Mr. S. Smith in the chair.

The report of the committee recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

STONINGTON, March 1.

Sloop Revenue, captain P. Noyes, sailed from Mistic River the 15th ultimo, for Charleston, (S. C.) with a deck load of mules, &c. &c. The following day, at 3 o'clock, P. M. in a severe gale of wind, while scudding, she was struck by a sea on her weather quarter, and thrown upon her beam end; the captain, mate and people being upon deck, they, together with her deck load, were swept overboard; fortunately, however, by extraordinary exertions, all the people got on board, and she immediately righted; in about fifteen minutes afterwards another sea struck her, which washed the captain and one hand overboard, providentially they were again preserved. Her boat stove, sails split, and pumps choaked with oats, the captain thought it advisable to put back; and arrived at Mistic last Tuesday. Schooner Betsy, Ich. Sheffield, master, arrived at Tobago, in 39 days passage from this port, with the loss of eight head of stock. The people all well.

NEW-YORK, March 7.

It is said Mr. Monroe (who was to have sailed yesterday) waits for further communications from the executive. There is something still unsettled respecting this embassy—and nothing is to be learned from Mr. Monroe, who is as cautious in letting any thing out, as the lower house of congress.

Same day, the schooner Jefferson, Patterson, in 4 days from Wilmington, N. C.

Same day, through the Sound, the schooner Hannah, Hall, of Boston, in 40 days from Terceira, one of the Western-Islands.

Same day, the sloop Rover, Gifford, in 8 days from West Port, bound to the Rappahannock.

A deeply laden ship, bound down the Sound, came to anchor on Saturday night, off Riker's island. There is hardly a doubt of its being the Martha, Shillaber, from Calcutta.

POSTSCRIPT. Since the above was prepared for press, we have seen the supercargo of the Martha, of Salem—he informs, that the only vessel which arrived at Batavia after the sailing of the Commerce, (now in this port) was the ship Rolla, Arnold, of Providence, from a trading voyage on the coast. The Martha's cargo is sugar, piece goods and ginger, to William Codman.

Arrived last night, the schooner Nancy, Frost, in 25 days from Havanna.

Below last night, a schooner from the southward; and a brig in the offing.

Cleared, brigs Abigail, Williams, Jamaica; Unanimis, Hasting, Cadiz; Alexander, Truxillo, Havanna; schooner Favorite, Snow, Wilmington.

ALBANY, March 1.

The report of the committee of the house of assembly on the Exchange bank proposed to be established in New-York, was made the order of the day for yesterday; when Mr. Tompkins made a motion which was seconded by Mr. Irving, that the report should be referred to the committee of the whole house when on the bill from the senate, for incorporating "the New York State bank." This motion occasioned a considerable debate, and finally passed in the negative, 66 to 21. On motion of Mr. Comstock, the consideration of the report was further postponed till Friday next. The bill, for the state bank, it is expected, will be called up this day in committee of the whole.

PHILADELPHIA, March 8.

Extract of a letter dated Columbia, Feb. 3.

"The public mind in this quarter is in a state of great anxiety relative to the N. Orleans business; and it is my sincere belief, founded on actual observation of the disposition of the people, that if the Spaniards do not open that port to the citizens of the United States in a few weeks from this date, that a considerable force will be in motion from the different parts of the western country, to compel the nabobs of Spain to adopt those measures of justice which the God of Nature has given them no right to withhold. This, therefore, is truly an alarming and interesting business. Should an attempt be made on New Orleans by some enterprising adventurers, without the sanction of the general government, the consequences will be unpleasant indeed: But it must be hoped that the general government will lean to measures which will tend to avert this calamity, and quiet the minds of the citizens of this country."

Extract of a letter from Baltimore, received by yesterday's mail, dated March 4.

"An express passed through this place yesterday from the westward for Washington, stating that the people of that country were making hostile preparations, and that in a short time they would take possession of New-Orleans. I expect we shall have some serious work in that country."

Arrived, schr. Adventure, Denabre, N. Orleans, 29 days.

Cleared, brig Liberty, Thurston, Antwerp; schooner Farmers Delight, Brown, Guadaloupe.

Ship Osiris, from Liverpool; brig Hiram, late Edmonson, from Charleston, are below.

Captain Jones, of the ship Plough Boy, from Bordeaux, passed at anchor 6 leagues below Pourlaic, the ship Atlantic, Penrose, of Philadelphia, from New-Orleans. Arrived in the river, January 4. brig Fame, Potter. 5th, ship Diana, Stafford, from Baltimore, 44 days. Captain S. informed captain Jones, he had left in the Isle Rhea, the ship Amsterdam Packet, Hidelius, of Philadelphia, bound for Bordeaux. On the 7th January, saw a ship bound up, supposed to be the Amsterdam Packet.

The ship that was lost near the Cordivan in November last, was called the Confidence, owned in one of the northern ports of the United States, and laden with spars. One seaman and a female passenger were drowned. The captain and the rest of the crew besides, were safe in Bordeaux—the former intended to take his passage in the brig Minerva, Main, for New-York.

The next day the whites gained a victory over them. It was reported that 250 of the negroes were killed. Vessels frequently arrived with a few fresh troops.

MR. PITT.

The following character of this great statesman was given by Mr. Sheridan, in a late debate in the house of commons:

Of the ex-minister I would just say, that no man admires his splendid talents more than I do. If ever there was a man formed and fitted by nature to benefit his country, and give it lustre, he is such a man. He has no low, little, mean, petty vices. He has too much good sense, taste and talents, to set his mind upon ribbands, stars, titles, and other appendages and idols of rank. He is of a nature not at all suited to be the creature or tool of any court.

KENTUCKY.

The Citizen of this morning contradicts our report of yesterday respecting Kentucky; we have therefore thought it our duty to give more particularly the authority on which we made that publication. It appears from the following notes:

TO WILLIAM HUNTER, ESQ.

Saturday morning.

SIR,

I enclose the leading article in the American Citizen of this morning for your perusal, and beg you to favor me with such answer as I may lay before the public. Yours, with esteem,

WM. COLEMAN.

TO WILLIAM COLEMAN, ESQ.

I regret that the information I gave you yesterday, should have occasioned the remarks in the Citizen.

I certainly have not circulated the report attributed to me, that the "state of Kentucky was in rebellion." I have only cautiously related information, apparently derived from a direct and authentic source. I left Washington early on Sunday morning; at that time there was no report current there, of an express from Kentucky. But on my arrival at Baltimore, in company with the honorable J. Mason, senator, from Massachusetts, a gentleman of Mr. Mason's acquaintance called on him, and in my presence communicated the intelligence substantially as stated in your paper of yesterday, and declared he had the information from the messenger from Kentucky himself, who was then in the house, (Evans's at Baltimore) and who had left Washington that morning. The next post will shew whether this information be correct or not. If it be an error it will soon be corrected. At any rate, I only faithfully reported to you what I gave credit to myself, and what the circumstances render highly probable.

I remain, sir, your's,

WILLIAM HUNTER.

The aged and infirm,

WHO at this season are suffering the excruciating pains of rheumatism and rheumatic gout, may find immediate relief, and expect a speedy cure, by the use of

HAMILTON'S

ESSENCE and EXTRACT of MUSTARD.

This valuable remedy is prepared both in a fluid state as well as in pills, and thus excellently adapted both for external as well as internal use.

The pills operate mildly by urine and by insensible perspiration, expelling the superfluous and morbid humors; they are highly cordial to the stomach, create appetite, aid digestion, remove flying pains, and cold or windy complaints in the stomach and bowels.

The essence is a wonderful assistant to the pills in rheumatism, gout, lumbago, and palsy; and by its peculiar penetrating and dispersing quality, removes the most violent sprains, bruises, numbness, stiffness of the neck, joints, &c. swelled faces, head-ache, indurated breasts, white swellings, frozen limbs, &c. and will infallibly prevent the ill effects of wet or damp in the feet.

Some may be surprised that this medicine should be prescribed with equal success in such a variety of cases; but this surprise will cease when it is recollected that all these complaints result from the same cause—a slowness in the circulation of the lymph, or obstructions in the lymphatic vessels.

From Dr. Weatherburn.

Wythe County, (Virginia).

GENTLEMEN,

I purchased at your shop the preparation you call Hamilton's Essence or Extract of Mustard, which I believe has perfectly removed a chronic rheumatism, (of that kind named Sciatica, or of the hip joint) under which I had labored for a long time, and which had baffled every article in the Materia Medica, and every mode of treatment received into practice for the cure of this obstinate disease. If you think this letter useful you are at liberty to make it public.

Yours, &c. WEATHERBURN.

JOHN HOOVER, rope-maker, south Second-street, between Mary and Christian streets, Philadelphia, voluntarily maketh oath as follows: namely, that his wife, Mary Hoover, was so severely afflicted with violent rheumatism, very dangerously situated, the consequence of a severe cold after lying in, as to be confined to her bed for several weeks, and was at length reduced to the melancholy apprehension of remaining a cripple for life, notwithstanding the most respectable medical advice was followed, and every probable remedy attempted; when seeing several cases of cures performed by Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard, they were procured from Mr. Birch, No 17, south Second-street. The first application enabled her to walk across the room, and the use of one bottle restored her to her usual state of health and strength.

JOHN HOOVER.

Sworn and subscribed before Ebenezer Ferguson, esquire, one of the justices of the peace for Philadelphia county.

NOTE, particularly, that the great and extensive celebrity acquired by this medicine has induced some to prepare counterfeits, which are imposed on enquirers by the meanest arts possible. Therefore, apply ONLY at the book and stationary store of WARNER and HANNA, corner of Baltimore and south Gay-streets.
