Thirty days after the completion of the drawing, the prizes will be paid to the fortunate adventurers. Such prizes as shall not be demanded within twelve months after the drawing is finished, will be considered as relinquished for the benefit of the church.

From the superior advantages of this scheme, wherein there is very little more than one and one-third of a blank to a prize, the managers cherish a hope that their friends and the public, seeing the difficulties attending their indefatigable efforts to carry their present undertaking into execution, will generously come forward and prove their benevolence by purchasing tickets.

The mayor having prohibited the sale of tickets in this lottery within the limits of the city, for the present; and it being therefore necessary for the managers to petition the mayor and city council, for permission to sell them within the said city, tickets may be had of the following persons, in the precincts only, until the fate of said petition shall be known, viz. the rev. Mr Reuter, next door to St. John's church; Mr. Jacob Stansbury, No. 46, Bridge-street, Old-Town; Mr. Christian Cupito, head of Market-street; and of the subscribers at their respective dwelling houses.

Lands for Sale.

The Executors of the late general George Washington, offer for sale, the following TRACTS of LAND, viz.

A tract in Loudoun county, on Difficult run, containing 300 acres. The soil well adapted for farming, and a considerable proportion of it might easily be improved into meadow. There is a valuable mill seat on the premises. It lies on the great road from the City of Washington, Alexandria and George-Town to Leesburgh and Winchester, nineteen miles from Alexandria, 18 from the City and George-Town, and not more than three from the Great Falls of Potomak.

One tract containing 2481 acres, lying in the counties of Loudoun and Fauquier, called Ashby's bent. The soil is that which is said to be most favorable to plaster of Paris, well watered by several never failing streams issuing from the mountain. Part of this land is cleared and tenanted for lives.

One tract lying part in each of the above counties, containing 885 acres. Chatten's run passes through this tract and gives several valuable mill seats. The soil is similar to the above tract, and equally favorable to plaster of Paris.

A tract on the south fork of Bullskin, containing 1600 acres; one also, head of Evans' mill, containing 453 acres; and one on Wormley's line, containing 183 acres. These several tracts are in Jefferson (late Berkeley) county—the soil very similar in quality, and particularly adapted to the culture of tobacco, hemp, wheat and Indian corn situated twelve miles from Harper's ferry.

One tract containing 571 acres, in Frederick county. This land is in the vicinity of the last mentioned tracts, and equally valuable.

One tract in Hampshire county, containing 240 acres. This tract, though small, is extremely valuable—It lies on Potomak river, about 12 miles above the town of Bath (or Warm Springs,) and is in the shape of a horse-shoe, the river running almost round it; two hundred acres of it are rich low grounds, with a great abundance of the largest walnut and other trees, which, with the produce of the soil, might (by means of the improved navigation of the Potomak) be brought to a shipping port with more ease and at a smaller expence, than that which is transported only 30 miles by land.

One third part of 1119 acres in Nansemond county, near Suffolk, lying on the road from Suffolk to Norfolk, and on Nansemond river. This land is considered extremely valuable by those who are acquainted with it.

One tract in Charles county, Maryland, containing 600 acres—it is very level, and lies near the river Potomak.

One tract in Montgomery county, Maryland, containing 519 acres. This land lies about 30 miles above the City of Washington, not far from Kotoctan and is good farming land.

One tract in Pennsylvania, containing 234 acres. This land affords an exceeding good stand on Braddock's road from Fort Cumberland to Pittsburg, and a large quantity of natural meadow, fit for the scythe. It is distinguished by the appellation of the Great Meadows, where the first action with the French, in the year 1754 was fought.

One other tract on the Mohawk river, state of New-York, containing 1000 acres.

In North-Western Territory.
