Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the morning of the 22d instant, a Negro Woman named LUCY, of a very dark yellow complexion, about twenty-five years old, and rather a neat figure, speaks timidly, and sometimes inclining to be sulkey; has a large tumid eye, and her jaws frequently tied up for the tooth-ache. She used to wear at home a dark blue striped linen jacket and petticoat, but having carried of all her clothes, it is likely she will change her dress. It is thought she is lurking about some gentleman's place in the vicinity of Baltimore, having many friends and acquaintances in the country. Any constable or other person bringing her home, shall have the above reward, and on giving information where she can be had, shall have half the amount. She was formerly the property of Mr. Thomas Rutter, who sold her to Colonel Clemm, and by me purchased of him.

WILL be given for apprehending and securing Negro JACOB, a slave, who on the 24th inst. obsconded from the Havre-de-Grace factory, in the town of Havre-de-Grace, Maryland. Fifty Dollars will be paid, if he is taken in this state; and the above reward, if in any other—with reasonable charges for bringing him home.—JACOB is about twenty-five years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high, very stout and well made; middling black complexion; has a diffident look, when spoken to: no particular mark is recollected, except some scars on his breast, occasioned, it is supposed, by whipping when young. He is a blacksmith and nailor by trade, and can do any plantation-work. Had on when he went away, a new ticklenburg shirt, linen trousers, short coat of brown cloth, hat and shoes. He may have other clothes that are not known, and probably may have obtained from some free negro a pass, and endeavor to appear a free man, under some other name. The managers of this lottery flatter themselves, from the elevated and healthy situation chosen by the commissioners appointed for erecting the market-house, that it will be of the greatest utility and advantage to that part of the city, and to the country in general; and beg leave to recommend it as an object worthy of their encouragement.

As the above scheme offers every possible encouragement to adventurers, from the many valuable prizes it contains, and there being considerably less than two blanks to a prize, and all prizes payable in 60 days after the drawing of the lottery is completed, without any deduction, the managers entertain the greatest hopes of such a speedy sale of the tickets, as may enable them to comm ence drawing without loss of time.

Such prizes as shall not be demanded within six months after the drawing is finished, will be considered as relinquished for the benefit of the market-house.

For the satisfaction of the public, it may not be unnecessary to inform them, that the managers have given bond to the state of Maryland in the sum of 30,000 dollars for the due performance of the trust.
