Landammann of Baden, during the insurrection, has also been taken up. Some other of the leading persons have experienced the same fate. They are to be sent to the Castle of Challon, on the bank of the Lake of Geneva, as prisoners of state, until further orders. This measure of safety, ordered by general Ney, has produced a great sensation. The town of Zurich is, by the direction of the National prefect, disarming, as well as all the other towns and cantons. Tranquillity is far from being restored in the canton of Zurich. The presence of the French troops alone keeps down the insurgents.

We last night received Paris journals to the 28th. They bring very little news. The Swiss are electing deputies to proceed to Paris to the consulta, which is to be the organ through which the will of France is to be communicated. Some applications have been made to the commander of the French troops in Switzerland, to set Aloys Reding and his companions, confined in the castle of Arburg, at liberty, but without success.

The charge d'affairs of the king of Sardinia has requested the intervention of the king of Spain, to obtain from the French government the payment of the indemnity promised to the king of Sardinia, amounting to 4 millions of livres, and 2 millions annually, without which it is said he will not take possession of the island.

December 3.

The debate in the house of commons last night was of no inconsiderable importance, Mr. Addington's speech was the most important, on account of the information he communicated upon the state of the British navy, and of the French. He informed the house "that admiral Bickerton, who at present commands ten sail of the line in the Mediterranean, writes home that there are only five sail of the line ready for sea in the port of Toulon; from which, reports have for some time stated, that a considerable fleet was about to be dispatched. The admiral also stated, that a still inferior force appeared in the harbor of Carthagena." He added, that the state of the French, Spanish and Dutch navies, at the conclusion of the war, was, France 39, Spain 68, and Holland 16; whilst Great-Britain had at present 192 sail of the line, 209 frigates, 129 sloops, and 243 smaller craft: in all 773 ships of war.

M. Otto is expected to embark for Calais to-morrow. He left London this morning.

December 4.

The French funds are 53.

A special commission is preparing to try the persons apprehended in Oakley-street, Lambeth, for high treason, at Guilford, in Surrey, the county in which they are supposed to have committed the offence. Other persons, implicated in in the same conspiracy, will be tried at the Old Bailey, by a special commission also.

Lord Whitworth's introduction to the first consul will take place next Monday, when a consular review and a grand levee will be held.

Mr. Merry will probably take his departure from Paris very soon—he is destined to meet M. Otto in America.

From a recent decision, which took place at Brest, it appears, that the French are determined, if we persist in our navigation act, to have theirs. By the navigation act of England, foreign vessels are not allowed to enter the port of London with any others produce than that of the countries to which they respectively belong. France, it appears, has resolved to adopt the same principle. An English vessel, bringing a cargo of iron from Petersburg, to Brest, has been declared contraband.

The account which we yesterday gave of the sudden dismissal from Paris of count Stahremberg, by an order from the French government, has excited much comment, as well as surprise. As this information seems to be doubted by some of our ignorant cotemporaries, we think it necessary to say, that we pledge ourselves for its authenticity. [Sun.]

A Dutch mail arrived yesterday, and by an article from the frontiers of Switzerland, it seems that some fresh ferments have arisen in the lesser cantons, in consequence of the severity of the French.

Count Schimmelpenninck, the Dutch ambassador to this country, with his family and suite, landed at Dover on Thursday; and last night, we are informed, that they reached town.

On Thursday, Mr. Abraham Newland attended the omnium holders, at the stock exchange, to aunohnce to them that the bank directors had agreed to their application; and that, instead of paying towards the redemption of their omnium, 40 per cent. on the 21st of January, they were to advance 20 per cent. on the 24th January, (which would assist them till after the opening of the consuls) and the other 20 per cent. on the 16th of April; so the whole payments for the redemption of the omnium, will now stand thus:

On the 24th of January, 20 per cent.
On the 18th of February, 30 per cent.
On the 18th of March, 30 per cent.
On the 16th of April, 20 per cent.

After this communication had been made, the funds rose about half per cent.

GREENOCK, November 22.

Arrived this morning, the Montezuma, Ross, from Charleston, after a tedious passage of 58 days, during which she experienced very adverse winds and boisterous weather. On the 24th ult. in lat. 41, long. 54, spoke the ship Rafford, Hinds, from Hull, to Charleston, out 38 days all well.

NEW-YORK, February 5.

A letter from New-Brunswick, New-Jersey, dated at 3 o'clock on Thursday last, says, "Melancholy to relate, this day at 2 o'clock, we had a violent storm of rain, hail, and snow, attended with thunder and lightning, which struck the steeple of the Episcopal church; it took fire, and is still burning. The wind is violent from the west, which threatens great destruction to the town. The church will be entirely lost."

The above comes to a respectable gentleman, and we have no doubt of the melancholy fact.

A letter from a gentleman of high authority in London, to his correspondent in this city, dated the 3d of December, says, "The British government is endeavoring to secure the continuance of peace by keeping up a large naval and military force."

Entered, schr. Good Intent, Lee, Falmouth, Jam.

The ship Delaware, Bebee, has arrived at Greenock.

The ship Recovery, of Salem, is arrived at Bordeaux.

Returned last evening, the schr. Paragon, captain Jackson, bound to St. Croix, having in the thunder storm on Thursday had one man killed, named John Fisher; another knocked overboard, but was saved by the mate jumping over after him; the captain and a boy were knocked down, but received no material injury.

The English ship Medway, Potts, for Madeira, lying at the Hook waiting for a fair wind, was also struck, and one man wounded. After the gust, in the act of heaving her anchor, she parted her cable and went to sea.

The brig Rover, for Jamaica, also lying at the Hook, parted her cable yesterday, and went to sea.

The pilot boat Ulysses, being at the Hook, was also struck by lightning, and Mr. Ogden and one of the lads were stunned, but recovered without injury.

The ship Maryland, Webb, on her passage from this port to London, experienced a severe gale of wind in the mouth of the British channel, and was obliged to throw overboard about 50 bales of cotton.

PHILADELPHIA, February 7.

We learn from Washington, that there is a report in circulation, which seems to be well founded, that an express has arrived there from Natchez with dispatches for the government relative to Louisiana. The purport of the intelligence was not known.

The following is an extract of a letter from a gentleman in Tennessee, to his friend in Raleigh, (N. C.)

"The conduct of the Spanish government, in shutting the port of New-Orleans against American commerce, contrary to the Spanish treaty, which provides that it shall remain a place of deposit for American commerce for the space of three years and afterwards until the Spanish government shall point out some other place equally convenient for Americans, has greatly exasperated the people of this country. The merchants must become bankrupts, and the farmers get nothing for their crops.

The merchants of the town of Nashville purchased upwards of 300,000 dollars worth of merchandize, and promised to make remittances this winter in cotton. All the merchants in the country had entered into the like engagements—their views are all deranged by this pernicious conduct of the Spanish government. The people appear disposed to remain quiet until they see what the government of the United States will do.

Should the government of the United States not act promptly and decisively, the people are determined to arm themselves, descend the river in their boats, and force all opposition. In this project there will be an union of the people of Tennessee, Kentucky the North western and Mississippi territories, which will be a serious thing in the United States. I do hope the United States will declare war immediately against Spain; if they do not, they will necessarially have an intestine commotion.

Last notice to creditors.

Died last month, at his seat in Dorchester county, Henry Ennolls, esquire, much lamented by all who knew him.

Died in the town of Dorchester, Mrs. Ann Muse, a very old and respectable lady.

The Union, Gemmel, of this port, was left at Cowes; and Independence, Wickham, at Liverpool, Nov. 22.

Kingston, Dec. 30.—Arrived, brig Favorite, Henderson, from Baltimore.

The supreme court of the U. States commenced its session last Monday, in the city of Washington.

A very distressing accident happened on Monday evening: a porter, who was in the employ of Messrs. Peters and Johnston, lost his way, it is supposed, by reason of the thick and heavy fog, and drove himself, horse and dray, off the lower end of Bowly's wharf into the bason. His lifeless body was taken up yesterday morning. We learn he has left a wife and three children to lament his disastrous departure hence. [American.]

February 9.

Arrived last night, brig Alexander, Colver, of New-York, from Norfolk---Salt---Lorman and Fulford's.

Also, this morning, brig Rover, Travers, 27 days from Port Republican—Coffee, cordage and wine—Rogers and Owings. Left there but two American schooners belonging to Charleston, names not recollected. Sailed in company with ship Liberty, ——, of New-York, for Savannah. Spoke nothing. Nothing of moment had transpired since the last accounts from Port Republican; business was dull; two Swedish frigates, with troops, had arrived there before captain T. sailed.

Vessels in the Bay:

Ship Comet, Stephenson, from Savannah; brig Lear, Low, from ——, and brig Hope, ——, from Barbados.

Also, sch'r Pomona, Watts, 23 days from St. Thomas—Sugars. The brig Potomac, Cox, of and for this port, sailed 7 days before the Pomona.

SELBY MILLS, with 330 Acres of LAND, 8 miles from this city, near Elk-Ridge Landing, and about half a mile from the road leading to the city of Washington. The mills are in good repair, capable of manufacturing 50,000 bushels of wheat yearly, to the best advantage, having water carriage to the spot, which renders this situation one of the best in this state, as the business can be carried on at an inconsiderable expence. The mill house is 40 by 50 feet, four stories, the lower parts stone and the two upper stories of brick; the other improvements are a good two-story brick dwelling house and kitchen, stone barn and stables, cooper's shop, a small house for a miller or farmer, and a two story brick dwelling house, suitable for a master cooper. The land is of an agreeable soil, capable of improvement, being well adapted to plaster of Paris; about 100 acres of which are cleared, the remainder is well covered with thriving young timber. Port Folio.

BEING requested by Joseph Dennie, esquire, of Philadelphia, to receive subscriptions for the Port Folio from the citizens of Baltimore, and the state of Maryland at large, I accept with alacrity the trust, and do declare that in no instance did I ever come forward with more satisfaction to myself, to solicit the continuance and support of the public, than on the present occasion.

I confess it has often been a mortifying circumstance to me, though an indispesible duty, to open subscription papers for works which do not ultimately prove worthy of the public esteem; and although uninterested in the emoluments of such works, or the reputation that attaches to them, I profess myself so far interested as to feel the most sensible regret whenever the public are allured to disappointment or loss through my agency. But on the contrary, it is therefore my exultation now to call on the lovers of literature for their aid and attention, not to an airy vision or meteor of fancy, whose sudden and transitory blaze vanisheth and is no more seen; but to a work whose standard and approved merit, under the encouragement of a liberal protection, bids fair to continue as a star of the first magnitude—the glory of our literary world, to the gratification of its enlightened patrons, and the honor of its editor.

The extensive circulation of this record of the times, and repository of intellectual amusement, not only in America, but in Europe, is the best criterion of its merit. But it is still necessary to augment the number of subscribers among the citizens of America, in order to remunerate more fully the great labor and expence that attends the publication of the Port Folio.

Whose end is "to hold as 'twere, the mirror up to nature; to shew virtue her own feature; scorn her own image, and the very age and body of the time his form and pressure."

A SUBSCRIPTION BOOK

Is this day opened in my store, where gentlemen in town, desirous of becoming subscribers, may be pleased to call; and all letters from the country, post paid, containing the subscription money, shall be attended to with punctuality.

The subscription to the Port Folio is Five Dollars, payable in advance, for one year; and from the knowledge of the new arrangements made for this year, I have no hesitation in pledging myself to the subscribers for the completion of their sets at the year's end, free of any additional charge.

The aged and infirm,

WHO at this season are suffering the excruciating pains of rheumatism and rheumatic gout, may find immediate relief, and expect a speedy cure, by the use of

HAMILTON'S

ESSENCE and EXTRACT of MUSTARD.

This valuable remedy is prepared both in a fluid state as well as in pills, and thus excellently adapted both for external as well as internal use.

The pills operate mildly by urine and by insensible perspiration, expelling the superfluous and morbid humors; they are highly cordial to the stomach, create appetite, aid digestion, remove flying pains, and cold or windy complaints in the stomach and bowels.

The essence is a wonderful assistant to the pills in rheumatism, gout, lumbago, and palsy; and by its peculiar penetrating and dispersing quality, removes the most violent sprains, bruises, numbness, stiffness of the neck, joints, &c. swelled faces, head-ache, indurated breasts, white swellings, frozen limbs, &c. and will infallibly prevent the ill effects of wet or damp in the feet.

Some may be surprised that this medicine should be prescribed with equal success in such a variety of cases; but this surprise will cease when it is recollected that all these complaints result from the same cause—a slowness in the circulation of the lymph, or obstructions in the lymphatic vessels.

From Dr Weatherburn.

Wythe County, (Virginia).

GENTLEMEN,

I purchased at your shop the preparation you call Hamilton's Essence or Extract of Mustard, which I believe has perfectly removed a chronic rheumatism, (of that kind named Sciatica, or of the hip joint) under which I had labored for a long time, and which had baffled every article in the Materia Medica, and every mode of treatment received into practice for the cure of this obstinate disease. If you think this letter useful you are at liberty to make it public.

Yours, &c. WEATHERBURN.

JOHN HOOVER, rope-maker, south Second-street, between Mary and Christian streets, Philadelphia, voluntarily maketh oath as follows: namely, that his wife, Mary Hoover, was so severely afflicted with violent rheumatism, very dangerously situated, the consequence of a severe cold after lying in, as to be confined to her bed for several weeks, and was at length reduced to the melancholy apprehension of remaining a cripple for life, notwithstanding the most respectable medical advice was followed, and every probable remedy attempted; when seeing several cases of cures performed by Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard, they were procured from Mr. Birch, No 17, south Second-street. The first application enabled her to walk across the room, and the use of one bottle restored her to her usual state of health and strength.

JOHN HOOVER.

Sworn and subscribed before Ebenezer Ferguson, esquire, one of the justices of the peace for Philadelphia county.

NOTE, particularly, that the great and extensive celebrity acquired by this medicine has induced some to prepare counterfeits, which are imposed on enquirers by the meanest arts possible. Therefore, apply ONLY at the book and stationary store of WARNER and HANNA, corner of Baltimore and south Gay-streets.
