STATE OF MARYLAND,

CITY OF BALTIMORE, ſſ.

By JAMES CALHOUN, Mayor of the city of Baltimore.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has this day been repreſented to me by the commiſſioners of health, that they entertain a well founded apprehenſion that the malignant diſeaſe, with which the cities of Philadelphia and New-York are at this time unhappily afflicted, may be introduced amongſt us, unleſs the uſual intercourſe be reſtrained;

I have, therefore, in purſuance of the advice of the ſaid commiſſioners of health, iſſued this proclamation, hereby forbidding the entrance into the city of Baltimore, or within three miles thereof, of all perſons whomſoever, as well as all baggage or other goods, which ſhall come from the ſaid cities of Philadelphia and New-York, until they ſhall have been at leaſt fifteen days abſent therefrom, excepting only the public mail and ſuch perſons or things, as the commiſſioners of health may admit by a ſpecial licence, in conſequence of no circumſtance appearing to them, whereby the health of the city may be endangered.

This proclamation to remain in force until publickly revoked by me, of which all perſons concerned are to take notice, and govern themſelves accordingly, under the penalty of three hundred dollars for every offence, one half to the informer, and the other half for the uſe of the corporation.

Given under my hand, and the corporate ſeal of the city of
