A CARD.

H. O. HEBERT (from Philadelphia) ſolicits the attention of the citizens of Baltimore in general, and invalids in particular, to his "Air Pump Vapour Bath," a machine conſtructed on true philoſophical principles, the efficacy of which in gout, rheumatiſm, palſy, contractions and enlargements of joints, withered and enlarged limbs, cutaneous and many other diſeaſes, both chronic and acute, can be teſtified by many reſpectable perſons who have had recourſe to it.

This machine comprehends and combines the application of fomentation and the cupping glaſs, two of the moſt powerful external applications for the removal of diſeaſe, and that on a plan more extenſive than was ever before known.

As many perſons who have never ſeen the apparatus might be deterred from uſing it, either from the reports of prejudiced perſons, or fear, they are reſpectfully aſſured that its application is not attended with either pain or inconvenience—It poſſeſſes all the good effects of warm bathing, without its attendant conſequences, debility and relaxation; on the contrary, it invigorates and ſtrengthens the whole ſyſtem, but particularly the part to which the machine is applied. Perſons deſirous of further information reſpecting the nature and effects of this machine, will pleaſe to apply to the proprietor, at No. 3, Eaſt-ſtreet, near the aſſembly room.

N. B. "The Air Pump Vapour Bath" is particularly adapted for the removal of all obſtructions occaſioned by violent colds, which are the forerunners of conſumptions, &c.

Complaints peculiarly incident to females, which too generally baffle the remedies hitherto applied, and to which they frequently fall victims in the prime of life, are readily and effectually removed by the application of this machine.

Young Ladies' Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. BACONAIS,

RESPECTFULLY inform the citizens of Baltimore and its vicinity, that they propoſe opening an Academy, upon an extenſive ſcale, for the moſt liberal education of Young Ladies, compriſing, beſides the uſual & indiſpenſible female accompliſhments, ſuch as ſewing and embrodery of all kinds, &c. the grammatical and ornamental parts of Engliſh and French idioms, geography and the uſe of the globes, writing, arithmetic, &c. &c. The pupils will have a conſtant opportunity of ſpeaking the French language, all the members of ſaid academy (except the Engliſh tutor) to the number of four or five, being French natives, whom a reſidence of above ten years in this country has accuſtomed to its language and manners, ſome of them even having received their education in the well known and approved academy formerly kept under Mrs. Lacombe's direction, where they have had an opportunity both of contracting an acquaintance with ſeveral of the moſt reſpectable families in this city, and familiariſing themſelves with the rules and diſcipline of a regular education.

Mr. Baconais, the head of the inſtitution, will undertake to teach Drawing and Dancing to ſuch of his fair pupils only, as may have a wiſh to learn theſe handſome accompliſhments, a taſk to which a ſucceſsful practice of ſeveral years in Philadelphia, has proved him, as he thinks, fully adequate. As for the literary part of his ſyſtem, he feels encouraged to undertake it with the confidence, as the liberal education his birth and former means have enabled him to receive in the moſt diſtinguiſhed ſeminary of Paris, muſt have qualified him for the teaching of any of the uſeful branches to which female inſtruction muſt neceſſarily be confined.

Mr Baconais has made choice of the houſe formerly occupied by Mrs. Lacombe and Petit, near the French ſeminary, one of the moſt eligible ſituations in point of ſalubrity, and now happily ſecured againſt the inconveniences it lay under by the ſtreet not being then paved.

The academy will be ready, and is intended to be opened for the reception of ſcholars, on the firſt day of October. The parents who may be inclined to encourage this new inſtitution, are deſired to be early in their applications—which will be received by the Rev. Wm. Du Bourg, preſident of the French college, who will give further information reſpecting the terms and other particulars.
