NEW-YORK, April 4.

Late Foreign News.

By the arrivals on Saturday and yeſterday from England, the editors of the New-York Gazette have received a regular ſeries of London papers to the 1ſt of March inclusive; and Lloyd's Liſts and Prices-Current to the 25th February.

Theſe papers contain a variety of matter, of no inconſiderable intereſt. Colonel Deſpard and ſeveral of his accomplices, recently convicted of high treaſon in England, were executed and beheaded on Monday, the 21ſt February, in preſence of an immenſe concourſe of people. An account of the behavior of the criminals, previous to, and during their execution, occupies a large proportion of one of the London papers. It is intereſting.

Paris papers to the 23d February, were received in London, which announce the meeting of the legiſlative body on the 21ſt. The Moniteur of the 23d, contains an official view of the preſent ſituation of the republic, prepared for the legiſlative body. This important and curious paper is ſigned by Bonaparte. It embraces a variety of objects. It ſtates that upwards of twenty thouſand French manufacturers, diſperſed throughout Europe, have returned to their reſpective vocations in the republic — That "St. Domingo had ſubmitted, and the author of its troubles was in the power of France: every thing, in ſhort, announced the return of its proſperity, when by horrid diſeaſe, it was devoted to renewed calamity: but the plague that deſolated the army has now ceaſed its ravages, and the forces that remain in the colony, together with thoſe which will ſpeedily arrive, cannot fail to reſtore it to peace and proſperity." That "Batavia is gradually regaining poſſeſſion of the colonies reſtored to her by the peace; but ſhe ought never to forget, that France can be to her only the moſt uſeful friend, or the moſt dangerous enemy."—In ſpeaking of the diviſion of parties in England, it ſays, "One has concluded the peace, and is decidedly inclined to maintain it; while the other has ſworn an implacable hatred to France;—hence ariſes that fluctuation in opinions, and in the ſenate that attitude which is at once pacific and threatening. As long as this conteſt of parties continues, there are certain prudential meaſures neceſſary on the part of the republic. Five hundred thouſand men muſt and will be ready to defend and avenge it."

The report that Spain is about to cede the Floridas to France in conſideration of Parma and Piacanza being added to Etruria, has been revived on the continent with increaſed confidence.

The French papers contain a copy of the new conſtitution granted by Bonaparte, in the character of a mediator, to the people of Switzerland. This conſtitution bears a federal character, and aboliſhes many of the ancient ariſtocratical privileges. The cantons are divided into three claſſes, viz. the Ariſtocratic, the Democratic, and the New Cantons. The diet is to aſſemble, every year, in one of the ſix great towns, and is to ſit for ſix months.

We have extracted the following from the London Courier of the 1ſt March:

General Koſciouſko, now lives in a modeſt retirement in a country houſe near Paris. Since the fate of his native country was ultimately determined, it ſeems as if he were not the ſame man: his looks, formerly pale and ſallow, are now freſh and healthy. He now enters with gaiety into the enjoyment of all the common pleaſures of life. He has ceaſed to carry the ſnuff-box on which was painted a ſhip ſhattered by the ſtorm, with the motto, "My poor country." His friends and countrymen at Paris regularly celebrate the anniverſary of his birthday.

On the 16th ult. as the Acaſto frigate was coming to Portſmouth, from Leith, ſhe was driven by adverſe winds on the French coaſt, when ſhe ſtruck on the Flemiſh Rocks, and afterwards dropped anchor; a boat was hoiſted out with lieutenant Galway, the maſter, and eight men, to make ſoundings, when ſhe upſet, and every ſoul periſhed! The ſhip arrived at Portſmouth, on Thurſday, without the leaſt damage.

The firſt part of the French civil code was preſented to the legiſlative aſſembly by three of the government orators on the 23d ult. Portalis, in a long ſpeech to the aſſembly, developed the motives and explained the principles of it. The code was ordered to be printed. The principal perſons who ſucceſsfully oppoſed it when it was laſt under diſcuſſion, are no longer in either of the legiſlative bodies—it will therefore probably be adopted without much oppoſition.

The corpſe of colonel Deſpard, who was hung for treaſon on the 21ſt February, was buried this day; upwards of a thouſand perſons had collected near the houſe before the corpſe was removed. The police officers attended, and the city marſhal was in the (Pancraſs) church yard before the herſe reached it. After he was buried, the crowd immediately and quietly diſperſed.

FEDERAL GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, April 6.

Citizens turn out!

As many of our humane citizens as have leiſure, and can conveniently provide themſelves with horſes, are reſpectfully invited to meet to morrow morning, at the Howard's hill market houſe, at 9 o'clock, for the purpoſe of proceeding out a few miles on the Elk Ridge road, to ſearch for the body of Adam Wayble, who left this city about a week ſince with the intention of going to his home on Elk Ridge, but who, forrowful to relate, has never been heard of after he got a mile or two from the city on his way homeward. As he took with him a ſum of money, it is preſumable that he muſt have been robbed and murdered! And as his family and friends remain in a very diſconſolate ſtate of uncertainty about him, it is hoped there will be a numerous company, ſo that the woods on both ſides of the road for ſome diſtance may be well explored. From ſome circumſtances that have tranſpired, it is more than probable the body may be found, and we ought at leaſt to uſe our endeavors to ſecure to a fellow creature the rights of burial and ſhould our ſearch even prove fruitleſs, we ſhall at leaſt have the conſolation that we have done our duty, and that we ſhare the gratitude of his diſtreſſed family and friends. It is confidently expected that ſuch as can conveniently go, will attend to the invitation, and how pleaſing it will be to thoſe who ſympathize with his unfortunate family, to witneſs our alacrity on this occaſion. Such as may pleaſe to attend will leave the market-houſe preciſely at half paſt nine o'clock, to-morrow morning.

April 6.

The execution of negro Sam, convicted at the laſt county court, of murdering negro Jane, took place on Wedneſday laſt a few minutes before twelve o'clock, near the magazine. We have not time to enter into particulars reſpecting the proceſſion from the gaol to the place of execution. It may, however, be neceſſary to mention, that the ſcene was awfully grand---conducted with the ſtricteſt decorum---and happily adapted to the melancholy cauſe which produced it. It is ſuppoſed that near three thouſand perſons witneſſed the ſolemn exit of this unfortunate young negro.

PETERSBURG CHURCH LOTTERY.

THE following is the Scheme of the above lottery, by which it may be ſeen, that beſide the Ten Thouſand Dollar Prize, there are others, the acquiſition of which would make a poor man's heart leap for joy—and the wealthy feel extremely pleaſed.

SCHEME of a LOTTERY,

Authoriſed by an act of the general aſſembly of Virginia, paſſed the 20th day of December, 1790, authoriſing the underſigned truſtees to raiſe a ſum of money to be applied towards paying the expence of building a church in the town of Peterſburg:

1 prize of	10,000 dollars is		10,000
1 do.	2000	-	2000
2 do.	1000	-	2000
4 do.	500	-	2000
20 do.	100	-	2000
40 do.	50	-	2000
100 do.	20	-	2000
1500 do.	10	-	15,000
Firſt drawn number on the 5th day of drawing, excluſive of the prize which may be drawn to the number,			1000
Laſt drawn number, excluſive of the prize which may be drawn to the number,			2000
1670 prizes.			40,000
3334 blanks.
5000 tickets, at eight dollars each, is			40,000

The fortunate adventurers in the above lottery, ſhall receive the money to which they may be entitled, in thirty days after the drawing is cloſed, ſubject, however, to a diſcount of 12½ per cent. which will be applied towards defraying the expence of building the church, and the expences that may be incurred in conducting the lottery. Prizes not demanded in ſix months after the drawing is finiſhed, will be conſidered as relinquiſhed for the benefit of the building. Purchaſers of one hundred tickets and upwards, will be allowed a liberal abatement. The drawing will be commenced on the tenth day of May next, or ſooner, if the tickets are diſpoſed of. The equality of chance afforded by this ſcheme in not having two banks to a prize, the ſmall diſcount retained from the fortunate adventurer, the purpoſe for which the lottery is eſtabliſhed, and there being more capital prizes in this than in any other lottery in the ſouthern ſtates, warrant a concluſion that an immediate ſale of the tickets will be effected.

James Campbell,	John Shore,

The above gentlemen having been appointed truſtees to carry the act of aſſembly into effect, and they having politely permitted us to aſſiſt in accelerating the execution of the aforeſaid act of aſſembly, we think it our duty to declare, that we will be reſponſible to the ſaid truſtees, or to the adventurers, for thoſe duties which we undertake to perform, in carrying the ſaid law and lottery into complete operation
