musical exhibitions ever yet given in our town.

Miss Von Busk, a Baltimore lady, who has sung with unbounded applause upon the largest stages of Europe and America, more for recreation and from "freak" than anything else, determined to come down into the country for a few days, and most happily for those of us who attended, selected Cambridge and Easton. We feel a profound regret for all those of our people who have the slightest knowledge or appreciation of music, who failed to embrace this occasion which in all probability will not occur again in a lifetime.

We confess, that from the high reputation which preceded her, for the first few minutes after Miss Von Busk began we were disappointed in her performance, but presently, as if she had been merely "trying ground," her voice rose in power and thrilled with beauty through our fine Court room, until like the spell of a mighty orator she entranced all hearts and minds.—We can only say that it was a wonderful exhibition of the power of the human voice, given by genius and cultivated by art, especially in one so young, and we predict for her a great and lasting reputation in the musical world.

In very marked contrast to the clear, birdlike soprano of Miss Von Busk, was the soft, sweet contralto voice of Miss Montague. Its melody mingled with the air, it penetrated the senses and ransacked every corner of the heart. We are informed by one of the party that she intends visiting Europe this Fall to put herself under the training of a celebrated master, and the most brilliant hopes for her future are entertained by the musical artists of Baltimore.

Mr. Davis is so well known as the possessor of the finest basso voice of Baltimore City, that it is almost unnecessary to speak of his performances. He ably sustained the splendid voices of the ladies on this occasion, but without wishing to give offence, we take the liberty of giving him a piece of advice—that is, to sing no comic songs—he belongs to a high art-style and the comic is beneath and unsuited to him.

Of Piano music we know but little, but those who do, pronounce Prof. Mittler's execution to be superb, and we do know that such sweet sounds came from his piano on this occasion as we have seldom or never heard in our life. We were entirely agreed with a friend present, who remarked, as we left together, that "a mocking bird was a fool to that Miss Busk" and "that pianer could make more music in a minute than all the tooting things he ever saw, in a month."

The "pianer" was certainly a magnificent one, and, we are told, one of the very best from the celebrated manufactory of Wm. Knabe & Co, Baltimore City.

THE 4TH AT OXFORD.—Several Excursion parties left our town for Oxford on the 4th inst to attend the regatta.

Amongst others, J. W. Crowell, Esq., fitted up a large scow in the most comfortable manner, and having secured the Tug for the day, carried a large party of ladies and gentlemen down the river.

An immense crowd was assembled at Oxford from all parts of Talbot, Caroline and Dorset. Cannon fired, drums beat, soldiers marched, old ladies ate, young ladies flirted, men did a little of everything, and in short all the usual pastimes of the 4th were perseveringly gone through with. But few boats were entered for the race, and to tell truth the great majority of the visitors seemed much more intent upon enjoying themselves on shore than watching the performances of the boats on the water.

Nothing occurred to mar the festivities of the day, and the throng of visitors seemed much pleased both with Oxford and its people. At a late hour of the afternoon, the crowd separated for their several homes, and through a drenching rain the most of our Cambridge people got safely back by seven o'clock. The stragglers came along in during the night, in more or less good condition.

RECOMMENDATION.—Among our exchanges, we have been receiving of late the Boston Weekly Sun, and we recommend it to our readers as one of the best and liveliest papers in America. Its price is but $1. per annum, and it is especially commendable on account of its sterling Democracy in the heart of Massachusetts. The funniest and spiciest reading of the week, we get from the Boston Sun.

Jefferson Davis and Gen. Grant in no way resemble each other. Mr. Davis "accepts nothing." Grant everything.

GUBERNATORIAL.—In the last issue of the Denton Journal appear two articles, one editorial and the other communicated, which command our entire assent as we think they must do that of every reasonable and candid man on the Shore.

In language eminently proper, and in the most unexceptionable manner, the claims of Judge Carmichael upon the party and State are advanced, and for the sake of presenting ourselves with dignity and effect in the State Convention, it is urged that the manifestly weaker candidate from this Shore shall withdraw his name for the sake of unity, and thus endear himself to the people of the Eastern Shore by his acquiescence in their wishes and appreciation of their interests.

SAMUEL BUCK, who died recently near Conneaut, Ohio, was a very eccentric character. He seems to have had a strange predilection to ape the manners and character of the opposite sex. He has lived alone for many years, and performed with equal facility the duties of housewife and farmer. In the morning he would don woman's attire, which became his delicate person well, prepare breakfast, eat, and having put the house in order, would unpin his chignon, exchange his hoop-skirts for trowsers, and go out to plow or chop wood, as the case might be, till noon, when he would appear again in the role of a lady cook.

THE DEMOCRATIC JOURNALS are using their best efforts to prevent the re-nomination of President Grant for another term. We presume they are sincere in their efforts to gain a victory for their party, but we think their action in pursuing the above policy is calculated to ensure defeat. Advocate, by all means, the name of Grant for next President. Hoist it in the most prominent positions of your paper, clamor incessantly for it, and if the Republican party is insane enough to adopt your advice, why, get ready your cannon, that's all. The Democrats will want them for a thundering salute.—Boston Sun.

DEGRADING THE AMERICAN FLAG.—A Mr. Matthison, who had written a song, which is to be sung to day as a part of the celebration in New York, writes to the Herald of that city, in an agony of mind, to say that its printers have made him "and the glittering stars types of surrenders to come," whereas he had written "splendors to come." This looks as though the Herald's printer had made his little joke at Mr. Matthison's expense, and made some quiet fun of his poem, "The Flag of Welcome."

THE FIFTH REGIMENT.—The Fifth (Md.) Regiment returned to Baltimore on the 5th inst, after an encampment of four days at Frederick. On the last evening of their stay, a young man by the name of Stewart, lately from Brooklyn N. Y., a member of Co. C., was killed by the bursting of a cannon which he was engaged in firing.

Willie, son of L. H. C. Davis, near Preston, met with quite a serious accident one day last week, by falling from a wheat thresher and having one of the wheels pass across his leg just above the knee. A piece of the flesh was cut entirely out to the bone and the little fellow has been suffering much pain, though he is doing well now.—Preston Surprise.

THE MOONLY VOICE.—No 5 of this most extraordinary paper is before us, and like its previous numbers continues to agitate the Literary World.—Its Editor informs us in his last issue, that his subscription list increases at not less than the rate of one subscriber per moon.

POSTPONED.—The Masonic excursion from Easton and Cambridge to Baltimore which was to have come off on the 19th July, has been postponed to the 26th of September next.

ANNE ARUNDEL.—Dr George Wells, Frank Tucker, Dr Henkle, and Frank A. Bond have been chosen delegates from this County to the convention on the 19th. They are instructed in favor of Mr. Whyte.

WICOMICO.—Gen. Humphreys, K. V. White and B. P. Darby have been chosen Delegates by the Wicomico Democracy to represent them in the State Convention.

Peaches are being shipped in considerable quantities over the D. & D. Rail Road. Their market price $3 per box.

Fred. Lawrence the murderer will be hanged in Easton on Friday next, the 14th inst.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

Tilghman Hackett and Caroline Hackett his wife, vs Edward Adams and wife, Isaac W. Lowe and wife, Henry Adams and wife, John Willoughby and wife, Minos Adams and wife, Wm. Henry Charles and wife, William Adams and wife, Abijah Johnson and wife, Adam Haines and wife, John Sinclinger & wife & Elisha Wright.

In Equity in the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, State of Maryland.

No. 742 Chancery.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for a sale of certain real estate situated in the 4th Election District of Caroline County in said State which in his lifetime Minos Adams late of Dorchester County, deceased, purchased from Jeremiah Cannon and wife, and of which he died seized. The Bill states that sometime in the Month of December, A. D. 1869, the said Minos Adams departed this life seized of said real estate having first duly executed his last will and testament and a Codicil thereto, in and by which he disposed of all his estate excepting that he simply excluded his son Edward Adams, in consideration of other property devised to him, from all share in the real estate mentioned above, and left the same undisposed of to descend to his other heirs at law. It further states that he left the following children, viz: Caroline Hackett, wife of Tilghman Hackett; Edward Adams; Nancy Lowe, wife of Isaac W. Lowe; Henry Adams; Harriet Willoughby, wife of Jno. Willoughby; Minos Adams; Charlotte Charles, wife of Wm. Henry Charles; and William Adams, his children; and Sarah Johnson, wife of Abijah Johnson; Anne Haines, wife of Adam Haines; Maria Sinclinger, wife of John Sinclinger; & Elisha Wright, the children of his deceased daughter Celia, his grand children; and that the said children and grand children are his only heirs at law. The Bill also states that the said heirs of Minos Adams are scattered throughout the United States, that they cannot agree upon a partition and no arrangement can be made between them for a sale of said real estate, and that it would be greatly for the advantage of all parties concerned that the same should be sold by the Court and the proceeds divided among the said heirs in the proportions to which they are respectively entitled. The Bill further alleges that Henry Adams and wife, John Sinclinger and wife, Minos Adams and wife, William Adams and wife, Abijah Johnson and wife, Adam Haines and wife, and Elisha Wright are non-residents of the State of Maryland, and after praying for Subpœnas against the residents of said State, prays for an order of publication against the said non-residents warning them to appear in this Court at or before some certain day to show cause, if any they have, why a decree should not be passed for a sale of said real estate for the purpose of division as aforesaid.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the Complainants by causing a Copy of this Order to be inserted in some Newspaper published at Cambridge, Dorchester County, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 10th day of August, A. D. 1871, give notice to the said non-resident defendants of the object and substance of this bill; and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor, on or before Monday the 13th day of November, A. D. 1871, to answer the premises and show Cause, if any they or any of them have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed Attractive Building Lot for Sale.

THE Lot on the corner of Academy and Muir Streets in the town of Cambridge, containing about two acres and a half of ground.
This particular Lot is one of the most desirable locations in Cambridge. It is situated in the heart of the town and while from the excellence of its soil it grows fine crops of vegetables, &c., it offers a handsome site for a residence, and on account of the now constant advance of Cambridge, in material prosperity, must necessarily enhance in value. For terms apply at this office. [april 26, 1871.
