LOCAL & PERSONAL.

WEDNESDAY,.....May 1, 1872.

☞Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

News items are scarce.

Soft crabs will come next.

Subscribe for the Chronicle.

A good rain is badly needed.

Asparagus is quite plentiful.

The weather is very warm.

Dolly Varden suits are all the rage.

Ice-cream saloons will soon be open.

Read the advertisements in to-day's paper.

The business on the Dorchester and Delaware Railroad daily increases.

The Grand Jury adjourned on Saturday after having found 21 presentments.

Good Opening.—Denton is without a tailor. [If Mr. Darwin be correct, a frightful calamity in case of accident.]

Just as we go to press we hear with deep regret of the death of Josias S. Simmons, one of the most valued citizens of our town.

Wheat is badly injured in the lower sections of the county by the lateness of Spring and the land everywhere is thirsting for a warm, gentle southern rain.

☞We publish Mr. Hurley's letter (only suppressing a paragraph or two), albeit we are the loser thereby. "The columns of the Chronicle are free as air to any man on any subject," was our answer to a friend who wished to know why in the world we published a direct attack on ourself last month.

☞We very greatly regret to learn through the Elkton Whig that our highly esteemed friend, Mr. Cruikshank of the Elkton Democrat, is about to leave us and undertake the conduct of the Daily Gazette of Wilmington. Mr. C. is an honor to the editorial profession in Maryland and we are most sorry to lose him.

☞Leavitt's Swiss Bell Ringers performed in our town on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week and we do them simple justice in expressing the sense of our community that they gave us the best "show" that in time out of mind we have had in Cambridge. We most cordially commend them to those places upon their programme yet unvisited.

Oyster Police Force.—Capt. Timmons, the newly appointed commander of the Oyster Police Force, gave bond before his Honor Judge Franklin, last week, and will at once enter upon the discharge of his duties. It is apprehended that considerable changes will be made by him in the composition of the force but none as yet have taken place.

Base Ball.—An exciting game of base ball was played in Baltimore on Thursday last between the Baltimore club and the famous Mutuals of New-York city, resulting in a victory for the latter by a score of 13 to 11 Each club having now won one game, the contest will be decided by a third to be played at an early day.

"Sign" of the Times.—A countryman better acquainted with the inhabitants of our town than the town itself, walked into Mr. Fletcher's Jewelry Store the other day and called for a glass of whiskey. Upon being assured that none could be had there he exclaimed "What the——then is Mr.—— sitting out there for? I thought sure this was the place."

☞We shall publish next week a lengthy and admirable summary of the questions now dividing the friends and the opponents of Gen. Grant's administration which is written by Horace Greeley and upon which all the friends of liberty and enemies of corruption are expected to unite, without regard to past party issues, in the effort to save the country from the hands of the last, worst and weakest of American Presidents. As a complete statement of the issues which will be fought out in the approaching campaign, we bespeak for it a careful perusal by all those interested in the welfare of America.

Talbot County.—The firms of Numsen & Son and John T. Mitchell & Co., of Baltimore, are about to erect a packing establishment on Easton Point which will be 270 feet long by 30 wide, will employ 300 to 500 hands and pack from 600 to 1,000 boxes of peaches per day.

Teachers and Parents should provide their children with "The School Festival" Quarterly Magazine, devoted to new matter and exercises for School Exhibitions and Public Days. It is a live, fresh thing, that has long been needed by all teachers and pupils, and is conducted by the same Mr. Sewell who founded and so long edited the "Little Corporal," assisted by Mrs. Slade and other able writers. The April No. has just reached us, containing a beautiful "May Queen" Coronation exercise and many other choice things. Write for it, to the Publisher, Alfred L. Sewell, Chicago, Ill.—Price Seventy-Five cents a year; Single or sample copy, Twenty cts. Premiums to Clubs.

During the late war some children were talking of their brothers and fathers who had been captured as prisoners of war. Many tales of fortresses and camps were told, the speakers evidently priding themselves very much on the sufferings of their relatives, when a little fellow, who had been silent, now spoke up. 'That's nuthin'!' said he, I've got an uncle in prison too, and he ain't never been to war nuther.'

☞A Calefornia court has granted a divorce to a husband on the ground that he was insane when hs was married. The Judge has the immediate prospect of an immense business, and the Pacific railway company are making provision for an extraordinary travel westward during the spring.

Proceedings of the Circuit Court.

The Circuit Court for Dorchester county met at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Monday, the 22nd inst. Chief Judge James A. Stewart, presiding; Judge Franklin not being present till Tuesday morning, and Judge Irving being absent on account of his recent painful accident. State's Attorney, Charles E. Hayward; Sheriff, Edwin Dashiell.

On motion of Phillip D. Laird, Joseph H. Johnson was examined, and qualified as an Attorney-at-Law.

State vs. Samuel Gambrill. Presentment for assaulting Sam'l D. Garrett. Plea not guilty and traverse before the Court. C. E. Hayward for State, C. F. Goldsborough for Defendant Guilty and fined $2.00 and costs.

Tuesday's. 21 Appeals, Wm. Todd vs. State of Maryland. Appeal from Justice John Tyler for scooping oysters in Fishing Bay within prohibited waters. Trirl by Jury. Wallace & Milbourne and C. F. Goldsborough for Appellants. C. E. Hayward and Clement Sulivane for State.

Wednesday's proceedings. The case of William Todd was continued to-day. Verdict, guilty.

[We took occasion last winter to warn all persons interested against an infraction of the oyster law, assuring them that the law would certainly be enforced against any one violating its provisions. We hope the lesson will not be lost, but, as is, fair, that the scrapers will confine themselves to their own side of the line hereafter, "Shinny on your own side," gentlemen is a good rule in law as in morals.]

No 25 Trials. Kenton vs. Pennypacker. Removed from Caroline county. Trespass Q. c. f.—Trial by Jury—Henry & Sulivane and T. A. Spence for Plaintiff, C. F. Goldsborough, George M. Russum and J. E. Mowbray for Defendant. Plaintiff suffered a non-suit.

State vs Richard Thompson, Spencer Johnson, Joseph Baltimore, Wm. Dye and Wm. Basil, guilty and sentenced to the Penitentiary till 10th May 1876. C. F. Goldsborough for defendants.

Edward D. Barney, Esq., was admitted to practice at the Dorchester Bar.

State vs James Forker, the Jury could not agree upon a verdict and were finally dismissed. C. F. Goldsborough & J. H. Johnson for defendant.

The Court then adjourned to July next.

A country politician, in speaking of a rival, said, "Pilkins is of great use to observing men. Straws shows which way the wind blows; and as a straw, Pilkins has no equal in the country."

In an old cemetery at the western end of St. Louis is a moss-covered tombstone, on which a single hand points heavenward, surmounting the inscription, "Gone up."

BUSINESS LOCALS.

Messrs. Wm. C. Littleton & Son have returned with an unusually handsome supply of Spring goods even for them and more especially their casimers for boys use exceed anything ever brought to the town both for variety and cheapness. Call and see.

Who wants a suit of good clothing, made up in the latest style, with expedition, and at as cheap rates as can be found in Dorchester County? Who wants any repairing, scouring &c, done cheaply and at once? He has only to call on Sam. R. Pennington at his place of business on Poplar St., and his wishes will receive immediate attention.

If you want a suit of well made clothing, or wish any repairing or scouring done in the clothing line, call on I. N. Elston, High St. Cambridge.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Errors of Youth.

A GENTLEMAN who suffered for years from Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion will, for the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, the recipe and direction for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the advertiser's experience can do so by addressing, in perfect confidence, JOHN B. OGDEN, No 42 Cedar street, New York.
Mar. 6, 1872—1y

To Consumptives.—The advertiser, having been permanently cured of that dread disease, Consumption, by a simple remedy, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used, (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a SURE CURE for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c.

Parties wishing the prescription will please address

COOPER'S
LEATHER-STOCKING NOVELS

"The enduring monuments of Fenimore Cooper are his works. While the love of country continues to prevail, his memory will exist in the hearts of the people. So truly patriotic and American throughout, they should find a place in every American's library."—Daniel Webster.

A NEW AND
Splendidly-Illustrated Popular Edition of FENIMORE COOPER'S WORLD-FAMOUS
LEATHER-STOCKING ROMANCES.

D. Appleton & Co., announce that they have commenced the publication of J. Fenimore Cooper's Novels, in a form designed for general popular circulation. The series will begin with the famous "Leather-Stocking Tales," five in number, which will be published in the following order, at intervals of about a month:

I. The Last of the Mohicans.
II The Deerslayer IV The Pioneers.
III. The Pathfinder. V. The Prairie.

This edition of the "Leather-Stocking Tales" will be printed in handsome octavo volumes, from new stereotype plates.—Each volume superbly and fully illustrated with entirely new designs by the distinguished artist F. O. C. Darley, and bound in an attractive paper cover. Price, Seventy-five Cents per Volume, or $3.75 for the complete set. The series, when completed, will make, bound, an elegant library volume, for which binding-cases will be furnished at a moderate price.

PREMIUMS AND CLUB TERMS.

These club terms are designed specially for towns where there are no local booksellers.

Any person sending us the amount in advance for the complete set of the "Leather-Stocking Series," $3.75, will receive gratuitously a handsome steel-engraved portrait of J. Eenimore Cooper, of size suitable for binding in the volume. Any one sending us the amount in full for four complete sets of this series ($15), will receive an extra set gratuitously, each set accompanied by the steel portrait of Cooper. The volumes of the series will be mailed to each subscriber, post-paid, as rapidly as published, and the portrait immediately on the receipt of the remittance.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

Thomas W. Anderson, vs William G. Lecompte, admr. of James A. Byus, deceased, Augustus A. Pattison & Laura Pattison, his wife, Joseph E. Byus, Rose Byus, James T. Byus, Kennerly T. Byus and Wilhelmina Byus.	In Equity in the Circuit Court for Dorchester county. No. 762 Chancery. March 27, 1872.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for a sale of certain real estate situated in the 7th. Election District of Dorchester County on the County road leading from Cambridge to Cornersville, adjoining the home farms of John R. Creighton and William G. LeCompte, and of which James A. Byus, died seized.

The bill states that in the month of January, A. D. 1872, the said James A. Byus departed this life siezed and possessed of a large real and personal estate, and indebted unto the Complainant and divers other persons in considerable sums of money. That he died intestate, leaving Laura, wife of Augustus A. Pattion, Joseph E. Byus, Rose Byus, James T. Byus, Kennerly T. Byus and Wilhelmina Byus his only children and heirs at law. That letters of administration were granted unto William G. LeCompte of said county by the Orphans Court of the county of Dorchester aforesaid, who by virtue thereof possessed himself of the said personal estate, but that the same is insufficient to discharge all the debts due and owing by the said decedent, and the deficiency ought to be supplied by a sale of the said real estate; that the said Rose, James T., Kennerly T. and Wilhelmina Byus are infants, under the age of 21 years and that the said Joseph E. Byus is a non-resident of Maryland.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the Complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published at Cambridge in said county once in each of four successive weeks before the 27th day of May, A. D. 1872, give notice to the said Joseph E. Byus of the object and substance of this bill; and warn him to appear in this Court in person, or by solicitor on or before the 11th day of November A. D. 1872 to answer the premises and show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

MANHOOD:
HOW LOST. HOW RESTORED,
JUST published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of certain weaknesses, the effects of Errors and Abuses in early life.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of such errors and abuses may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, & effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

UNITED STATES HOTEL,
COR. FULTON, WATER AND PEARL STS., N. Y.

THIS well known favorite hotel has recently been renovated, remodeled and furnished new and elegantly throughout. It is kept on the European plan, and has ample accommodations for four hundred guests.
The location is more accessible to all parts of New York and Brooklyn than any other house in the city. The Broadway Stages pass the hotel every three minutes, besides various lines of Street Cars, one of which intersects every other route in New York.
It being but two blocks from Fulton Ferry, makes it convenient for those wishing to visit the "City of Churches," as from this ferry diverge all the principal Railroad routes in the city of Brooklyn.
