BY THIS DAY's MAIL.

NEW-YORK, April 2.

Arrived yesterday, the schooner Eliza-Ann, Crowell, in 17 days from Cape-Francois. Passengers, Samuel G. Ogden, merchant of this city, A. Legrand, madame Bentijack and servant. Left, ship Columbus, Burger; brigs Hound, Fuller, (in 12 days passage) Tartar, Wadsworth; Hannah, Stevenson, and Gayoso, Hamilton; and schooner Betsy, Clark, all of New-York:—brig Favorite, Hammond, of Philadelphia, ship Elk, Jones; brig Two Brothers, Kilburn; & schr. Dolphin, Durkett, of Baltimore; sloop Industry, Townsend, Bristol, R. I.; schr. Good Intent, Foster, from Jamaica; brig Trial Coit, and sloop Amity, Carson, New-London; brigs Alert, Campbell, & Minerva, Campbell, of Charleston; schooner Sally, Alexandria; brig Commerce, Stone, Kennebunk; and schooner Hannah, Andrews, of Salem. The schooner Alexander, Reynolds, sailed from Philadelphia, the 13th ult. Spoke, March 24, in lat 34, 10, long. 74, 20, schooner Philip, 4 days from Baltimore to Cape-Francos. Nothing would sell well at the Cape but small articles, such as vegetables, &c.

The schooner Maria, Lazar, from Fredericksburg, is ashore at the Hook. Lighters have been sent down, and, unless we have a N. E. storm, she will be got off without damage to vessel or cargo.

Captain Crowel, of the sch'r Eliza-Ann, informs us that several transports with troops have lately arrived at Cape-Francois; some accounts represent the whole of the reinforcements to be about 10,000 men. The seat of government was to be removed to Port-Republicain in a few days after captain C. sailed; at which time the negroes were tranquil. Markets very dull, except for vegetables.

At a meeting of the directors of state bank at Albany, yesterday se'nnight, John Tayler, esquire, was chosen president of that institution; and John W. Yates, esquire, cashier.

Cleared, ship Æolus, Robinson, Calcutta; brigs Sally, Brooks, Havre; Sea Nymph, Parke, Nantz; schooner Betsy, Smith, Digby, N. S.

Captain Sturges arrived at Boston from Canton, reports the following intelligence. "Captain Cunningham of the ship Globe, of Boston, being at Norfolk-sound, a short time previous to his leaving the N. W. coast for Canton was informed that the native Indians had attacked the Russian establishment at that place; massacreed all the inhabitants and burnt the fort and other buildings to the ground. This event is supposed to have taken place between the 15th and 30th of July last.

From a London paper, of February 17.

The Greek manuscripts brought by Mr. Clarke, of Jesus college, Cambridge, from Patmos, Naxos, and other parts of Greece, and from Constantinople, are as follow:

From Patmos—1 The Works of Plato, most beautifully written upon vellum, in folio. The Scholia, in minute capitals. The Colophon proves that it was written by John, the Calligraph, for Arethas, the deacon of Patræ, for 13 Byzantine Nummi, in the 14th year of the indication, and the 6404th of the world (A. C. 896) in the reign of Leo, son of Basilius---2 Lexicon of St. Cyril, of Alexandria---3 Greek Poetry, accompanied by ancient Greek musical notes---4 ditto ditto---5 The Works of Gregory of Nazianzen.

From Naxos—Copies of the gospels, in capitals, of very ancient date.

From Mount Athos—1 The orations of Demosthenes—2 The works of ten Athenian orators, some of which not hitherto known.

From Constantinople—1 The works of Dyonisius the Areopagite, with a curious and learned commentary, written on vellum, in folio, 2 complete copies of the gospels, written in the 8th century—3, 4, 5, 6, various copies of the gospels and of the epistles, & acts of the apostles, of different dates—7, The works of Philip the hermit—8, dialogues of Theodore the Syracusan—9, A work on the Greek grammar—10, 11, 12, The writings of commentators on the gospels, and the works of the earliest fathers of the church—13, very ancient copy of the Evangelistarium of the Greek church—14, Ditto ditto—15, The works of Phile, on animals.

Of the Plato, which professor Porson calls a Monument of Literature, it may be well to add, that it is the oldest Greek manuscript in the world with an express date. Dorville (on Charlton, p. 49, 50) had in his possession a manuscript of Euclid written in the preceding year: Montfaucon mentions (Paleographia, p. 52) having seen a Greek MS. six years older; but these have now disappeared. The professor has been long occupied in copying, with infinite labor, the Scholia; and has discovered, by that means, passages from Greek plays, and from poets, that were lost.

General Lausatt, the French prefect for Louisiana, has arrived at New-Orleans and taken up his residence there. We have not heard that he has undertaken to execute any official function, or whether he means to await the arrival of any detachment of colonists, said to have been intended for that place.

Extract of a letter from Messrs. Kuhn and Green, at Gibraltar, under date of the 19th February, to a merchant in this city.

"We have the pleasure to advise, that the quarantine in this port, on vessels coming from Philadelphia and Baltimore, was taken off yesterday evening, in consequence of orders from London. In the ports of Spain they continue to order off all vessels from the United States, that have not the Spanish consul's certificate to their bills of health."

April 4.

The ship Samuel Smith is not in the bay as reported.

We learn by the schooner Eliza Ann from Cape-Francois, that about 900 troops had recently arrived at that place—that seventeen thousand more were hourly expected—that they were building block-houses all round the Cape for its defence—that several vessels with specie, to the amount of about a million of dollars, had just arrived. That the situation of the island was daily becoming more flourishing—And that some articles of American produce bore a tolerable price.

The former Royal Family of France.

The members of the house of Bourbon are scattered over Europe. Louis XVIII. continues at Warsaw; his consort is at Wildungen; the Count D'Artois, with his younger son, the Duc de Berry, is in Scotland; his eldest son, the Duc D'Angouleme, and his princess, the daughter of the murdered Louis, are with their uncle at Warsaw, while the lady of the Count D'Artois resides at Klagenfurth. The three brothers of the Orleans family are in England; their mother and sister in Spain; the prince and princess de Conde, with the Duc de Bourbon, are in the vicinage of London; the second son is at Ettenheim, with the Cardinal Rohan; and their unmarried daughter is in a convent in Switzerland; the prince de Conti is at Barcelona, while his wife has her abode in the Helvetic Republic.

From a late London paper.

The shipping interests.—A meeting of the principal ship owners of Great Britain took place yesterday at the London tavern Bishopgate-street. A considerable number of gentlemen were assembled at one o'clock, when John Hill, esq. was unanimously called to the chair.

Mr. Atcheson, their active and intelligent secretary, then read the following report, drawn up by the general committee at their last meeting, viz.

"That, since the last general meeting the committee had been anxiously engaged in obtaining documents to establish the correctness of the statements they had previously made respecting the present state of the shipping interest of Great-Britain; and that it appeared by the documents received by the committee, that the opinion that they had formed on that subject was completely confirmed.

"That the committee, in order to obtain the most correct and certain information of the present state of the shipping in the port of London, had applied to the several ship builders on the river Thames; and it appeared by their letters annexed that only two ships had been built in the river Thames for the merchant service since the 5th of October, 1801, namely, the Pacific of 307 tons burthen, for the south sea trade and another of 600 tons, now building on speculation; and that it also appeared, that no other ships had been contracted to be built in the river Thames for the merchants service, since the 5th of October, 1801.

"That the committee with a view to ascertain the real depreciation in the value of shipping since the peace, had not only reviewed with great care and attention the opinion of the several respectable brokers who had been applied to on the subject, but they had conversed with almost every person in town who had been in any way concerned in the sale of ships since that period; and the committee are satisfied that their opinion on that subject also stands confirmed on the most indubitable testimony; and that the value of shipping has decreased at least one-third since the peace.

"That the committee had likewise, after great labor made several comparative statements of the expences incurred in the out-fit of ships between the two years immediately succeeding the American war, and the last and present years, and it appeared from documents of actual disbursements, that provisions of all kinds had, on an average, advanced about 81l. per cent. That materials and stores of all sorts had advanced in like manner about 84l. per cent. And that seamen's wages had, on an average of the different classes of seamen, advanced about 44l. per cent. whilst the rate of freights had only, on an average, advanced about 23l. per cent. And that the committee are convinced, whenever an investigation shall take place on this subject, that these statements will be found to be moderate and just. And it also appeared that since the year 1703, there had been an increase of the duties on the importation of naval stores of above 50l. per cent.

"That the committee had also obtained statements of the actual expenditure and earnings of ships in different trades; and it was with great concern the committee had to report that at present ships in general were navigated to little or no profit, and many of them to actual loss.

"That the committee thought it necessary to intimate, that it appeared by the letters received by the secretary from several of the outports, that the ships building of such ports was not in a more flourishing state than in the port of London; and that the owners at the outports were deeply impressed with the same sentiments and opinions with the committee of the present depressed state of the shipping interest in general.

"The committee also conceive it proper to report to the general meeting, that petitions had been presented to the honorable the house of commons, praying for the repeal of the tonnage duty, from the following ports, viz.

The ports of London, Liverpool, Sunderland, Burlington, Whitby, Blyth, Hartly, Scarborough, South Shields, Plymouth, Kirkaldie, and North Shields:

"That in addition to these petitions the committee had received information that a petition for the repeal of the tonnage duty had been signed at Newcastle-upon-Tyne; and also another at Wells, in Norfolk, and which had been delivered to their respective members of Parliament to present after the recess, and that the ship owners at Lynn, Regis, Poole, Hull, and several other places, had requested their members to support the application to parliament for the repeal of tonnage duty.

"That the committee considered it to be their duty thus publicly to declare, that their investigations had been conducted with the greatest fairness, candor and impartiality, and had not been, in any one instance whatever, influenced by private views or party feelings: that they felt no hesitation in stating with confidence, that the public will attribute their conduct on this occasion to the sources from which it sprung, and that such confidence they had a right to entertain, as they were conscious of no other motives than a due sense of justice to their country and to themselves, a high sentiment of the national importance of the shipping interest of Great-Britain, and the recollection that to it alone was owing the glory and greatness of the British empire."

Valuable Medicines.

HAHN's GENUINE EYE WATER,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident, speedily removing inflammations, defluxions of rheum, dullness, itching and films on the eyes, never failing to cure those maladies which frequently succeed the small-pox, measles, and fevers, and wonderfully strengthening a weak sight. Hundreds have experienced its excellent virtues, when nearly deprived of sight.

Mr. John C. Ebecke, letter carrier, Baltimore, was cured by this eye water, of a violent and dangerous opthalmic of long standing, which nearly prevented him from performing the duties of his situation, and threatened him with total loss of sight—the citizens of Baltimore need only be reminded of this excellent cure, as most of them will recollect it.

Letter from Mr. Peter Clymer, Lancaster.

GENTLEMEN,

Agreeably to your request, I inform you of the eye water I bought at your shop; the single bottle has quite cured my daughter's eye: we were but just in time with it, as I believe she would have lost the sight of that eye very soon, as all the herbs we had used for washes, as I told you, had done no good; she can not only see as well as ever, but all the pain and swelling is gone—we are much obliged to you for the cure, and remain, &c.

HAHN's TRUE AND GENUINE GERMAN CORN PLASTER,

NOTE particularly, that the great and extensive celebrity acquired by these medicines has induced some in this city to prepare counterfeits, which are imposed on enquirers by the meanest arts possible. Therefore, apply ONLY at the book and stationary store corner of Baltimore and south Gay-streets.
