One hundred and fifty Dollars REWARD

WILL be given for apprehending and securing Negro JACOB, a slave, who on the 24th inst. obsconded from the Havre-de-Grace factory, in the town of Havre-de-Grace, Maryland. Fifty Dollars will be paid, if he is taken in this state; and the above reward, if in any other—with reasonable charges for bringing him home.—JACOB is about twenty-five years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high, very stout and well made; middling black complexion; has a diffident look, when spoken to: no particular mark is recollected, except some scars on his breast, occasioned, it is supposed, by whipping when young. He is a blacksmith and sailor by trade, and can do any plantation-work. Had on when he went away, a new ticklenburg shirt, linen trousers, short coat of brown cloth, hat and shoes. He may have other clothes that are not known, and probably may have obtained from some free negro a pass, and endeavor to appear a free man, under some other name. The above compensation will be paid by the Subscriber, on the delivery of Negro JACOB to him in Havre-de-Grace, or for having him secured in any jail, so that he may be had again.

SAMUEL JAY.

June 28. eo9t||

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the morning of the 22d instant, a Negro Woman named LUCY, of a very dark yellow complexion, about twenty-five years old, and rather a neat figure, speaks timidly, and sometimes inclining to be sulkey; has a large tumid eye, and her jaws frequently tied up for the tooth-ache. She used to wear at home a dark blue striped linen jacket and petticoat, but having carried of all her clothes, it is likely she will change her dress. It is thought she is lurking about some gentleman's place in the vicinity of Baltimore, having many friends and acquaintances in the country. Any constable or other person bringing her home, shall have the above reward, and on giving information where she can be had, shall have half the amount. She was formerly the property of Mr. Thomas Rutter, who sold her to Colonel Clemm, and by me purchased of him.

CHARLES MARR,
7, Calvert-street.

June 26. d6t-eo3t

Forty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber on Sunday morning last, an indented Servant Man named John Jacob Herman Gysincé, a native of Holland, and arrived from Bremen in October last in the ship Weser, captain Tietjen. He took my horse, saddle and bridle out of my stable with him. The said servant speaks the Holland & German languages incorrectly, and also very broken English. He is 26 years old; a druggist by profession; about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, of a dark complexion; his hair originally black, but growing grey; he is a little bow-legged. Had on when he went away, a dark-colored cloth coat, with gilt buttons; yellow nankeen trousers; a half-worn black fur hat, &c.

The horse is a dark bay, between 14 and 15 hands high, 9 or 10 years old, his hind feet white, with a scar in his forehead, no other marks recollected: The bridle and saddle are better than half worn.—Whoever apprehends and secures said Runaway and Horse, so that I get them again, shall receive, if taken within this state, Fifteen Dollars for servant and Fifteen for horse; and if out of the state, the above reward, viz. Twenty for servant and Twenty for horse, with all reasonable charges, paid by HENRY KEERL.

N. B. Masters of vessels and others are cautioned against harboring said Runaway at their peril. June 25. 2aw

For Sale,

Or LEASE for a term of years,

A Neat two-story frame HOUSE, No. 26, Conowago-street, containing eight rooms, and a fine cellar under the whole, with a pump of good water in the yard. The lot is 25 feet front, running back 80 feet to an alley, with a back building on the same. Its healthy situation, and proximity to the western market, are not small recommendations in its favor. For terms apply on the premises.

June 11. 1w6t§

BY THIS DAY's MAILS.

NEW-YORK, July 4.

We have received the Gazette de la Martinique of the 14th June, containing the official account of the expedition against the Diamond Rock, and a copy of capitulation. A brief summary of these documents shall be laid before the readers of the Mercantile Avertiser on Saturday.

Extract of a letter received yesterday from Guadaloupe, dated June 11.

"The French have sent, for the purpose of taking Antigua, 26 sail of the line and 12 frigates and sloops of war, making 38 sail, with 16000 troops on board. No accounts have reached this place since the squadron sailed. It will not be able to stand so heavy a force if attacked."

Under the Baltimore head in this day's paper, we have an account of the capture of Antigua, by the combined French and Spanish squadrons. This news we believe is entitled to no credit; as we have information from that place much later than the account which mentions the capture. Capt. Newson, of the schr. Aspasia, (arrived here in 17 days from Fort-Royal) passed Antigua on the 15th of June, & saw the British colors flying on the fortifications at English harbor, and on board a frigate and sloop of war at anchor in St. John's harbor.

The news from London, received at Newbedford, of the Brest fleet being out, is also entitled to no credit. Mr. Livingston, who came passenger in the ship Missisippi, from Nantz, left France the 27th of May, at which time the Brest fleet had not sailed.

By the brig Georgia, from Savannah, we learn, that the schooner ——, Burras, had just arrived there from the W. Indies, who informed, that he fell in with 10 sail of the line and one frigate, near Barbados, under the command of lord Nelson.

Capt. Hilliard, from Martinique, on the 19th of June, in lat. 18, 30, long. 62, 30, spoke the ship Catharine, 25 days from N. York, for Laguira, the captain of which vessel informed, that the day before he was boarded by the British sloop of war King-Fisher, in company with a frigate. From the King-Fisher capt. H. learned, that lord Nelson was off Barbados with 18 sail of the line. The above sloop of war and frigate, on the 16th of June, fell in with five French frigates bound to Guadaloupe, having nine sail of British merchantmen in co. which they had captured on their passage to Jamaica; on the approach of these two British vessels, the Frenchmen set fire to the whole of the prizes, and ran off! Capt. H. further states, that on the morning he sailed, a dispatch-boat arrived at Martinique with news of the taking of the port of Antigua; and that part of Jamaica was taken, by another French squadron said to have arrived there!

The following is an extract of a letter from New-Orleans, dated May 25, and received this forenoon:

"I cannot close my letter without giving you a little hint of the great movements going on in our neighborhood. We had a vessel here the other day from Vera Cruz, which brings the following news—"We "are here in the utmost perplexity—the "governor and viceroy have quarrelled se-"riously, and the latter with the commerce "of this place, who have sent home a de-"puty to plead their cause, and explain "their business to the Council of the Indies. "In the mean time the alarm is sounded, "and his vice-majesty has collected an ar-"my of near 30,000 strong, and is actu-"ally encamped therewith on one of the "cliffs of Mount Orisava, and has caused "all the public and private treasure of Mex-"ico to be transported to the centre of the "camp."—This alarm was caused by some news they had got either from this place or some part of the union, that the whole American army was under orders for the western line and this place, and that the president was to take the command in person, in case of urgent need. They further add, that a bishop ex-partibus had arrived at Naquoquedotch with seven hundred of the vanguard. Those who pretend to see further than the common sort, say, that the whole is a trick of the vice-king to get the cash-part of the property in his power, &c."

Arrived yesterday, the ship Ann Maria, Jones, Totten, 13 days from Havana. Left, ships Suffolk, Thomas, for Boston; same day; Jason, Walker, Portland, in 10, The Chalkley, Eldridge, Philadelphia, do.: Flora, Seward, Gloucester, in 12; Cato, Piles, Philadelphia, 14; brigs Thomas, Baxter, Portland, 2; Orange, Pelham, Wilmington, N. C. in 10; and schooner Richmond, Logan, for Philadelphia in 4 days. Spoke, June 24, in lat. 26, 10, long. 80, 35, (in the Gulph) ship Farmer, Goodwin, of Kittery, 2 days from Matanzes for Cowes and a market.

Same day, the schr. Harmony, Holmes, in 10 days from Baltimore.

Same day, the schr. Little Edward, Taber, in 10 days from Charleston. June 28, off the Capes of Virginia, spoke the brig Dean, 7 days from New-York for Savannah.

Same day, the regular packet schr. Rising States, Newcomb, in 4 days from Norfolk.

Same day, the schr. Mary, Moore, in 10 days from Charleston.

Same day, the schr. Huldah & Anna, Doughady, in 9 days from Savannah.

Same day, the brig Sarah & Eliza, Clark, in 5 days from Philadelphia.

Same day, the sloop Priscilla, Hand, in 11 days from St. Simons.

Same day, the schr. Fancy, Medcalf, in 19 days from St. Pierres, Martinique. June 29, in lat. 35, 30, long. 75, spoke the ship John, Folger, 7 days from Providence for Havana.

Same day, the schooner Aspasia, Newson, in 18 days from Fort-Royal, Martinique. Left schooner Farmer, Toy, to sail in 6 days for Philadelphia; brig Libra, Francis, for Newburyport, in 6 days; and brig ——, Barret, for Boston, about the same time. The brig Weltha-Ann was was to sail the 17th June for New-York.

Same day, the schooner Splash, Hilliard, in 16 days from St. Pierres, Martinique.—The brig Weltha-Ann, Boyer; and schooner Martha Washington, for New-York; and the ship Minerva, Hall, for Boston, all sailed in company with the Splash. Left ship Juno, just arrived from New-York; brig Union, Bourne, to sail in 10 days for New-York; schooner Roebuck, in 6 days from Philadelphia.

Same day, the brig Georgia, Burnham, in 6 days from Savannah.

Same day, the schooner Good-Intent, Collins, in 9 days from Petersburg.

Same day, the sloop Mahala, Shaw, in 9 days from Richmond.

Same day, the sloop Ruth, Phipps, in 9 days from Savannah.

Same day, the schooner Seaman, captain Seaman, in 5 days from Richmond.

Same day, the schr. Caroline, Gregory, in 9 days from Richmond.

Same day, the sloop Jane, Randall, in 7 days from Savannah.

Same day, the sloop Richard, Alfred Parker, in 13 days from Nassau, New-Providence.

Same day, the sloop Sally, Austin, 11 days from New-Providence.

Same day, the schooner Maria, Stodder, in 10 days from Alexandria.

Same day at quarantine, the schooner Mercury, Driggs, of Middletown, in 24 days from Point-Petre, Guadaloupe.

Below last night, the ship Middleton, of Charleston, in 42 days from Bourdeaux—a ship with Post and Russell's signal—and a sloop ——. A brig ashore on the East Bank.

Cleared, ships Huntress, Cunningham, Londonderry; Richard, Rogers, St. Croix; John, Spalding, Norfolk; Phœnix, Wright, Liverpool; brigs Tuley, Roberts, Bordeaux; Pallas, Rice, Norfolk; Daniel, Underhill, Newfoundland; schrs. Argus, Hanifen, St. Thomas; Martha, Atwood, Martinique; William, Garrison, Halifax; Seaflower, Pugh, Edenton; New-York Packet, Geer, New-Orleans; Lana Maria, Batten, Cambden; sloops Rolla, Roberts, Charleston; Swift, Etheridge, Edenton.

NORFOLK, July 2.

By the arrivals at this place from Guadaloupe and Martinique, we are perfectly satisfied of the French and Spanish fleets having left the latter place, from whence they proceeded to the former; they took on board about 100 mrotars and ammunition, and 150 engneers, and as report goes, sailedfor Antigua.

Arrived, ship Bristol Packet, Day, 6 days from Philadelphia.

Also, ship Thomas, Chisholm, 21 days from Guadaloupe.

Also, brig Flora, Benthal, 53 days from Liverpool.

Also, brig Ranger, Baytes, 13 days from Boston.

Also, schr. Lucy, Ellis, 14 days from Martinique.

Also, schr. Hannah, Eldridge, 7 days from Charleston.

Also, schr. Independence, Storms, 7 days from Philadelphia.

Also, schr. Hazard, Rutherford, 9 days from Charleston.

Also, sloop Director, Tarlington, 4 days from New-York.

As our paper was going to press, arrived the ship Glory, Haynes, 43 days from Liverpool. At the time captain Haynes sailed (18th May) there was a general embargo on all English vessels—says there was no Eng-
