FRANKFORD, (K.) March 2.

The Launch.

Was launched from the yard of Mr. Yeatman, on Sunday laſt, the ſchr. Go-By, built by Mr. Yeatman, for Mr. John Inſtone. Advantage had to be taken of high water, was the reaſon of her being launched on Sunday. The Go By is the firſt veſſel intended for ſea, that has been built on the Kentucky river—May ſhe anſwer the expections of her builder, and the noble enterpriſe of Mr. Inſtone be rewarded by her being wafted to her deſtined port, laden with the produce of our country, and there meet with a ready ſale, and a good market.

On Sunday laſt the brigs Muſkingum of Marietta, and Deane, of Pittſburgh, paſſed over the rapids, at Louiſville, in ſafety. A number of the citizens went over in theſe veſſels to aſſiſt in keeping them in the current, and were entertained with various refreſhments by the captains.

The brig Kentucky, of Louiſville, was expected to go over on Sunday.

BY THIS DAY's MAIL.

NEW-YORK, March 24.

Yeſterday morning, about 9 o'clock, the ſhip Preſident, captain Whelden, of New-Bedford, loaded with flour and corn, by H. W. and L. Phillips, lying at the weſt ſide of Coenties' ſlip, and on the eve of ſailing for Liſbon, took fire in the cabin, communicated from the ſtove pipe to the ceiling. The firemen and other citizens ſpeedily aſſembled, and by well-timed exertions, ſoon got the fire under. The deck over the cabin was cut through to let in water, and conſiderable damage was done to the cabin by the fire. This, with the loſs of ſome flour in the ſteerage, and the wetting of ſome of the corn, is all the injury ſuſtained. We learn that inſurance was ſome time ſince ordered in London. Damages eſtimated at one thouſand dollars.

Arrived yeſterday, through the Sound, the ſch'r Betſy, Sheffield, of Stonington, in 30 days from Tobago. Left, among others, the ſchooner Monongahela Farmer, Lockyer, to ſail for New-York in 15 days, and the brig Concord, Maſon, to ſail for Norfolk in 10 days. Beef at Tobago was 18 dollars; rice 7 dollars; lard 2s. and butter 2s. 6d.

Same day, the ſloop Induſtry, Mattock, in 7 days from Charleſton and 5 from the Bar. Sailed in company the brig Enterprize and ſch'r Echo, for New-York. The ſhip Alexander was to ſail for New York in 2 days. Paſſengers, Meſſrs. J. and D. Lambert, Burke, D. Engliſh, T. Scott and E. Remington.

Same day, the brig Atlantic, Wilſon, from New-London.

Same day, the brig Riſing States, Johnſon, in 4 days from Providence, R. Iſland.

The ſchooner Perſeverance, Coyle, had arrived at St. Kitts. on the 11th February.

Cleared, brig Suſſex, Lee, Liſbon; ſchooner Argonaut, Diſbrow, St. Johns.

PHILADELPHIA, March 25.

Arrived, ſhip Commerce, Weſt, Calcutta, via New-York; ſloop Sea Flower, Bird, New York, 3 days.

Cleared, ſhip Thomas Chalkley, Gibſon, St. Croix; brigs Polly, Mullen, St. Thomas; Eliza & Sarah, Whitehead, Antigua; Joſeph & James, Watſon, Port-Republican; ſchr. Eliza, Bingham, Cayenne.

Some of the ſouthern papers contain a marvellous account of an attack alledged to have been made on a Britiſh ſhip by lieutenant Sterett in the United States ſloop of war Enterprize, in which (it is related) ſixty of the Engliſh ſhip's crew were killed. The ſtory is falſe in every particular but the following—a Britiſh merchantman being met off the Barbary coaſt by the Enterprize, refuſed to hoiſt her colors, upon which the Enterprize threw a ſhot acroſs her, and ſtill perſiſting in not ſhewing colors, a ſhot was thrown in ſuch a way as to indicate a determination to make her ſhew whether ſhe was or was not a pirate, and with ſucceſs. The Britiſh ſkipper complained at Gibraltar of this act of compulſion—and received in return a ſevere reprimand for not ſhewing his colors; but not a ſhot was fired into the ſhip, and of courſe the 60 killed were mere men in buckram. [Aurora.]

It is reported that the dey of Algiers has refuſed to accept the ſtipulated ſum of 30,000 dollars, ſent by our government under conventional obligations. [Ibid.]

CHARLESTON, March 7

The ſchooner Anna, captain William Jackſon, owned by Meſſrs Bold & Rhodes, of Charleſton, with a cargo of two hundred and forty-nine bales of cotton, from Beaufort, and the adjoining iſlands, was on the night of the 4th inſtant, entirely conſumed by fire, between Morgan's and St. Helena's Iſlands. The following particulars of this unfortunate event are furniſhed by a gentleman who was paſſenger on board: The ſchooner having come to anchor early in the evening, the paſſengers and crew retired to bed, the captain having previouſly had all the fire put out; but being apprehenſive of ſome accident from the careleſſneſs of the crew he again went on deck, and ſaw every thing ſecure—ſoon after they had fallen aſleep, they were rouſed with the dreadful cry of fire, and on leaving the cabin, found the cotton on deck, ſails and rigging, in a blaze. The night had been remarkably calm, but it now commenced blowing with great violence from the W. and in a few moments the veſſel and cargo were enveloped by this deſtructive element. The captain and crew jumped into the boat, which was fortunately in the water, whence capt. Jackſon, with a ſpirit and intrepidity that does him credit, got into the cabin windows, although on fire, and handed out the trunks, &c. of the paſſengers—he was with much difficulty perſuaded to leave the veſſel, and had ſcarcely got into the boat when the quarter deck fell in. Throughout this diſtreſſing ſcene, capt. Johnſon acted with the greateſt coolneſs and judgment; and in his exertions to preſerve the property, was much burnt—the cable having been cut, the veſſel was blown aſhore; but a very ſmall part of the cargo, however, was ſaved.

Citizens Beware.

On Thurſday night the ſubſcriber's ſtore was entered by ſome perſon or perſons unknown, ſuppoſed to be about the duſk of evening, who ſecreted themſelves for the nefarious purpoſe of plunder, but finding no money of conſequence in the till, they broke open every probable place where they could imagine caſh would be depoſited—After overhauling a variety of papers, amongſt which were ſeveral negotiable notes and papers of value, they made off with only the bank book; but finding no money therein, they dropped it in the gutter, near Market ſtreet. It is preſumed that the above attempt of robbery was made by ſome of thoſe idle negroes, who ſpend the greateſt part of their time pitching and toſſing money in a back alley, called Franklin-lane.

By Authority.

THIS is to inform the admirers of ingenuity, and patrons of innocent and rational amuſements, that on Monday evening, March 28th inſtant, in that ſpacious new OCTAGON BUILDING, known by the name of the PANTHEON, back of the court-houſe,

Will be Diſplayed,

The Myſteries of Mechaniſm,

By Mr. Maginnis, from Saddler's Wells, London, lately from the old theatre, Philadelphia, where he performed ſix weeks to crouded houſes.

This exhibition is compoſed of about 40 different figures, which by the power of mechaniſm poſſeſs the correct attitudes of life.

Juſt from London,

The Grand Italian Fontoccini,

Never performed in this country, which has been the wonder of Europe for many years.

The ingenuity and powers of this exhibition conſiſts in the following FIGURES:

1ſt. A Figure four feet high, in the character of a Country Girl, will dance a jig, with ſimplicity and native innocence.

2d. Ben the Sailor, a figure 20 inches high, will dance a hornpipe, performing the different ſteps to the muſic with exactneſs, characteriſtic of the brave tar.

3d. The Lapland Sorcereſs, in the courſe of moving a quick dance, will perform that wonderful deception of changing her face three times imperceptibly.

4th. The Phenomon of Human Invention will be diſplayed, by a ſmall figure, 12 inches high, that will perform poſturing and tumbling, equal to life. The natural attitudes of this automaton ſtrikes the ſpectator with aſtoniſhment and wonder!

5th. The Lilliputian Scarmouch, will dance a Spaniſh fandango, forming himſelf into 20 different attitudes. The power of ingenuity is here curiouſly diſplaped—no communication to the figure can be perceived.

6th. A collection of wax-work figures, repreſenting the COURT OF ALEXANDER THE GREAT. This group of figures, in brilliancy, luſtre and richneſs of dreſs, far ſurpaſſes any exhibition ever known; their graceful movements, and ancient martial grandeur, are highly pleaſing, and has never failed of giving univerſal ſatisfaction, leaving the mind deeply impreſſed with an idea of the ancient ſplendor and magnificence practiſed by the Macedonian Hero and his Lovely Pair.

7th. The Mooriſh Princeſs performs the Grand African Caſtinett Dance, beating time with the muſic equal to life itſelf.

☞ Door opened at ſix, and to commence at 7 o'clock. Box one dollar. Pitt half a dollar. Children who come with their parents, and under twelve years of age, will be admitted for half-price.

 Tickets may be had at Mr. Dobbin's printing-office; and at the Pantheon, where ſeats in the boxes may be taken, from ten until one o'clock, on the days of performance.

N. B. Mr. M. reſpectfully informs thoſe ladies and gentlemen who intend honoring the exhibition with their preſence, that he has fitted up the Octagon hall in a commodious manner, ſo as to contain 300 ſpectators.

March 25.
