July 3. d

To be Leased,

THAT very valuable PROPERTY, beautifully situated on the east side of Jones' falls, adjoining the residence in the city, of Harry D. Gough, esquire. It contains on Front-street nearly 180 feet, and extends back to the falls about the same distance, agreeably to a plot of the same made by Mr. Bouldin. The whole front on the falls is permanently secured with large logs, where there is a sufficient depth of water to admit scows or other flat-bottomed vessels to lie alongside the wharf. It is as fine high, dry, healthy situation, as perhaps any in this city; affords excellent water; and from its situation can never be injured by the rising of the water in the falls.—This property is most unquestionably among the first situations in the city for a brewery, distillery, any kind of manufactory, or for private building. Apply to Owen Dorsey, esq. near the court-house, or to the subscriber, living at the upper end of Pratt-street.
RICHARD CURSON, Jun.

Musical Skill,

On the Piano Forte,
BOTH for execution and taste, at the present period, is brought to such a degree of perfection, and so highly esteemed, that it is looked upon as one of the branches of a well cultivated education. But as something easy and interesting can be still added to the means of coming nearer to the perfection of this instrument, by exposing to the view several fundamental principles which are not sufficiently known, I thought the public would kindly patronize a new and concise work on the said instrument, unlike to any known method, and which is the fruit of serious meditations of the first masters in Europe. In it will be found directions how to sit at the Piano Forte, to lay the hand on the finger-board, to strike the keys, use the thumb and finger, the seven intervals, and all the gamuts, with a new division. Likewise, expositions of every diatonic, and aromatic gamuts, examples of the various musical graces, signs, their effects, or manner to execute them, examples of every quivering, with the various ways of fingering, double quiverings with one and same hand, four preludes, &c. &c.
This work, containing 20 or 25 pages, is offered for subscription to the lovers of arts, at 1 dollar 75 cents: to non-subscribers the price will be $2 50. Subscriptions will be thankfully received at Mr. Chaudron's, No. 12 South Third-street, Mr. S. Bradford's, No. 4, South Third-street; and at Mr. Willig's musical store, No. 12, South Fourth-street.

New Academy.

THE Subscribers have this day opened a Seminary of Learning, where will be taught the Dead Languages, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Geometry, Trigonometry, Geography, with the Use of the Globes, Astronomy, History, &c. at that healthy and well-known situation, the Old Gum, in Anne-Arundel county, four miles from the city of Baltimore. The buildings are extensive, the situation elevated, the views delightfully rural, were formerly erected for a female academy, and as such occupied for a number of years. They solicit the patronage of their friends and the public, and assure them no effort on their part shall be wanting to give general satisfaction to parents. Every attention will be paid to the children, as to their instruction, morals, person and diet. Terms of tuition, board, washing and mending, 130 dollars per annum, payable quarterly. To those who find their own beds a suitable deduction will be made.

Stop the Runaway!

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.
RAN away from the Subscriber, living in Baltimore county, about four miles from Ellicott's Upper Mills, a Negro Man, called JERRY, aged about 25 years, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high; of a yellowish complexion; has two small scars, one on his wrist, and the other on his cheek; some of his fore-teeth are decayed, which can be easily discovered when laughing. Had on when he absconded, an old wool hat, a short grey kersey coat, tow linen shirt, osnaburg trousers, & a new pair of shoes; but it is probable he will procure other cloathing and change his dress. Whoever takes up said negro, and delivers him to the subscriber, or secures him in any jail, shall receive the above reward.
