CHICKASAW

WILL stand this season at Mr. Christopher Walker's tavern, on the York turnpike road, 2 miles from the city of Baltimore. That proper horse Chickasaw, no horse excels in strength or figure; he is the largest of the kind ever seen in this country, being upward of 15 hands high; racks, paces, trots and canters at the will of the rider. From delicate slim mares, fine riding nags may be expected, and large strong mares must produce, from this horse, the best of draft horses. This breed of horses is generally more active at 25 or 30 years old, than the common breed is at 12 or 15. Those persons who have mares to put to a horse, are desired to view the superior animal—and, as was well said of Montezuma he will speak for himself. The price for the season is FIVE DOLLARS, to be paid before the mares are taken away, and half a dollar to the Groom.
