LOCAL & PERSONAL.

WEDNESDAY,......Dec. 20, 1871.

THE Prince of Wales is slowly convalescing.

SNOW.—There was a fall of snow about the depth of four inches in our county on Friday last.

CHRISTMAS EDITION.—We will issue an extra edition of the Chronicle to be mailed on Friday next as a Christmas Gift to our subscribers. The paper will come out as usual on the 27th inst.

PROF. JOHN G. ROBINSON.—This gentleman, formerly a citizen of Cambridge and more recently of Baltimore city, is giving a series of Concerts in the upper part of the Eastern Shore.

A GOOD YEAR.—There are five months in this year having five Sundays each, a thing which does not occur oftener than once in fifty years.

OYSTER HOUSE.—The Oyster packing establishment on the wharf has been rented by Robert C. Tubman Esq., and that gentleman is vigorously engaged in prosecuting the business.

DEPUTY SHERIFFS.—Sheriff Dashiell has appointed Wm. H. Davidson, J. Spry Jones and Levin T. Dunnock Jr., as deputies for the ensuing year. Mr. Davidson will take charge of the jail.

TWEED ARRESTED.—On Saturday last Wm. M. Tweed, the chief of the New York "Ring," was arrested under an indictment for felony and committed to the Tombs. He was subsequently bailed out in the sum of $5000.

MISSING.—Granville Anderson, son of Mr. Isaac Anderson of Wicomico Co., disappeared in Baltimore city on the 4th inst., and despite the most vigerous efforts of the police he has not yet been found. Foul play is suspected.

CONVICTED.—Thomas I. Goodrich, indicted for the murder of C. Troutfelter last summer, has been found guilty of murder in the second degree. He was ably defended by the Hon. Wm. Pinkney Whyte, and Elias Griswold Esq., formerly of our town.

MRS. WHARTON.—The State has not yet concluded its evidence in this case, a great deal of time being consumed in argument upon the admissibility of testimony. It is thought that the trial will last two weeks longer.

RAIL ROAD WHARF GRANARY.—The large and commodious granary of Messrs. Anderson & Meredith now in process of erection at the rail road wharf is being steadily pushed forward, and we hope soon to be able to chronicle the completion of so desirable a work for the public convenience.

INQUIRY?—There is no little talk in our town in regard to the town levies for taxes. It is rumored that there is a large amount of the tax imposed by former levies still uncollected, yet a fresh tax is imposed which practically makes those who have settled promptly pay double taxes. How is this?

THE ATTORNEY GENERALSHIP.—On Wednesday the 14th inst., Attorney General Akerman resigned his position in the cabinet of Gen. Grant and on the following day the Hon. George H. Williams of Oregon was nominated to the Senate in his place and the nomination confirmed. The new incumbent is highly spoken of.

SENATOR VANCE.—The democratic Senators have united in a letter to Senator elect Vance, of North Carolina, asking him to withdraw his claims on the ground that there is no probability that he will be admitted, and therefore he ought to give the North Carolina Legislature an opportunity to send a man in his place who will be admitted.

CELESTIAL.—The planet Venus, now the morning star, is unusually brilliant at this time. Preceding the dawn by a few hours, she sheds a light almost equal to the crescent moon, and lends additional glory to the morning.—Hagerstown Free Press.

Query? Our contemporary not being an astronomer, how did he discover the above beauties? Fie!

"One Excitement treads on the Heel of Another."

Scarcely has New York cooled off about the arrival of the Russian Prince, when another arrival sets Cambridge all ablaze, for B. Hainebach has just come back with a new lot of cheap and fashionable Overcoats, Winter suits for Men and Boys, also of Gents Furnishing Goods. Come and look at his latest Styles of Hats, such as the Vanderbilt, Elite, and Duke Alexis.

"Goods always sold at city prices."

MARYLAND STEAMBOAT COMPANY.—The steamer "Champion," will discontinue her trips to the Eastern Shore, for the season, after WEDNESDAY, December 20th, 1871. The Steamer "Highland Light" will discontinue her trips above Lloyd's Landing, after this date, and will leave Lloyd's Landing, on her return trips, at 12.30 P. M., Mondays, Wednesdays & Fridays.

OUR RAIL ROAD.—We publish today the report of the President & Directors of the D. & D. R. R. Co., for the financial year just past, made on Wednesday the 13th inst., & all friends of the road will be more than pleased with the very gratifying exhibit made therein. In its early infancy it is more than paying its running expenses, and during the coming year the prospect is flattering that its increased business will enable it to reduce the outstanding indebtedness, a smaller indebtedness, by the way, than that of any other Rail Road on this Shore.—On the same day the annual election of officers took place and resulted in the retention of the present management by a great majority.

THE FORCE BILL IN MARYLAND.—On the 13th inst., Messrs Chas. B. Brewer, John F. Elliott, Richard Wells, Phillip C. Clayton and Edward Baldwin, Judges of election in Annapolis, were arrested by the United States Marshall on charges of not receiving the votes of persons on affidavits who were not registered. They were all, with the exception of Richard Wells who was not even present at the time of his alleged offence and whose case is held under advisement, placed under bail of $500, each for appearance at Court. These were writs for the apprehension of Judges Taylor and Johnson but they being members of the Wharton jury were not disturbed.

George W. Murdock, city Register, was also arrested and put under $1000 bail, charged with striking off legal voters from the list. The several charges were prefered by Nicholas Brewer, Esq., U. S. Commissioner.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

Be wise in time & stop at Wilson's.

HAVING repaired, painted and papered my HOTEL, and erected a new stable and carriage house, sufficient to accommodate one hundred horses and carriages, I believe that I can give the public as good accommodation, at less price, than any other Hotel in Cambridge. The low price of all produce raised by the farmers, and dullness of the times, will induce me, on and after November 1st, to reduce the charges at my Hotel to the following rates:

Board per day, . . .	90 cts.
Meals, ...	40 "
Lodgings, ...	25 "
Horse feed, (full feed) .	35 "

The long standing reputation of this house is a sufficient guarantee that all who favor me with their patronage will be satisfactorily entertained. Polite and attentive servants always in attendance on my guests.

The public's obedient servant,
nov1-2t S. T. WILSON.

William C. Littleton and Son have on exhibition at their place of business on High Street a new and very handsome assortment of Fall and Winter goods for men and boys, and are prepared as ever to cut out and make the same into wearing apparel in the most stylish manner and on reasonable terms. Who wants a suit of good clothing, made up in the latest style, with expedition, and at as cheap rates as can be found in Dorchester County? Who wants any repairing, scouring &c, done cheaply and at once? He has only to call on SAM. R. PENNINGTON at his place of business on Poplar St., and his wishes will receive immediate attention.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps.

Messrs. Lynch & Gomien! Gentlemen!

I am very much pleased with the Piano you made for me. It is really a fine instrument in every respect, and is admired by all who have seen and heard it, for its fine tone, delicacy of touch and beauty of finish. Many good musicians and distinguished persons have called since it has been in our parlor and all pronounce it a fine instrument. We ourselves are charmed with it.
