LOCAL & PERSONAL.

WEDNESDAY,.....April 24, 1872.

☞Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

Monday was quite a lively day.

THE oyster season will soon close.

THE croquet season has opened.

SHREWD business men never forget to advertise.

Swiss Bell Ringers this evening at Hayward Hall.

THE fence around the Spring Hill has been white-washed.

EASTON has nearly completed its telegraph line.

ONE thousand shad were shipped from here on Saturday last.

DENTON was the scene of a disgraceful riot on Saturday night week.

CAMBRIDGE stands ready to receive excursions from all parts of the country.

VIENNA.—We read in the Clipper that Vienna is ahead of Cambridge on the "big fish" question, a rock weighing 66 pounds having been brought there and sold for $2.50.

PUBLIC MEETING.—All those interested in the successful completion of the Cambridge Telegraph Line, are requested to appear at HAYWARD HALL, on Friday evening, the 26th inst., at 7½ o'clock, P. M.

SALE OF TOWN PROPERTY.—Thomas C. Bennett Esq., of the Neck has purchased the Dwelling, Store House and stock in trade of Mr. Wm. H. Reese, on Race Street for the sum of $3009.

☞Do you want anything in the lumber line? And do you want it good and cheap? Then go to the establishment of Wm Henry Shryock & Co., and you are certain to be satisfied. See advertising columns.

STRAWBERRIES.—Georgetown, Del., has 50 acres set in Strawberries immediately around the town. When Dr. Thomas has paid for the valuable lot on Mill street in two seasons from the culture of vegetables, our people will wake up too in this matter.

NECK DISTRICT.—Miller R. Creighton has withdrawn from the partnership heretofore existing between him and Samuel Corner Esq., and Mr. Wm. H. Travers together with Mr. Corner will carry on the business at the same stand.

☞We learn that Mr. Gordy of the 1st election district of this county, has been appointed School Visitor of that district, in place of Geo. E. C. Bell Esq., who by reason of business engagements is—much to his regret—compelled to decline.

A NEW VERSION.—How Ham got black is a question that has puzzled the religious, historical and scientific world for many centuries. An intelligent German of this town is persuaded that the truth is he was smoked—and over smoked at that.

☞As the Spring approaches you all wish new and suitable clothing.—Then call at Mr. Pennington's on Poplar Street, who will "put you up" as nice a piece of work both as to fashion and cut as the most fastidious could desire.

A gentleman of color entered our office on Saturday last, and asked the following question: You ain't got no sweet cakes is you? We told him that we were entirely out at present, but would have a fresh supply by the first of the week.

☞Messrs. Wm. C. Littleton & Son have returned with an unusually handsome supply of Spring goods even for them and more especially their casimers for boys use exceed anything ever brought to the town both for variety and cheapness. Call and see.

TOWN IMPROVEMENTS.—The county is doing its part so well by its town property that we ought to help ourselves. Why not now carry out the long cherished project of putting a bell in the Court House tower and a clock to toll it? Its advantages would be like the articles at a vendue "too numerous to mention."

☞One of the most intelligent gentlemen in the lower part of the county suggests the Cain Wingate farm as the best terminus for the extension of the D. & D. Railroad. It is proposed to get up a big meeting in Lake's sometime in May to talk over the whole matter and exchange views. The project must not be allowed to slumber. It is of too much importance.

HOTEL CHANGE.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that our fellow townsman Vernon C. Rea, has taken in charge the Bramble House and will conduct it hereafter. The good qualities of our new landlord are so well known that it would be superfluous to recommend to him a continuation of the patronage so liberally bestowed in the past on this popular hotel.

A GOOD THING.—With that enthusiasm for uniting the useful and the ornamental which so eminently distinguishes him, our fellow citizen Mr. Byrn, President of the D. & D. R. R Co., was found on Tuesday last busily engaged in setting out shade trees around the depot grounds at East New Market, not a little to the amusement and admiration of strangers on the train when they ascertained who it was so industriously occupied.

POLITICAL.—We hear through the Balt. papers that on the 16th inst., the republicans held a meeting in Cambridge at which the following delegates were elected to represent Dorchester in the State Convention. J. Francis Elliott, Phillip J. Lecompte, Daniel T. Orem, and Stephen Camper (col.)

We were in town all that day and neither saw or heard of any meeting, or we should have announced it in last weeks issue. The information is correct for all that.

CIRCUIT COURT.—On Monday the April Term of the Circuit Court was called at 10 o'clock A. M., and the Grand Jury was sworn and charged by his Honor, Judge Stewart. Capt. Thomas B. Sherman was appointed foreman of the Jury. The docket was called over, and the case of the State of Maryland vs Samuel Gambrill was tried, resulting in the conviction of the defendant and his being fined $2 and costs, charged with assault on Samuel D. Garrett.

CATASTROPHE.—On Saturday last occurred an incident that nearly brought to grief several of our Cambridge dignitaries and did get the better of the conservator of our morals. The question was how best to clean out the drain connecting the spring and the reservoir in our beautiful valley, and with that sagacity that so pre-eminently distinguishes him, our worthy bailiff hit upon a plan which while attended with the most brilliant results in itself, made of him a victim. To avoid the expense and labor of digging up the whole drain he succeeded in passing a rope through it with a drag at the end, and then called on the register of wills, the captain of the Burlin Hall and others, to assist him in carrying out the enterpise. So they pulled at the rope with the energy that characterizes Cambridge citizens in a spasmodic and occasional effort, and had almost accomplished their purpose, when some obstruction suddenly gave way and the whole party tumbled over. Unluckily for the bailiff he was at the end of the rope, and more unluckily still the reservoir was just at his back. The consequence was that while the rest escaped with a fall, he was ducked head and ears in the green waters of the froggy pool, and has no consolation but in the reflection that he has performed his duty and in the grateful regard of his fellow citizens.

ROUGHLY POINTED.—Mr. Duke, of Virginia, in a speech in the house of representative, on Saturday, in eulogy of the Virginia judiciary, which had been assailed by Mr. Platt, said: "I might as well talk about defending a lion of the forest from the attacks of a chinch bug as to talk about defending the judiciary of Virginia from the assaults of my colleague."

☞A man from San Francisco who had not heard of the Chicago fire, arrived there last week. After looking at the ruin he turned to a stranger and asked: "How long did the earthquake last, old sport?"

☞"If you don't give me a dime," said a young hopeful to his mamma, "I know a boy who has got the measles, and I'll go and catch them."

Special Notice.

All persons indebted on account of town taxes are hereby requested to come forward and settle up. Otherwise, at the expiration of the notices that have been served, each and all will be advertised and I shall proceed to collect according to law.

WM. A. COOK, Bailiff.

BUSINESS LOACLS.

NOTICE EXTRAORDINARY.—Wm. C Littleton & Son are selling off their Fall and Winter stock of goods at prices astonishingly low, in order to prepare for the Spring season. Now is the time for prudent men to make a good bargain. Call and see.

Who wants a suit of good clothing, made up in the latest style, with expedition, and at as cheap rates as can be found in Dorchester County? Who wants any repairing, scouring &c, done cheaply and at once? He has only to call on SAM. R. PENNINGTON at his place of business on Poplar St., and his wishes will receive immediate attention.

If you want a suit of well made clothing, or wish any repairing or scouring done in the clothing line, call on I. N. Elston, High St. Cambridge.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

COOPER'S
LEATHER-STOCKING NOVELS

"The enduring monuments of FENIMORE COOPER are his works. While the love of country continues to prevail, his memory will exist in the hearts of the people. So truly patriotic and American throughout, they should find a place in every American's library."——Daniel Webster.

A NEW AND
Splendidly-Illustrated Popular Edition of FENIMORE COOPER'S WORLD-FAMOUS
LEATHER-STOCKING ROMANCES.

D. APPLETON & CO., announce that they have commenced the publication of J. Fenimore Cooper's Novels, in a form designed for general popular circulation. The series will begin with the famous "Leather-Stocking Tales," five in number, which will be published in the following order, at intervals of about a month:

I. THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS.
II THE DEERSLAYER IV THE PIONEERS.
III. THE PATHFINDER. V. THE PRAIRIE.

This edition of the "Leather-Stocking Tales" will be printed in handsome octavo volumes, from new stereotype plates.—Each volume superbly and fully illustrated with entirely new designs by the distinguished artist F. O. C. Darley, and bound in an attractive paper cover. Price, Seventy-five Cents per Volume, or $3.75 for the complete set. The series, when completed, will make, bound, an elegant library volume, for which binding-cases will be furnished at a moderate price.

PREMIUMS AND CLUB TERMS.

These club terms are designed specially for towns where there are no local booksellers.

Any person sending us the amount in advance for the complete set of the "Leather-Stocking Series," $3.75, will receive gratuitously a handsome steel-engraved portrait of J. Fenimore Cooper, of size suitable for binding in the volume. Any one sending us the amount in full for four complete sets of this series ($15), will receive an extra set gratuitously, each set accompanied by the steel portrait of Cooper. The volumes of the series will be mailed to each subscriber, post-paid, as rapidly as published, and the portrait immediately on the receipt of the remittance.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

Thomas W. Anderson, vs William G. Lecompte, admr. of James A. Byus, deceased, Augustus A. Pattison & Laura Pattison, his wife, Joseph E. Byus, Rose Byus, James T. Byus, Kennerly T. Byus and Wilhelmina Byus. } In Equity in the Circuit Court for Dorchester county. No. 762 Chancery. March 27, 1872.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for a sale of certain real estate situated in the 7th. Election District of Dorchester County on the County road leading from Cambridge to Cornersville, adjoining the home farms of John R. Creighton and William G. LeCompte, and of which James A. Byus, died seized.

The bill states that in the month of January, A. D. 1872, the said James A. Byus departed this life siezed and possessed of a large real and personal estate, and indebted unto the Complainant and divers other persons in considerable sums of money. That he died intestate, leaving Laura, wife of Augustus A. Pattion, Joseph E. Byus, Rose Byus, James T. Byus, Kennerly T. Byus and Wilhelmina Byus his only children and heirs at law. That letters of administration were granted unto William G. LeCompte of said county by the Orphans Court of the county of Dorchester aforesaid, who by virtue thereof possessed himself of the said personal estate, but that the same is insufficient to discharge all the debts due and owing by the said decedent, and the deficiency ought to be supplied by a sale of the said real estate; that the said Rose, James T., Kennerly T. and Wilhelmina Byus are infants, under the age of 21 years and that the said Joseph E. Byus is a non-resident of Maryland.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the Complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published at Cambridge in said county once in each of four successive weeks before the 27th day of May, A. D. 1872, give notice to the said Joseph E. Byus of the object and substance of this bill; and warn him to appear in this Court in person, or by solicitor on or before the 11th day of November A. D. 1872 to answer the premises and show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

MANHOOD:
HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED,

JUST published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of certain weaknesses, the effects of Errors and Abuses in early life.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of such errors and abuses may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, & effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

UNITED STATES HOTEL,
COR. FULTON, WATER AND PEARL STS., N. Y.

THIS well known favorite hotel has recently been renovated, remodeled and furnished new and elegantly throughout. It is kept on the European plan, and has ample accommodations for four hundred guests.

The location is more accessible to all parts of New York and Brooklyn than any other house in the city. The Broadway Stages pass the hotel every three minutes, besides various lines of Street Cars, one of which intersects every other route in New York.

It being but two blocks from Fulton Ferry, makes it convenient for those wishing to visit the "City of Churches," as from this ferry diverge all the principal Railroad routes in the city of Brooklyn.
