LOCAL & PERSONAL.

WEDNESDAY,.:.....May 15, 1872.

☞Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

☞Soft crabs have come and bring 75 cents per dozen.

☞Wm. George Brown Esq., the distinguished Baltimore lawyer, visited our town on Sunday and Saturday last.

☞His numerous friends will be delighted to hear that Dr. Thomas B. Steele has entirely recovered from the dangerous illness that prostrated him last week.

☞Dr. A. H. Bayly has returned from his Western tour and declares that he may forget his name and lineage but never can forget his delightful trip to Louisville.

☞The weather continues dry and the springs are failing. The most universal drought prevails all over America ever known at this season.

SIGN OF THE TIMES.—A gentleman who could not "go" the Democratic ticket last Fall because it contained the names of men who had only been in the fold a few years, is now the warmest advocate of Horace Greeley.

☞Auction pitch, casino and "sich" are raging in certain localities, being spurred up doubtless by the abundance of the mint market.

☞The Methodist General Conference has completed its liberal reform movement by admitting laymen to membership of the committee on Appeals.

BURGLARY.—The house of William Grason Esq., at Wallack's Landing was entered last week and the pantry rifled of sundry articles of housewifely value. No clue to the perpetrators.

OMAHA LEGAL ENTERPRISE.—$150,000 in 3000 Cash Prizes will positively be drawn in open public May 30th in aid of Mercy Hospital. Endorsed by the Governor and the State Authorities. Tickets $3 each or two for $5. Last Chance. Address Pattee & Gardiner, Omaha, Nebraska, or Pattee & Co., 114 Broadway, N. Y.

☞The American Farmers Advocate, a large sixteen page paper, is in every respect worthy the patronage of the farming community, being especially valuable as the official organ of the Agricultural Congress. Its price is only $1 00 per year, and its publishers, the Advocate Publishing Company, of Jackson, Tenn., make the remarkable proposition to furnish it free with any $2 00, or higher priced paper or magazine published in the United States. We offer it with the Chronicle at $2 00.

TRAGEDY IN BALTIMORE.—John W. Wilkinson brutally murdered his wife Emma E Wilkinson at their residence, No 98 M'Elderry St., on Sunday 5th inst. Cause jealousy. Why did he not kill the man and not the woman? We have no sort of pity for those miserable wretches who under such circumstances avenge themselves upon their wives, and sincerely hope he will be hanged by way of example for the future.

MIDDLE CONVOCATION OF THE DIOCESE OF EASTON.—The Ninth Regular Session of the Middle Convocation of the Diocese of Easton, will be held in Christ Church, Cambridge, on the third Tuesday in May, 1872.

A NEW HEALTH MONTHLY.—"The Science of Health," just commenced by S. R. Wells, 389 Broadway, New York, will advocate the Hygienic method of treating disease; its remedial agents being air, light, temperature, diet, bathing, exercise and rest, electricity, magnetism, etc. It will, no doubt, become popular as a health teacher, in the broadest and best acceptation of that term. May success attend the new enterprise!

THE TWO ARMIES.

As life's unending column pours,
Two marshalled hosts are seen—
Two armies on the trampled shores
That Death flows black between.

One marches to the drum beat's roll,
The wide mouthed clarion's bray,
And bears upon a crimson scroll,
"Our glory is to slay."

One moves in silence by the stream,
With sad, yet watchful eyes,
Calm as the patient planet's gleam
That walks the clouded skies.

Along its front as sabres shine,
No blood-red banners wave,
Its banner bears the single line,
"Our duty is to save."

For those no death bed's lingering shade;
At Honor's trumpet-call,
With knitted brow and lifted blade
In Glory's arms they fall.

For these no clashing falchions bright,
No stirring battle cry;
The bloodless stabber calls by night—
Each answers, "Here am I."

For those the sculptor's laurelled bust,
The builder's marble piles,
The anthems pealing o'er their dust
Through long cathedral aisles.

For these the blossom-sprinkled turf
That floods the lonely graves,
When Spring rolls in her sea-green surf
In flowery-foaming waves.

Two paths lead upward from below,
And angels wait above,
Who count each burning life drop flow,
Each falling tear of Love.

Though from the Hero's bleeding breast,
Her pulses Freedom drew,
Though the white lilies in her crest
Sprang from that scarlet dew—

While Valor's haughty champions wait
Till all their scars are shown,
Love walks unchallenged through the gate,
To sit beside the Throne!

☞HERE is what they sing At public in Vermont, to the tune of "Yankee Doodle," visitors all joining in the chorus:

If anything on earth can make
A great and glorious nation,
It is to give the little ones
A thorough education.

CHORUS.

Five times five are twenty-five,
Five times six are thirty,
Five times seven are thirty five,
And five times eight are forty.

AS WE MAKE IT.

We must not hope to be mowers,
And to gather the ripe gold ears,
Until we have first been sowers,
And watered the furrows with tears.

It is not just as we take it—
This mystical world of ours:
Life's field will yield, as we make it,
A harvest of thorns or flowers!

ARTHUR'S LADY'S HOME MAGAZINE for May, just received, contains among its many good things a deeply interesting chapter from "Three Years in a Man-Trap," by the author of "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room," now attracting so much attention as one of the most powerful and aggressive temperance stories ever written. The number is a specially fine one. This magazine ought to be in every household in the land. Terms $2 a year. T. S. TRYHAR & SON, Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:
While Europe's eye is fixed on mighty things,
The fate of empires and the fall of kings;
While quacks of state must each produce his plan,
And even children lisp the rights of man;
Amidst this mighty fuss just let me mention
The rights of woman merit some attention.

Mr. George Bean, was recently married to Miss Sarah E. Greenfield.

If fate shall to their wishes yield,
(And fate to true love leans,)
Time may bestow on this Greenfield
A lovely crop of beans.

MANHOOD:
HOW LOST. HOW RESTORED.

JUST published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of certain weaknesses, the effects of Errors and Abuses in early life.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of such errors and abuses may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife: pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, & effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps.

UNITED STATES HOTEL,
COR. FULTON, WATER AND PEARL STS. N. Y.

THIS well known favorite hotel has recently been renovated, remodeled and furnished new and elegantly throughout. It is kept on the European plan, and has ample accommodations for four hundred guests.

The location is more accessible to all parts of New York and Brooklyn than any other house in the city. The Broadway Stages pass the hotel every three minutes, besides various lines of Street Cars, one of which intersects every other route in New York.

It being but two blocks from Fulton Ferry, makes it convenient for those wishing to visit the "City of Churches," as from this ferry diverge all the principal Railroad routes in the city of Brooklyn.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH.

PROSPECTUS OF
A NEW INDEPENDENT HEALTH MONTHLY.

The object of it is to teach the people all that pertains to the preservation of Health, the prevention of Diseases, and how to live in order to develop normally in body and mind.

It is not a Medical Journal, but PHYSIOLOGICAL and HYGIENIC, a family magazine, containing just that practical information on the laws of Life and Health, useful to every member of the household and cannot but be worth many times its price to every family in which it is read.

Quack Medicines, and quack doctors will be exposed, and swindlers will not be allowed to impose on the people where the Science of Health is generally circulated.

This Journal will be the exponent of all known means by which Health, Strength, Vigor, and a Long Life, may be attained by using and regulating those agencies which are always accessible and so vitally related to Health and the treatment of Diseases, including Air, Light, Temperature, Bathing, Eating, Drinking, Clothing, Recreation, Exercise, Rest, Sleep, Electricity, Mental Influences, Social Relations and all Normal agents and Hygienic materials. All that is required to keep well and to preserve health, is a knowledge of the uses and misuses of these agencies.

The Science of Health will be the best exponent of the scientific principles of these subjects, and not the organ of any particular institution, or of the professional practice of any one, but devoted to the best interests of the whole people.

TERMS.—Published monthly at $2.00 a year in advance; single numbers, 20 cents. Clubs of ten at $1.50 each, and an extra copy to agent; we are offering the most liberal list of Premiums. Local Agents wanted everywhere, and cash commissions given. Address all letters to
