Public Sale.

To cloſe the concern of Durant and Wiſeham, will be ſold by public auction, on Tueſday, the 17th of January, at the exchange coffee-houſe, (if not previouſly diſpoſed of at private ſale,)

THAT Valuable and Improved PROPERTY, ſituate in Gofport, in the county of Norfolk, known by the name of the GOSPORT DISTILLERY. The lot is about 140 feet ſquare, building 100 feet by 37 in the clear, built of brick and wood, and has lately been put in complete repair. The ſituation is healthy and pleaſant; good water may be had quite convenient. It contains one Engliſh made ſtill of 1000 gallons, quite new and lately ſet up, with cap, worm and worm tub complete; one ditto of 1300 gallons, with cap, worm and worm tub in good working order; one doubling ſtill of 450 gallons, with cap, worm and worm tub in good order; one large return tub; one ditto receiving ditto; two ſtand caſks of 524 gallons each; three ditto of 270 gallons each; eight new ciſterns of 2400 gallons each, one of which charges the two large ſtills; twenty-one ditto of 1300 gallons each, in good order; four ditto out of repair; two low wine ciſterns of 300 gallons each, in good order; one hand mill for grinding malt; two copper cranes, buckets, funnels, &c. ſufficient to conduct the buſineſs upon an extenſive ſcale; machinery, ſpouts, pumps and leaders, capable of pumping out either of the ciſterns and conveying the working liquor into either or all of the ſtills. Theſe works are capable of turning out 600 gallons ſpirits every twenty-four hours, with the labor of only three men.

There is alſo a mill houſe, 40 feet by 30, in which there is a mill and a well of never-failing water, with three pumps working by machinery, which conveys the water into any part of the diſtillery. A creek runs up to the door affording ſufficient water for lighters, making the communication with Norfolk eaſy, and the carriage of molaſſes, rum, &c. to and from the diſtillery cheap and facile. There is ſufficient ſpace on the lot to erect a dwelling houſe and a cooper's ſhop, which buſineſs might here be conducted to conſiderable advantage.

This property is well worth the attention of men of capital, that could always command a ſupply of molaſſes. The demand for rum is ſuch that there is no danger of having any quantity on hand; and if ſold at the moderate profit of three cents per gallon, the buſineſs would yield a clear gain of eighteen dollars per day.

The terms are ſix, twelve, and eighteen months credit, and payment muſt be made in good endorſed notes, payable at the office of diſcount and depoſit in Norfolk, with a deed in truſt upon the property until the whole is paid. John Gibbs, living at the diſtillery, will ſhew it to thoſe inclined to view it. For further particulars apply to us LEWIS E. DURANT, or
RICHARD WISEHAM.

Dancing School.

P. L. DUPORT tenders his reſpects to the ladies and gentlemen of this city, and informs thoſe who are deſirous of poſſeſſing themſelves of the polite accompliſhment which a knowledge of DANCING confers, that his SECOND quarter will commence on the 10th of January next, at Mr. Bryden's; and as it is probable his ſchool will cloſe for the preſent ſeaſon at the termination of that quarter, he will not deem it expedient to enter into any engagement after the ſaid 10th of January—but before that period, ſuch as may enter his ſchool may depend on his moſt aſſiduous exertions to inſure their improvement.

Thoſe who are not acquainted with him as a teacher, can, on applying to him, have reference to thoſe families who know how far he merits public patronage. He intends ſhortly to give a PUBLIC BALL, when he flatters himſelf the proficiency of his ſcholars ſhall amply juſtify the degree of confidence repoſed in him.

P. L. Duport will continue to give private leſſons, without reſpect to any particular period of commencement.

N. B. A party of gentlemen are now learning the moſt new and faſhionable Cotillions—others are ſolicited to join. The evenings for this party are Monday, Wedneſday and Friday, from 7 till 9, P. M.

☞ The Aſſerably which was propoſed to be formed under the title of "The Juvenile," has to render it more general, been changed to "The Amicable." Thoſe gentlemen who are diſpoſed to become members of this aſſembly, are requeſted to meet at Mr. Bryden's aſſembly room on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock.
