Sale by Auction.

ON THURSDAY,

The 10th March, at 12 o'clock, at Yates's vendue warehouse, the following valuable property will be offered at auction, if not previously disposed of by private contract:

UNION Mill, situated on the banks of Jones's falls, about two miles from this city; the mill house is stone, upwards of 40 feet square, two and an half stories high, neatly plaistered inside, one water wheel 29 feet high, which turns 2 pair of burs, one pair 6 feet, the other 4½, with all the necessary machinery, nearly new and in good repair. The mill is now able to manufacture upwards of 30,000 bushels of wheat per annum, and the great fall in the stream will admit of being occupied again with another wheel of nearly equal force. There are belonging to said mill about 32 acres of land, part of which is exceedingly rich bottom, the residue in wood. Joseph Scott, at E. Tyson's mill, will shew the property; or Samuel Byrnes, on Bowly's wharf, will give information of the same. The terms of sale are, one thousand dollars cash; one other thousand in 4 months; and the residue in three annual payments, with interest—notes with approved indorsers will be required. A bond with approved security will be given for the conveyance of the property.

BERNARD GILPIN.

Information wanted

OF a certain THEOPHILUS MEYER, son of A. R. Meyer, merchant, of Arau, in Switzerland, and ci-devant senator of the Helvetic republic. He departed from Bristol in November, 1801, on board the Diana, captain Stirling, to obtain a knowledge of the United States of America, which vessel, by Lloyd's List, arrived in New-York in January, 1802. He is about the age of 23, five feet 10 inches high, and well proportioned—of a moral character. Speaks German, English, Spanish, French, Latin and Italian; and is acquainted with music. His father having never heard of him since his departure, would feel indebted to any person who has a knowledge of his existence or death, and would be so good as to lodge information of either with Mr. Robert Barry, merchant, Baltimore.

☞ Other printers in the United States will shew their benevolence, by inserting the above.
