LOCAL MATTERS.

WEDNESDAY, July 19, 1871.

The Rev. Wm. Munsey lectured at the Court House to a large and pleased audience on Thursday evening last.

Fred. Lawrence, was hung at Easton on Friday last in the presence of about 3000 spectators.

The Denton Journal says there was a general mass in Greensboro' on Saturday night, resulting in a cut head and a split nose.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—During the storm on Tuesday last, three barns in Caroline Co., belonging respectively to N. Fitzgeral, Esma Lowe, and Curtis Morris, were struck by lightning and destroyed with all their contents.

DULUTH.—A tidal wave from Lake Superior swept through Duluth last Wednesday.

Dr. D'Unger has at last made good his promise and issued a "live" daily paper in that celebrated young city.

We again call the attention of all lovers of art to the advertisement of "The Burial of Latane" in another column. This fine engraving is on exhibition in the law office of Henry & Sulivane.

SUPER-PHOSPHATE.—Now is the time for farmers to turn their attention to procuring fertilizers for their next crops, and J. S. Simmons Esq., of Cambridge, is the agent for the sale of Bowen & Mercer's celebrated preparation of Phosphates, Ground Bone &c. If gentlemen understand their true interests, they will not fail to give Mr. Simmons a call. See advertisement on this page,

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday the 4th inst, a colored man by the name of Isaiah Stanely was instantly killed in a most singular manner. While he was engaged in threshing wheat on the farm of Mr. Conden near Indian Bone, a pitch fork caught by the band of the machine was thrown with great force against him, one prong penetrating the skull and almost causing instant death. Dr. Chubb was sent for, but nothing, of course, could be done for the unfortunate man.

THE LIBRARY.—Dr. J. N Baird has, with the most liberal and commendable public spirit, offered the use of his office on Race Street for a library room, and also his services as Librarian, both free of charge.

This sum $150, per annum, and there is now nothing in the way of making the movement a success. We publish in another column a communication from one of the most intelligent ladies of our place in regard to this subject.

Lord Brougham never went but once to the House of Commons after he was raised to the Peerage, and that was only a few years before he died. Leaning on the arm of a friend, the old athlete stood just within the door, and for a moment gazed on the stiring scene. The tears welled up in his eyes, and he murmured to his friend with deep emotion, "Take me away! take me away! There is not a face here that I can recognize." And he moved slowly away, murmuring as he went "Dead! dead! All gone."

THE RIOT IN NEW YORK CITY.—The bloody riot in the city of New York on the occasion of the celebration of the 12th of July by the Orange Societies, is still the chief theme of discussion among the newspapers. Between 30 and 40 persons were killed outright, and 175 wounded, many of them mortally. Many Democratic papers seem to regard it as the result of Radical machinations, the unprincipled leaders of that party having stirred up the passions of the brutal Catholic mob in New York to acts of outrage, to give them a pretext for getting up another anti-catholic crusade in the country. Being evidently beaten on the issues of the day, they hope to draw away the attention of the people from practical questions and stir up the old Know-Nothing prejudices of 1855. Some froce is given to this view from the fact that they have diligently circulated a paper for names to a Protestant League," and many thousands of persons have already signed it in New York city.

☞ Those who saw Miss Louisa Bliss, the tight rope walker, ascend to the tent at the circus which exhibited here in May last, will regret to hear that she recently fell during an exhibition at Salem, N. J., from the effects of which she has since died.

THE BALTIMORE POISONING CASE.—Among other Yankee satraps who were inflicted upon our Country during the war, many of our readers will remember a Col. H. W. Wharton who with his wife, Mrs. E. G. Wharton, & family, resided for some time in Cambridge. He was noted for his fine personal appearance and for being something more of a gentleman than most of his class.

He and his son died very suddenly some years ago, and by their deaths Mrs. E. G. Wharton, the Widow, came into possession of a large sum of money. A nephew & cousin of Col. Wharton also died at her residence in the most unaccountable manner, and their deaths also were the cause of considerable emolument to Mrs. Wharton.

A week or two since a Mr. Van Ness and Gen. Ketchum of the U. S. Army, were poisoned at her residence in Hamilton Place, Baltimore, of whom the latter is dead, and Mr. Van Ness is in a most critical condition. Pecuniary advantage to Mrs. W. to result from the death of these parties is also pointed out by the papers.

The suspicious death of Gen. Ketchum lead to a post mortem examination of his body, when traces of poison were found. Mrs. Wharton has been arrested upon the eve of departure for Europe, and is held in custody to await the action of the Grand Jury. The last poper states that she says "she did not do it," and insists on "their letting her alone and letting her go on her way to Europe."

EXTRAORDINARY OFFER.—The enterprising publishers of the AMERICAN STOCK JOURNAL offer to send the whole twelve numbers for this year, and $3,-00 worth of books, all for the regular subscription to the Journal, which is $1.00 a year. All our farmers and stock raisers should take advantage of this liberal offer, as the Journal is worth many times the money, besides getting four valuable Manuals devoted to stock raising, the price of which is 25 cts. each. Specimen copies of the Journal will be sent FREE to all by applying to the Publishers, N. P. BOYER & Co., Parkersburg, Pa.

The Tribune reports from Washington that Senator SCHURZ has written a letter in which he strongly expresses himself in favor of CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS for Vice-President in 1872.—This is interesting; but it would be still more interesting to know on what ticket Mr. SCHURZ proposes to run Mr. ADAMS, and who is his candicate for the Presidency

A man in Boston last week buried his sixth wife. When the following day he called upon the preacher, he offered him three dollars for his trouble. The minister, however, declined to take it, saying he was not accustomed to accept pay for such services; to which the bereaved husband, returning the greenbacks to his pocket, replied, "Just as you say; but that's what I've been in the habit of paying!"

The question, does getting drunk ever advance one's happiness? would seem to put to rest by the Irishman who went courting a lady drunk and was asked what pleasure he found in whiskey. "Och Biddy' it's a trate intirely, to see two of your swate purty faces instead of one."

☞ "Did you know," said a cunning Gentle to a Jew, "that they hang Jews and jackasses together in Portland?" "Indeed!" retorted Solomon, "den it ish vell dat you and I ish not dere."

—Why is a woman tying her corset like a man drinking to drown care? Because in so-lacing herself she becomes tight.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

Who is there so poor that he does not wear clothing? Who is there so devoid of taste that he does not wish good clothes, when he purchases? Then call at the shop of Wm C. Littleton & Son and get yourself fitted up in handsome style, for in make, material and all that goes to make up a first class suit of clothing they yield to none.

What is the use of wearing ill made clothes when you can get yourself up in elegant trim by calling at I N. Elston's on High Street and leting him take your measure? all who have been there say he can do it.

Mr. Elston, has for years been known as one of the best "fitters" ever engaged in the tailoring business in our town and guarantees satisfaction.

There may be those who think that because Mr. Samuel R. Pennington has had of late an unusually heavy press of business, he will not have the time to attend promptly to orders, but this is not the case. That enterprising and popular Tailor has largely increased his force, and is still prepared, as heretofore, to execute all work entrusted to him with neatness and despatch. All he wants is a trial.

Let all persons who desire an excellent photograph call on J. J. Pattison over the Post office. The Editor can vouch for the excellence of his work for he has given him a trial. That is all Mr. P. asks of any one.
